28.09.2010

As of 1 October 2010 Hans Peter Rucker (43) will be one of Erste Bank's new regional directors, responsible for Burgenland as well as the southern part of Lower Austria. Rucker began his banking career in 1990 as a corporate client adviser in Graz. In 1997 he became Erste Bank's "youngest branch manager". After occupying several management positions within the Bank he has headed up the corporate business in Burgenland and southern Lower Austria since 2001. Rucker is now fully in charge of private and corporate customer business in this region. Hans Peter is married and was born in Burgenland, and he will make a major contribution to the further development of this area of business in the region.
