2. PRINCIPLES

2.1. The contractual relations established between BCR and the Client based on the Contractual Documentation are based on mutual trust, good faith, compliance with the commitments made and confidentiality.

3. CSB APPLICATION

3.1. CSB is applied to all legal relations between the Client and BCR resulted from the conclusion of Conventions related to the Banking Services requested by the Client.

3.2. CSB appropriate provisions will be applied to any unregulated aspect in the other Conventions signed for a certain Banking Service.

4. INTERPRETATION

4.1. If there are discrepancies between CSB provisions and the provisions of other conventions related to each Banking Service, the provisions of the Conventions shall prevail, except for the Conventions concluded before the date of 17 March 2018 the CSB coming into force and which do not have as object a Credit, case in which the CSB provisions shall prevail.

4.2. CSB is completed by the Banking Law, by other applicable regulatory documents, as well as by the internal and international applicable customs and practices. To the extent there are discrepancies between CSB and the internal and international banking norms and customs, CSB shall prevail.

4.3. At CSB signing moment, the Client receives a CSB copy on paper or on a durable medium, according to the mutual decision of the Client and BCR. In addition, CSB is available anytime to the Client, upon his request, on the Internet Page and in the Banking Units.

5. CONTRACTUAL DOCUMENTATION TENOR

- 5.1. CSB produces effects for an undetermined period of time, starting with its signing date, and remaining valid until the extinguish of all legal relations set up between BCR and the Client.
- 5.2. The tenor of each Convention is that mentioned in its content, unless otherwise provided.

6. CHANGE OF CONTRACTUAL DOCUMENTATION

- 6.1. BCR can propose the Client changes related to the Contractual Documentation, according to legal provisions and the Contractual Documentation.
- 6.2. Except for the specifically stipulated cases in the Contractual Documentation, BCR will send by a previous Notification the proposals for change, information and conditions related to them, including by supplying an addendum or a new draft Convention or CSB, if the case.
- 6.3. In order to propose the Client changes of the Contractual Documentation, BCR will proceed as follows:
  - 6.3.1. If the changes relate to a Credit granted to the Client, including by means of an account overdraft or a Credit Card, they will be communicated to the Client by a Notification, at least 30 (thirty) days before the respective changes application. If the changes relate to the Credit Costs, these changes will become effective by signing an addendum between BCR and the Client. The client has 15 (fifteen) days to communicate to BCR his option to accept or not the new conditions. If no answer is received within the above mentioned term, this is not regarded as a tacit acceptance and the relevant Convention remains unchanged in the absence of an addendum mutually agreed. BCR will not penalize the Client and will not declare the Credit due in advance if the Client does not accept the new conditions;
  - 6.3.2. If the changes relate to Payment Services, they will be communicated to the Client by at least two months before. The changes will be regarded as accepted by the Client and will become effective when meeting the term mentioned in the Notification, except for the case in which before the date of their application, the Client notifies BCR about his refuse. In that case, the Client has the right to unilaterally denounce the relevant Convention immediately and without any additional Costs, on condition he pays all the amounts due to BCR based on the Convention until the date of its termination;
  - 6.3.3. If the changes relate to the provisions of a Convention concluded for an undetermined period, others than those mentioned in Art. 6.3.1 or 6.3.2 above, they will be communicated to the Client by a Notification, at least 30 (thirty) days before the respective changes application. The changes will be regarded as tacitly accepted by the Client and will become effective when meeting the term mentioned in the Notification, except for the case in which before the date of their application, the Client notifies BCR about his refuse. In that case, the Client has the right to unilaterally denounce the relevant Convention immediately and without any additional Costs. This unilateral denunciation will be conditioned by the full payment by the Client of all the amounts due to BCR based on the Convention provisions until the date of its termination. In the case of savings products, changes made under this Clause are intended to operate only for products opened after the changes. Validly expressing the Consent on a Payment Order that feeds a Savings Account for a savings product represents the Client's acceptance of the notified changes;
  - 6.3.4. If the changes relate to the provisions of a Convention concluded for a determined period, others than those mentioned in Art. 6.3.1 or 6.3.2 above, they will be communicated to the Client by a Notification, at least 30 (thirty) days before the respective changes application. The Client is bound to notify BCR in writing about his option to accept or to refuse the respective changes. If no answer is received within the above mentioned term, this is not regarded as a tacit acceptance and the relevant Convention remains unchanged in the absence of an addendum mutually agreed between the Client and BCR;
  - 6.3.5. If the changes relate to the interest rate or the exchange rate applicable to the amounts in the Accounts, the provisions of Art. 6.3.2 - 6.3.4 above are not applicable, the changes being applied immediately and without any Notification, if:
    - a) the changes are based on the Reference Index or a contractual mechanism set up by Convention regarding the Reference Index (and in the case stipulated in Art. 6.3.1, the Client will be informed by BCR according to the provisions of the Contractual Documentation); or
    - b) the changes are based on the Reference Exchange Rate or a contractual mechanism clearly set up by Convention regarding the Reference Exchange Rate; or
    - c) the changes of the interest rate or of the exchange rate are more advantageous for the Client, such changes being communicated by BCR to the Client by means and at the frequency set up in the applicable Convention;
  - 6.3.6. If the changes relate to the interest rate or of the exchange rate applicable to the Credit, the provisions of Art.6.3.2 – 6.3.3. above are not applicable, the changes being applied immediately and without any Notification, if: (a) the changes are based on the Reference Index and this Reference Index is provided to be applied by Convention; in th□□ case, the Client will be informed by BCR according to the provisions of the Contractual

