

ERSTE BANK HUNGARY Zrt.
COMPLAINT MANAGEMENT POLICY

Dear Customer,

First, we thank you for choosing ERSTE Bank to manage your financial matters!

Our primary aim is to form and develop our products and services in the way that they meet your needs. Therefore, your complaints and observations have an important role in our endeavor to do this, since they help us to improve and develop the quality of our services. If you, despite our efforts, have an objection, we inform you below about the ways of submitting a complaint and the main points of the Bank's complaint management.

I. COMPLAINT SUBMISSION METHODS

You can submit your complaint to our Bank in the following ways:

- Personally – in words or in writing – at any branch of the Bank during business hours. Corporate customers can also submit complaints to the contact persons or administrators of trading centers in a predetermined point of time. A third person can also hand over your complaint to one of our administrators, if you described and duly signed the complaint and the signature corresponds to that on the specimen signature card.

Exact addresses and business hours of the branches are available on the Bank's official website: (www.erstebank.hu). You can contact the Bank in the following ways:

- Over the phone on the Bank's TeleBank call numbers from 07:00 to 21:00
  - retail and micro-company customers: via Retail TeleBank in Hungary and from abroad on phone number +361 298 0222
  - corporate customers: via Corporate TeleBank in Hungary and from abroad on phone number +361 298 0223.

Outside the above time interval, i.e. on banking days from 21:00 to 07:00, at weekend, on non-working day and public holiday urgency operations (e.g. stop of bankcard, George Web or TeleBank) and general product information can only be asked for.

Phone number +36 1 302 5885 that is reserved for bankcard stop can naturally be dialed in the future too.

Customer calls to the Bank will be answered by an operator within 5 minutes and complaints can be reported from 8:00 to 16:00 on business days and from 8:00 to 20:00 on one business day per week (extended business day, Wednesday). In case the regular extended business day falls on a national holiday, the actual extended business day shall be the first business day of the week concerned.

We call your attention to the fact that if the complaint is managed over the phone, the conversation is recorded and the voice recording is retained for 5 years.

- In writing by post to the following address:
  - retail and micro-company customers: ERSTE BANK HUNGARY Zrt. Central Customers Service Department, 1138 Budapest Népfürdő u. 24-26.
  - corporate customers: ERSTE BANK HUNGARY Zrt. Corporate Complaint Management, 1138 Budapest Népfürdő u. 24-26.
- By fax:
  - retail and micro-company customers: to fax number +36-1-219-4784;
  - corporate customers: to fax number +36-1-219-4766.

- By e-mail to the Bank's e-mail address: erste@erstebank.hu. In the interest of the customers' security, the Bank can only send general answer in e-mail that does not contain banking secret; therefore, the Bank sends its written answer (that may contain banking secret) to your mailing address, if your complaint was submitted via e-mail.
- In case you are entitled to use any of the electronic banking services (George Web, George App, Erste Elektra, Erste Multicash), you may send your complaint to the Bank in electronic letter through the electronic banking system belonging to the specific electronic service. The Bank sends written answer to retail customers through the same electronic banking system. In the case of corporate customers, the Bank mails the answer to the customer's mailing address.

Complaint can be submitted through another authorized person. The authorization should be drawn up in the form of an authentic instrument or private document with conclusive force as set out in Act III of 1952 on the Code of Civil Procedure, or in the form of letter of attorney.

II. INVESTIGATION OF THE COMPLAINT

Is the investigation of the complaint free of charge?

Investigation of the complaint is free of charge, that is, no separate fee can be charged for it.

How is your complaint managed?

The Bank investigates the complaint with the consideration of all relevant circumstances in user friendly way.

- Complaints submitted verbally, either in person or over the phone, are investigated and, if possible, resolved by the Bank immediately.
- Voice recording of the complaint submitted over the phone are retained for five years. You are enabled to listen to the recorded conversation and the Bank makes its official transcript available to you within 45 25 days free of charge.
- If the immediate complaint investigation is not possible, or you disagree with the way the complaint is managed and with the Bank's positions regarding the issue, the branch administrator draws up a report of the complaint and – if the complaint was presented in person – a copy of the minutes will be handed over to you. If the verbal complaint is submitted over the phone, the copy of the minutes will be sent to you along with the answer to the complaint.

The report serves to record the following:

- a) your name;
- b) your address, seat and notification address, if necessary;
- c) place, time and method of the complaint submission;
- d) detailed description of complaint, stating separately each objection contained in the complaint so that all such objections are investigated in full;
- e) client number, contract number that the complaint relates to;
- f) list of documents, papers and other evidences presented by you;
- g) your signature and that of the person drafted the minutes, if the immediate investigation of the complaint is not possible;
- h) place and date of drafting the minutes;
- i) name and address of the Bank;
- j) identification number of the complaint.

