Win a meet and greet with the Starmaniacs with spark7

Things are just getting started following the grand finale of Starmania, with Starmania on Tour powered by spark7. The concert tour of the year will make stops in every province – of course, the star of the tour will be the winner of Starmania. spark7 is the main sponsor and will bring fans to the concerts, backstage and directly to the stars. Fans can win exclusive meet and greets – more information is available at www.spark7.com.

Starting on 27 February, Starmania on Tour will present twelve exciting concerts throughout Austria. The winner of Starmania will be live on stage, accompanied and supported by other Starmaniacs and guest stars. Starmania on Tour will be the Austrian premiere of the winner's song for 2009, which will be performed live for the first time during the tour. spark7, Erste Bank und Sparkassen's brand for young people, will accompany the Starmaniacs on their big tour in cooperation with ORF and Fechter Management.

Tickets

Tickets are available now in all Erste Bank und Sparkassen branches. Once again, customers will receive a substantial discount this year.

spark7 contest: Meet and greet

In addition, fans can win an amazing prize – spark7 will be giving away numerous fan packages for each concert, including meet and greets with the Starmaniacs and free tickets. Everyone who opens a spark7 account will be included in the drawing.

On stage with the stars

Are there any fans who don't want to have a picture of themselves with their idols? With spark7, fans can win an exclusive photo session with the Starmaniacs at each concert on the tour.

For the first time, spark7 is also giving fans the chance to perform live on stage with the Starmaniacs. Two lucky winners will accompany the Starmaniacs on the legendary spark7 inflatable guitars at each concert.

Everyone who signs up for the spark7 contest at the concert will be eligible to win the drawing.