Document; or (b) the changes are based on the Reference Exchange Rate or a contractual mechanism clearly set up by Convention which relies on the Reference Exchange Rate.

- 6.3.7. The provisions of Art. 6.3.1. - 6.3.4. above shall not be applicable in case: (a) the Client and BCR sign an addendum regarding the change of the Contractual Documentation, such changes coming into force on the date stipulated in the respective addendum, or in the absence of such an information, as of the date of the addendum signing by the Client and BCR; and (b) Client accesses new BCR functionalities and/ or Banking Services and/ or new conditions, in which case the valid Consent given by the Client for the respective operations performance represents the Client's accord for the immediate acceptance of the new functionalities and conditions applicable to the existing Banking Services and/ or to the new Banking Services, by the case.
- 6.4. In case the Client does not accept a BCR proposal regarding CSB modification, the unchanged CSB provisions will remain applicable only for the Banking Services in progress on the proposed date for the change application, until the moment the respective Banking Services are performed. For any new Banking Services, including of the same nature, the Client requests after the proposed date for CSB change application, the changed provisions of CSB will be applicable.
- 6.5. If the changes of the Contractual Documentation are imposed by a regulatory document, they will be regarded as accepted by the Client and will become applicable according to the relevant provisions of the applicable regulatory document.

7. TERMINATION OF CONTRACTUAL DOCUMENTATION. UNILATERAL DENOUNCIATION

7.1. CSB of any of the Conventions can cease:

- 7.1.1. by parties' agreement mentioned in a written document signed by both parties; any other Conventions besides the CSB, by closing all the Banking Services and the functionality provided by the Client;
- 7.1.2. except for the Conventions regarding a Credit granting, by BCR Notification if BCR identifies a significant reputation risk consequent to the continuation of the contractual relation with the Client and/ or the Client is fraudulently using the Banking Services and/ or BCR has suspicions related to the purpose and/ or nature of the transactions run or ordered related to the Client's Bank Account;
- 7.1.3. by BCR Notification, if the Client is repeatedly failing to meet his obligations assumed based on the Contractual Documentation, or in case he undoubtedly manifested to BCR his intention not to execute any of such obligations; or
- 7.1.4. in cases expressly specified in CSB or the relevant Conventions conclude between the Client and BCR.
- 7.2. The Client and BCR can unilaterally denounce CSB or any Convention regarding Payment Services by a written Notification sent 15 (fifteen) days before the Client's denunciation, respectively two months before BCR denunciation.
- 7.3. The cease of CSB application results in the closing of all Accounts, blockage of all Cards and termination of any Banking Services supply.
- 7.4. The cease of CSB and of any Convention application will produce effects in the future and the Client's obligations due until the termination date and BCR rights derived from the Conventions will produce full effects until the full repayment by the Client of all amounts due to BCR and until the return to BCR of all instruments (Token, Cards, etc) made available to him.
- 7.5. On the Conventions termination, BCR will offer the Client for free a document confirming that all obligations between the parties were extinguished. At the same time, all Accounts related to the respective Banking Services will be closed, without the payment of any additional Costs.

