Each potential purchaser of Notes should determine for itself the relevance of the information contained in this Supplement or any financial statements and its purchase of Notes should be based upon any such investigation as it deems necessary. None of the International Arranger or the Dealers undertakes to review the financial condition or affairs of the Issuer or the Erste Group during the life of the arrangements contemplated by this Supplement nor to advise any investor or potential investor in the Notes of any information coming to the attention of any of the International Arranger or the Dealers.

On 12 June 2014, the Directive 2014/59/EU establishing a framework for the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms (Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive -- "BRRD") has been published. The BRRD establishes a framework for the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and, inter alia, requires EU-credit institutions to draw up "recovery and resolution plans" which set out certain arrangements and measures that may be taken to restore the long-term viability of the financial institution in the event of a material deterioration of its financial position. Measures undertaken under the BRRD may also have an impact on debt instruments (in particular such as the Subordinated Notes, but under certain circumstances also such as the Senior Notes) by allowing authorities to write-down such instruments or convert them into CET 1 instruments. The BRRD requires EU-Member States to transpose the BRRD into national law by 31 December 2014 at the latest and to apply the provisions (including the write-down or conversion of capital instruments) from 1 January 2015, those adopted to implement the bail-in tool shall be applied by EU-Member States from 1 January 2016 at the latest. In Austria, a respective ministerial draft bill for the Austrian Act on the Recovery and Resolution of Banks (Bundesgesetz über die Sanierung und Abwicklung von Banken – "BSAG") has been published on 12 September 2014. According to this draft the bail-in tool would already apply from 1 January 2015 on."
