

CURRICULUM VITAE

I) Personal Information

Name: Georg Winckler
Date of birth: 27 September 1943
Nationality: Austrian

II) Education

1953 – 1962 Wetzlar Grammar School
1962 – 1968 Princeton University, Princeton, New Jersey, USA and the Vienna University
1968 PhD, Vienna University

III) Professional Career

1967 Austrian Institute for Economic Research, Vienna (part-time)
1968 – 1971 Assistant Lecturer, Institute for Economic Sciences, Vienna University
1971 – 1972 Corporate Planning, Pont-à-Mousson S.A. (Saint Gobain S.A.), Nancy, France
1972 – 1975 Assistant Lecturer, Institute for Economic Sciences, Vienna University
1976 – 1978 Professor, Vienna University
1977 – 1978 Visiting Professor, Graz University, Austria and Fribourg University, Switzerland
Since 1.9.1978 Professor of Economic Theory and Policy, Institute of Economic Sciences, Vienna University
1980 – 1982 Management, Institute for Economic Sciences, Vienna University
1981 – 1999 Head of International Division, Vienna University
1985 – 1986 Visiting Professor, Linz University (Winter Semester)
1990 – 1991 Visiting Scholar, Research Department, International Monetary Fund, Washington D.C, USA
1992 – 1993 Head of the Centre for International and Interdisciplinary Studies, Vienna University
1995 Visiting Professor of Economics, Department of Economics, Georgetown University, Washington D.C., USA (Winter Semester)
1998 Visiting Professor of Intertemporal Macroeconomics, Mathematics Faculty, Bratislava University (Summer Semester)
Since 1999 Rector, Vienna University (re-elected for the period 1.10.2003 – 30.9.2007)
Since Jan 2000 Head of the Austrian Rectors' Conference (re-elected in June 2001)
Since April 2001 Vice President and Member of the Board of the European University Association (EUA), Brussels-Genf

IV) Current professional focus

Monetary policy, European currency integration, and macroeconomy