II. CLIENTS' IDENTIFICATION AND KNOWLEDGE. CLIENT'S REPRESENTATION

8. CLIENT'S IDENTIFICATION

- 8.1. BCR will verify the identity of the Client, of his legal representative, of the Proxy or User when initiating the relation and anytime during the supply of Banking Services.
- 8.2. Identity is established based on the original identity document, of the Signature Specimen and/ or of other documents requested by BCR in the Banking Units, or based on the identification elements agreed for the Banking Services which do not require the Client's presence in a Banking Unit.
- 8.3. Any Service is supplied only after the Client's identification and, by the case, of his legal representative, of the Proxy and/ or User.
- 8.4. BCR has the right to refuse the initiation of continuation of Banking Services supply, as well as to refuse to perform any Banking Transaction or execute any Instruction: (a) if the Client does not provide the documents and/ or information requested by BCR or provides data and/ or documents which are false, incomplete or incorrect; or in case BCR has suspicions of fraud or false or has suspicions regarding the purpose or nature of the Banking Transaction.

- 8.5. The Signature Specimens of the Client and of his Proxies will be gathered, according to BCR request, at the moment of Conventions signing or afterwards (e.g. when new Proxies are added, if the case). The Signature Specimens will be stored in BCR systems.
- 8.6. BCR has the right to refuse to perform any Banking Transaction if BCR has suspicions regarding the reality of declarations or of the documents supplied by the Client, including when the identification elements supplied by the Client or by his Proxy/ User do not match those registered in BCR records.

9. KNOW-YOUR-CUSTOMER. MONEY LAUNDERING PREVENTION

- 9.1. BCR has obligations imposed by the legislation on know-your-customer and money laundering prevention and crime financing. BCR can refuse to supply any Banking Services or to perform any operation in case the Client or the Proxy does not comply with BCR requests based on such legal obligations.

10. CONVENTIONAL PROXIES

- 10.1. Mandate based on account opening Convention. The Client can set up one or several Proxies, by nominating them when opening the Account or later, by an addendum signed in front of BCR representatives. BCR will identify the Proxy, according to the rules set up in Clause 8 (Client's Identification). The mandate remains valid for the whole period of Convention until BCR receives from the Client a written notification regarding its revocation, cease or change due to any reasons. The appointed Proxies designated on the Account by the relevant Conventions will be recognized in the relationship with BCR unlimited rights regarding: (i) the creation of new savings products (fixed-term deposits, Savings accounts, savings plans etc.), (ii) modification and closure of the Banking Services (as a package or individually) contracted by the Client, (iii) opening on behalf of the Client, in relation to the relevant Account, any Banking Services (as a package or individually) from BCR offer, (iv) its own designation as a proxy with unlimited rights and signing new Banking Services Conventions, the signature of the Proxy being enforceable against the Client. The appointed Proxies in the relevant Conventions who were granted the right to liquidate/ open new Saving Products were also mandated to perform from/ through the attached Current Accounts all the required operations to achieve their mandate granted by the relevant Convention.
- 10.2. Representation based on authentic power of attorney. The Client can also be represented by a Proxy appointed by a valid power of attorney granted by the Client, made available to BCR in authentic form and which includes in detail the operations making the object of the mandate. BCR has the right, but not also the obligation to also consider a mandate which is granted by a power of attorney which was not concluded in authentic form.
- 10.3. BCR has the right not to consider the mandate granted based on a power of attorney which do not stipulate its period, if since its authentication more than 3 (three) years have passed.
- 10.4. The Client undertakes to notify BCR about the change, cease or revocation due to any reason of the mandate given to the Proxy or to another person, as soon as possible since the event occurrence. The Client is liable and fully bearing the risk of any loss suffered as a result of incompliance with this notification obligation.
- 10.5. BCR reserves the right: (i) to request the Client to register with the National Notary's Register of Power of Attorneys and their Revocations ("RNNEPR") the power of attorneys in authentic form; and (ii) to make verifications in RNNEPR regarding the revocation of these powers of attorney. The revocation verification is usually made when the power of attorney is presented for the first time, as well as later, whenever BCR thinks such a verification is necessary both to avoid some Banking Transactions that might prejudice the Client, as to observe the banking know-your-customer requirements and practices. The verification by BCR if a power of attorney is registered and/ or revoked is commissioned according to the Standard Commissions Tariff valid on the verifications date in RNNEPR.

The verification of power of attorneys in RNNEPR will take place in Working Days, during the Working Timetable displayed in the Banking Units and on the Internet Page, but without exceeding COT set up by BCR for power of attorneys receiving.

