As of 1 October, Stephan de Giacomo (40) will be taking over one of the four regional director posts in Erste Bank, responsible for all branches in Districts 2 and 16-22, as well as for Klosterneuburg and Tulln. Stephan joined one of the Erste Bank branches in 1990. In 2002 he graduated from the University of Applied Sciences for Banking and Finance, after studying part-time alongside his day-to-day responsibilities as branch manager and later branch director in Vienna. In 2008 Stephan became the head of Sales Management at Erste Bank. As part of his ongoing training he spent three months in retail management at our Romanian sister bank BCR. Father of two children he is married and lives in Korneuburg.

Together with three other regional directors, Stephan de Giacomo oversees the development of customer business in branches in Vienna, Lower Austria and Burgenland.
