

Career: Martina Ernst New Head of Human Resources at Erste Bank

09.12.2013

As of February 1 2014, Martina Ernst will take over as head of Human Resources Management at Erste Bank Oesterreich. She follows in the footsteps of Sabine Mlnarsky-Bständig, who has moved on to AUA. Ms. Ernst has begun her career at Berlitz International. She spent 16 years there, during seven of which she served as the Area Manager for Central Southern Europe. In 2007 she moved on to UniCredit Bank Austria, where she was head of HR Corporate Center Austria and CEE. Thereafter she spent two years at the corporate headquarters in Milan, and returned to Vienna in 2013 to take over HR management for Bank Austria's retail department. Apart from her academic career with an MA in translation and interpretation (French, Spanish, Economics) from the University of Heidelberg, she has also graduated with an executive MBA from the Vienna University of Economics as well as the University of Minnesota. Born in Bavaria, she is married and resides in Vienna since 1998.

[Download \[jpg; 92.1 KB\]](#)