11. LACK OF EXERCISE CAPACITY. CLIENT'S RESTRICTED EXERCISE CAPACITY

- 11.1. In all legal documents and operations with BCR, the Client without exercise capacity (underage physical person who is not 14 (fourteen) years old or the physical person of age under legal court interdiction) will be presented by his legal representative, who will be able to make operations in the Client's name, within legal limits.
- 11.2. In all legal documents and operations with BCR, the Client limited exercise capacity (underage physical person of over 14 (fourteen) years old) will be able to make operations personally, with the accord of his legal representative and, by the case, with the accord of the guardianship court and the advice of the family council. The accord of the legal representatives (parents/ guardian/ special custodian) can be expressed directly in a Convention, when concluding it, or based on the statement given the latest at the moment of Convention signing in front of BCR or in authenticated form in front of the notary public, according to the models made available by BCR (if they exist).

11.3. The underage Client has the right to deposit in his Accounts any amount without the accord of his parents/ guardian/ special custodian on condition the total value of the existing amounts in his Account do not exceed the secured amount by the Bank Deposit Guarantee Fund. The underage Client has the right to deposit amounts in his Accounts with the accord of his parents/ guardian/ special custodian, even if the total amounts deposited in BCR Accounts exceed the secured amount by the Bank Deposit Guarantee Fund.

12. PERSONS INCAPABLE TO READ OR WRITE

12.1. In the relation with BCR, the Client who cannot read and/ or write will make any legal document: (a) in written form in authentic document, (b) by Proxy with specifically authentic power of attorney; or (c) by other legal way securing the validity of the Client's consent regarding the respective document.

III. PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION. BANKING SECRET

13. TARGETED PERSONS

13.1. For the purposes of this chapter, the targeted persons are the Client (even after the Banking Services ceased to be supplied), Proxies, Users, co-payers (co-debtors) and fidejussors, any potential clients and the members of their families.

As regards the processing of personal data belonging to the Client's family members and/ or the persons authorized by the Client, since BCR cannot, from a practical point of view, provide directly the information to these categories of persons, it is the Client's responsibility to inform the persons concerned about the processing of their personal data and to obtain their consent regarding the processing of the data, insofar as is necessary to fulfill the conditions stipulated by the law.

14. PURPOSES FOR WHICH PERSONAL DATA IS PROCESSED

14.1. BCR processes personal data based on the provisions of Law no. 677/ 2001 and (from May 25, 2018) of Regulation (EU) 2016/ 679. Their processing by BCR is registered in personal data processing register under no. 3772-3776.

14.2. Fulfilling BCR's legal obligations for the following purposes: Fraud prevention and guaranteeing banking secrecy by analyzing/ verifying the authenticity of the presented ID, performing and improving the banking services offered by taking over the data of the Identity Card into BCR applications, in accordance with the applicable legal requirements; Know Your Client, prevention of money laundering and combating terrorist financing, transaction reporting, management of conflicts of interest, management of controls by authorities; the fulfillment of the banking supervision obligations on BCR and Erste Group and reporting obligations to Erste Group or the supervisory authorities, compliance with the national and European prudential requirements applicable to credit institutions; credit risk management and risk management by creating profiles; assessing eligibility in order to provide standard or personalized banking products and services (including in the stage of granting/ approval) by creating a profile that takes into account indicators such as creditworthiness, credit risk, determining the indebtedness; assessing investment behavior by creating a profile; liquidity management, balance sheet optimization and determining transfer pricing; portfolio management; financial administrative management; keeping/ storage (prior to archiving) and archiving of documents; internal audit; ensuring security in the premises of BCR and its branches; implementing personal data security measures (including backing up). In order to achieve the above-mentioned purposes, BCR will, as far as necessary, also rely on its legitimate interest in the pursuit of its object of activity.

14.3. The fulfillment of the legitimate interests of BCR, in the context of carrying out its object of activity, for the following purposes: Implementing means to allow any person to report inconsistencies regarding the banking services offered by BCR; improving banking services provided by optimizing internal flows, policies and procedures (including cost and budget optimization through cost controlling activities); design, development, testing and use of existing or new computer systems and IT services (including storage of databases in the country or abroad); mergers, acquisitions and similar transactions; simple marketing, conducting surveys on banking services, BCR activity, BCR and Erste Group members and contract partners, eligibility assessment to provide standard or personalized banking products and services, handling complaints about banking services.

14.4. Based on the Client's consent in the introductory part, for the following purposes: (i) processing the personal numeric code, including the transfer of this data category, to states within the EU/ EEA and outside the EU/ EEA, to the extent that consent is required by law. This processing activity is necessary to fulfill the BCR's obligations on the provision of banking services and to ensure the unique identification of the person in the BCR systems, in order to guarantee the banking secrecy; (ii) direct marketing, advertising through the intermediation/ promotion of the most suitable products and services of BCR, of the BCR Group, of the partners and of the Erste Group, including the transmission by BCR of commercial communications for this purpose; (iii) accessing data held by the Credit Bureau about the Client, in order to assess its eligibility for providing standard or customized products and services. The consent expressed in respect of the processing activities listed in the above paragraph may be withdrawn at any time without affecting the legality of the processing activities carried out prior to the withdrawal.