Where is the complaint investigated?

Complaints that cannot be investigated on the spot (in bank branch, over the phone) and the complaints of retail customers submitted in writing are sent to the Central Customer Service and Complaint Management Department. Complaints of corporate customers are sent to the Corporate Complaint Management Department to investigate, resolve, and settle the problems as soon as possible. These complaint management organizations can be contacted in writing using their mailing addresses specified above.

When do you get answer to your complaint with which content?

In case of complaint recorded or submitted in writing, the Bank sends a written answer to you within 30 calendar days after complaint submission. Payment service related complaints are handled in 15 business days, in exceptional circumstances that time can expand to 35 business days, in this situation the Bank sends detailed information about the reasons of delay in a holding response. Exceptions are the complaints that relate to bankcards, since the rules of international card companies apply to these cases and the complaint management takes longer time (max. 150 days). You will be informed about this fact within the regulatory deadline asking your patience until the investigation is closed. General questions about our products and services, as well as information on data changes, requests for equity and other applications cannot be considered as complaints.

In our answer we inform you on the result of the investigation, the Bank's position, the reason for it, the actions to be taken and the possibilities of legal remedy and conciliation.

III. DATA REQUIRED FOR COMPLAINT MANAGEMENT

Which data can we ask for in particular during complaint management?

- a) your name;
- b) contract number, client number;
- c) address, seat and notification address;
- d) phone number;
- e) preferred notification method;
- f) product or service that the complaint relates to;
- g) reason and description of the complaint;
- h) demand of complaint;
- i) copy of documents in the customer's possession necessary for supporting the complaint;
- j) valid authorization letter, if the customer acts via an authorized representative, particularly in the case of authorization letter containing the data listed above in a) b) c) f) g) and h) points;
- k) other data necessary for investigating and answering the complaint.

For lack of data suitable for identification, only general information can be given to you or to the person authorized by you that does not contain banking secret, security secret and personal data.

The Bank handles your data in compliance with Act CXII of 2011 on the Right of Informational Self-Determination and on Freedom of Information

IV. THE BANK'S INFORMING OBLIGATION REGARDING COMPLAINT MANAGEMENT

Possible remedies in case you disagree with our answer.

Our primary aim is that we close the complaint in a manner satisfactory for both parties. Therefore, we ask you to contact first the Customer Service Department of Erste Bank Hungary Zrt. dealing with complaint management, if you think that our answer is inadequate or unsatisfactory.

If the complaint is rejected or the legal deadline for investigating the complaint is passed, you can turn to the following bodies and authorities:

Consumer: (consumer is a natural person who acts in a matter that falls outside its profession and economic activity):

In the case of complaint that does not qualify as individual legal dispute (that is connected with the violation of consumer protection rules set out in Act CXXXIX of 2013 on the National Bank of Hungary), you can turn to the Financial Consumer Protection Centre of the National Bank of Hungary (mailing address: National Bank of Hungary 1534 BKKP Pf. 777, in person: at the NMH customer service (1122 Budapest, Krisztina krt. 6.) or at any Government window; phone: 06-80-203-776, fax: 06-1-489-9102; e-mail address: ugyfelszolgalat@mbn.hu).

In the case of individual legal dispute (if the complaint is connected with contract conclusion, validity, legal impacts and termination of the contract concluded between the Bank and the customer or with contract violation and the legal impacts thereof)

- a) you can turn to the Financial Arbitration Board, an independent body operated by NBH /National Bank of Hungary/ and initiate proceedings (mailing address: Financial Conciliation Board H-1525 Budapest Pf. : 172.; phone: 06-80-203-776; e-mail address: ugyfelszolgalat@mbn.hu; Website: www.penzugyibekeltetotestulet.hu), or
- b) you can institute an action at the Court in charge of the region.
- c) Through Online Dispute Resolution Platform in the case of service contract initiated online: <https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/odr>.

Regulation (EU) No. 524/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council on online dispute resolution for consumer disputes ((Regulation) created the Online Dispute Resolution Platform. The Online Dispute Resolution Platform is a one-stop administration point where residents of the European Union can resolve their disputes connected with the obligations arising from online service contracts with service providers settled in the European Union in an out-of-court procedure.

The Regulation applies to Erste Bank too, if financial dispute arises between the Bank and the consumer in connection with online service contract. The consumer can initiate the out-of-court resolution of the dispute at the jointly elected dispute resolution forum, at the Financial Arbitration Board in Hungary.