14.5. In order to conclude and perform the contract between the Client and BCR, for the following purposes: Carrying out any legal relationship between BCR and the Client, in order to provide financial banking services, including online banking; managing the relationship with the Client, sending the data to the Credit Bureau during the management of the credit relationship; the good execution of banking transactions, the development/ optimization of banking services; monitoring all obligations undertaken by the Client towards any of the entities of the BCR Group and Erste Group, data quality management, including the transmission and/ or transfer of information necessary to determine the payment capacity and payment behavior; debt collection/ recovery of receivables (as well as activities preceding them, including analyzes and transmission of negative data to the Credit Bureau), the conclusion and/ or performance of insurance and reinsurance contracts (including for the Client, as insured, to be eligible for insurance in the event of the insured risk); establishing, exercising or defending certain rights of BCR and/ or its subsidiaries in court, performing or processing SWIFT payment transactions, including, if applicable, the transfer of personal data to the US by SWIFT.

15. CATEGORIES OF DATA

15.1. In order to meet the aforementioned processing purposes, BCR processes the data that the Client provides directly, as well as data that BCR generates on their basis, namely: customer identification code, trading data, information resulting from the non-compliances reported by any person.

15.2. Refusal to provide personal data may result in the impossibility to provide banking services and/ or to fulfill the other processing purposes by BCR.

16. PROCESSING

16.1. Personal data processing represents any operation or set of operations performed on the personal data by automatic or non-automatic means.

17. DATA ADDRESSEES

17.1. For the purposes of processing, BCR may disclose some or all of the personal data categories to the following categories of recipients: The Client or the legal representatives of the Client, BCR's contractual partners, BCR's proxies, BCR and Erste Group entities, public institutions/ authorities in Romania or abroad, international organizations, providers of goods and services, banking companies, credit bureaus, debt collection or receivable recovery agents, insurance and reinsurance companies, professional organizations, market research organizations.

18. PROCESSING PERIOD. DATA LATER DESTINATION

18.1. In order to achieve these processing purposes, BCR will process the personal data during the performance of the banking services as well as subsequently in order to comply with the applicable legal obligations, including the provisions on archiving. It is possible that, following the fulfillment of the legal archiving deadlines, BCR will have anonymization of the data, thus depriving it of personal character and continuing the processing of anonymous data for statistical purposes.

19. DATA TRANSFERS ABROAD

19.1. Currently, in order to accomplish the above-mentioned goals, it is possible that BCR transfers certain categories of personal data outside Romania, in EU/ EEA countries: Austria, Czech Republic, Hungary, Croatia, Belgium, Germany, United Kingdom, and outside the EU/ EEA to the United States of America. For transfers outside the EU/ EEA, BCR will base its transfer of personal data on the standard contractual clauses adopted at European Commission level or other guarantees recognized by law.

19.2. It may be that the above-mentioned transfer states may change in the course of its activities. You can get an updated list of countries where your personal data is transferred to the following link: www.bcr.ro/politica-de-confidentialitate.

20. RIGHTS OF TARGETED PERSONS

20.1. The Client, his/ her family members as well as the authorized persons shall benefit, under the conditions provided by the legislation in the field of personal data processing, from the following rights: the right to information; the right of access to data; the right to rectification; the right to delete the data (the "right to be forgotten"), provided that the conditions laid down by law are met; the right to restrict processing (as of May 25, 2018); the right to data portability (as of May 25, 2018); the right to opposition; the right not to be subject to an automatic individual decision; and the right to address to the National Supervisory Authority for Personal Data Processing or to the competent courts, if they deem necessary.

20.2. It is possible that, following the request for data deletion, BCR will anonymize this data (thus depriving it of its personal nature) and continue processing for statistical purposes under these conditions.

20.3. For more details on the processing activities carried out by BCR, as well as on the rights the Client enjoys in this context, he/ she may file an application (in a material/ electronic format via e-mail) to: office@bcr.ro or contact BCR Data Protection Officer at e-mail address: dpo@bcr.ro (after his/ her appointment at BCR level).

21. BANKING SECRET

- 21.1. BCR will preserve the confidentiality about all actions, data and information regarding the activity conducted regarding the Client, in the conditions provided by the Banking Law and by other applicable regulations.
- 21.2. The Client understands and accepts that BCR has the right, or by the case, the obligation to disclose such actions, data or information to any enabled authorities according to the Banking Law to request or receive such information.
- 21.3. BCR will be able to supply any information about any of the targeted persons and the Contractual Documentation as it regards required or appropriate, to any person to whom it intends to assign or transfer all or any of its rights and obligations based on the Contractual Documentation.
- 21.4. BCR will take all reasonable measures so that its representatives or employees do not use to their personal benefit or to the benefit of others, directly or indirectly, information submitted to the professional secret in the banking field, which they hold or became aware of in any way.

IV. INSTRUCTIONS

22. GENERAL ASPECTS. INSTRUCTIONS FORM

- 22.1. The provisions of this chapter will adequately be applied also as regards the Instructions BCR is sending to a Proxy, User or legal representative of the Client.
- 22.2. BCR will execute a Client's Instruction if it is clear, concrete, complete, sent according to the Contractual Documentation and the regulations applicable to the Client and for the operation the Instruction is referring to. In a contrary case, BCR will be able to refuse to execute the Instructions. Even if an Instruction does not comply with the form provided in the Contractual Documentation, BCR can decide (without being obliged to do so) to execute the respective Instruction if, in the transmitted for, it contains all the specifications required for execution.
- 22.3. In case of Instructions the Client has sent through Remote Banking Services/ 24 Banking BCR, BCR can request him the confirmation of the respective Instructions by similar or different communication means than those through which the Instruction was transmitted.
- 22.4. In case the Client initiates Instructions through Remote Banking Services/ 24 Banking BCR, he is bound to take all adequate precaution measures to avoid transmission errors or unauthorized use.
- 22.5. BCR can request any justifying documents regarding the Banking Transactions ordered by the Client (before or after the execution of any Banking Transaction) whenever it regards necessary. BCR can refuse to perform a further Transaction or Banking Transactions if the requested documentation is not supplied in due time.

23. INSTRUCTIONS SIGNING

- 23.1. On condition of meeting any other applicable requirements, BCR will execute an Instruction sent by the Client if his signature existing on that Instruction seems to be matching that from the Signature Specimen. If BCR does not have a Client's Signature Specimen or his signature does not seem to match the one on the Instruction, BCR will refuse to execute such Instructions, except for the case in which it can be proved in another way that the respective signature belongs to the Client.
- 23.2. The instruction sent by an electronic communication means can be regarded as an Instruction signed by the Client if the specific conditions are met. The Instructions sent by Remote Banking Services/ 24 Banking BCR have to comply with the specific authorization rules.
- 23.3. Each power of attorney, authorization or Instruction of mandate kind sent by the Client to BCR by means of or related to the Contractual Documentation is regarded as given for the whole period of the Contractual Documentation and is also regarded as irrevocable, except for the cases in which the parties expressly agree in writing a different validity period or the revocation possibility. The provisions of Art. 2.015 of the Civil Code are not applicable to any such power of attorney, authorization of Instruction.
- 23.4. BCR can execute any power of attorney, authorization or Instruction of mandate kind given by the Client, either personally, or by means of other persons selected by BCR.
- 23.5. Until the expiry of its validity term or until the termination of the Contractual Documentation, any mandate sent by the Client to BCR by means of or related to the Contractual Documentation is regarded as irrevocable, unless the parties specifically agree in writing over the revocation possibility.

24. LEGALITY

- 24.1. If BCR appreciates that the supply of Banking Services, according to the Instructions received from the Client, will result in the violation of an applicable legal provision, BCR will be entitled not to execute such Instructions.
- 24.2. BCR has the right, but not also the obligation to conduct investigations in view of clarifying the above mentioned legality aspects.

25. FINANCIAL MARKET PROTECTION

25.1. If BCR appreciates that the supply of Banking Services, according to the Instructions received from the Client, will result in the transparency deterioration of the financial market, BCR will be entitled not to execute such Instructions.

26. COMMUNICATION OF NON EXECUTION

26.1. BCR will notify the Client about the Instructions which were not executed, together with the refuse reasons, if this is possible and not forbidden by relevant legal provisions.

27. WORKING TIMETABLE

27.1. BCR supplies the Banking Services in the Working Days, according to the Working Timetable displayed in the Banking Units and on the Internet Page.

27.2. The Client's Instructions will be executed by BCR in compliance with the rules of the systems through which such Instructions are processed, considering the time limit set up for running the relevant banking operations.

27.3. BCR can establish some days as Working Days or not working days, this information being communicated and opposable to the Client by displaying the Working Timetable in the Banking Units, on the Internet Page and by the available information at BCR Contact Center.

28. SUPPLY AREA OF BANKING SERVICES

28.1. BCR can decide that certain Banking Services for physical persons are offered only through certain Banking Units, in which case, the list of Banking Services offered in each of its Banking Units should be available on the Internet Page. The change of this list will be done by Communication.

29. INSTRUCTIONS CANCELLATION OR CHANGE UPON THE CLIENT'S REQUEST

29.1. BCR does not have the obligation to cancel or change a validly received Instruction from the Client, even if it expresses a revocation request or a change of the respective Instruction.

29.2. By exception, if BCR agrees to change or cancel an Instruction received from the Client, BCR will charge the specific Costs of those operations, according to the applicable Convention or to the Standard Fees Tariff.

V. COMMUNICATION BETWEEN CLIENT AND BCR

30. COMMUNICATIONS. NOTIFICATIONS. INFORMATIONS

30.1. Communications have a general nature, being addressed to all BCR clients. BCR will make any Communication by display at the Banking Units premises and/ or by publication on its Internet Page and/ or by another mass communication means. The Communication date will be regarded as the date of its display or publication, by the case.

30.2. Unlike Communications, the Notifications are directly addressed to the Client.

30.3. Except for the cases providing otherwise, BCR can send any Notification to the Client by any of the following means, on BCR choice: simple or registered letter with receipt confirmation, BCR direct delivery or by postal offices, courier, telephonic call, Mailbox, fax, SMS, e-mail or any other electronic communication means.

30.4. Any BCR Notification made by courier or postal agent will be regarded as received by the Client on the fifth (5) Working Days since its dispatch, if there is no proof of an earlier receipt by the Client. Any Notification sent by fax, SMS, Mailbox, e-mail or by any other electronic communication means is regarded received by the Client on the day of its dispatch.

30.5. Any correspondence sent to the Client by postal offices or courier to the last address established according to Art. 30.6 and returned as not delivered will be regarded sent on the date of its return written on the envelope by the postal office.

30.6. For any Notification and/ or Information, BCR will use the contact details from the correspondence address made available by the Client, according to the Client's option expressed in the Convention. If no option is expressed or if no correspondence address is established, BCR will use the domicile or residence address. Starting a date which will be previously communicated by SMS, BCR will send the contractual notifications in writing, on a durable medium on BCR website, www.bcr.ro, to the extent in which the Client did not choose to receive the notifications by the Mailbox facility attached to Internet Banking service. To access the notifications, the Client has to follow the authentication steps for his logging in the area "My Account" on BCR website. The Notifications will be preserved as an archive for the whole validity period of the CSB and the Client will be warned about each notification dispatch on the website by a SMS. In case the Client does not want to be notified as mentioned above, he can choose to receive written notifications by postal services/ courier by simple letter by calling InfoBCR: 0800.801.227 or going to any BCR Banking Unit to leave a written request.

30.7. BCR can send the Client goods or objects, irrespective of their value, by any means set up by BCR as fit, without having the obligation to make sure or be liable that such goods or objects adequately reach their destination.

- 30.8. In the absence of specific contrary provisions, any Notification made by BCR to the Client will be in writing, by registered letter with receipt confirmation or by its registration at the premise of a Banking Unit.
- 30.9. If the Client is part of a Convention for the use of Remote Banking Services/ 24 Banking BCR, BCR can communicate with the Client by electronic communication means and also send him such Notifications, which are regarded as received by the Client on the date of their being available to the Client.
- 30.10. During the business relation the Client has the right, at any moment to receive, upon request, on paper or on any other durable medium, the version in force of CSB as well as the Standard Fees Tariff.

31. REGISTRATION AND ARCHIVING OF THE COMMUNICATION WITH THE CLIENT

- 31.1. BCR can record any phone call between BCR and the Client, the latter being warned about this aspect before each conversation and having the right to turn off the call if he does not agree with the recording. The lack of the Client's accord for the recording of the phone call can result in BCR not executing the respective Instruction.
- 31.2. BCR can activate the phone call records and any Instructions or documents received from the Client.

32. DOCUMENTS IN AUTHENTIC FORM AND WITH APOSTILES

- 32.1. BCR can request that the documents sent by the Client have a special form (authenticated document, notarized copy or other form of certifying the compliance of a copy with the original).
- 32.2. In case of documents signed outside Romania, BCR can request the over-notarization of such documents or, by the case their having apostils, even if such a form is not mandatory according to legal provisions.

33. ROMANIAN LANGUAGE. AUTHORIZED TRANSLATIONS

- 33.1. BCR is not obliged to accept any document issued in a foreign language, unless this is provided in the relevant Convention. In any case, BCR can request the Client to supply an authorized and notarized translation into the Romanian language.

34. NOTIFICATION OF CHANGES IN THE CLIENT'S CONDITION

- 34.1. The Client will notify BCR, on his own expense, in writing within at most 5 (five) calendar days since the occurrence of any change related to his condition or to any information and/ or documents previously made available to BCR and will supply BCR the documents confirming the respective change and any other information requested by BCR, in the requested form. The notification obligation is applied to: (a) any change regarding the Client's identity or identification or of his Proxies, Signature Specimen or the granted mandates; (b) any change of any date or information supplied to BCR about any Convention or Banking transaction, including related to co-debtors, fidejussors, guarantors or any other person who is part of or whom the Contractual Documentation makes reference to; (c) any fact or change which might affect the Banking Transactions or the performance of Banking Services; (d) any change or event which can be regarded as unfavorably affecting the Client's capacity to meet his obligations to BCR, resulting from or related to the Contractual Documentation; and (e) any fact which might determine the Client, its proxies or co-payers (co-debtors) and guarantors considered as Client with the capacity of BCR affiliated party. If the Client has not received a request from BCR on a shorter term and there are no changes to information in item (a) within 3 (three) years from the last update, the Client undertakes to contact BCR from his/ her own initiative to confirm the respective information.
- 34.2. Any such change will become opposable to BCR as of the first Working Day following the day in which BCR received a validly transmitted Notification in this sense.

VI. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES. PARTIES' RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

35. CLIENT'S REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

- 35.1. The Client gives each declaration and warrant in this clause in favor of BCR, to completing any other declarations and warranties given by him within any Convention, considering that BCR concluded the Contractual Documentation essentially based on each of such declarations and warranties.
- 35.2. The Client declares and warrants BCR that:
- 35.2.1. he has the capacity of use and exercise as resulted from the Contractual Documentation, being able to contract the Banking Services making the object of Contractual Documentation, to grant guarantees and adequately assume and meet all obligations according to the Contractual Documentation;
- 35.2.2. he has obtained all the approvals from all the competent authorities and took all the necessary or required measures according to the laws and regulations of Romania to conclude the Contractual Documentation and to adequately meet his obligations derived from it;
- 35.2.3. the obligations provided to be assumed based on the Contractual Documentation are committing the Client's accountability and can be foreclosed;

- 35.2.4. neither the Contractual Documentation and not the compliance with any of its provisions are violating any law, regulation, court decision or of other nature, administrative order or of another kind applicable to the Client, respectively any contract, accord or document legally committing the Client or any of his possessions;
- 35.2.5. all information the Client supplied to BCR are true, complete and correct at the date they were provided and are not of a deceiving nature in any way;
- 35.2.6. there is no litigation in the courts of law or arbitration or any administrative procedure in progress or pending and that there is no compensation request or dispute which might affect the Client's capacity to meet the obligations assumed by the Contractual Documentation.
- 35.3. The representations and warranties above will be regarded as given by the Client when concluding in the future any Convention with BCR, except for the case when he notifies BCR otherwise.

36. CLIENT'S RIGHTS

- 36.1. In the relations with BCR, the Client has the rights expressly conferred by the Contractual Documentation as well as by the law, to the extent he does not waive them.

37. CLIENT'S OBLIGATIONS

- 37.1. The obligations provided in this clause will be in force as long as the Client benefits of any of the Banking Services and, if the case, further on until the full reimbursement of any amounts the Client has to pay to BCR.
- 37.2. The Client will comply with all the applicable legal provisions and whose incompliance might affect his capacity to meet his obligations to BCR.
- 37.3. The Client undertakes to diligently inform himself about the relevant aspect and data for the Conventions execution.
- 37.4. The Client undertakes to correctly supply all data and documents BCR will request for the purpose of each Banking Service, as well as any other documents of information requested by BCR.
- 37.5. The Client undertakes to exactly and promptly meet all his obligations resulted from the Contractual Documentation.
- 37.6. The Client understands and accepts that except for some specific contrary provisions, all his obligations resulting from or related to the Contractual Documentation are absolute obligations.
- 37.7. The Client undertakes to notify BCR about any errors regarding any BCR data, information and/ or systems or made available by BCR about which the Client was aware or had the reasonable possibility of being aware during the use of a Banking Service.
- 37.8. The Client undertakes to compensate BCR for any prejudices, damages, losses or expenses born by BCR as a result of the Client's financial responsibility determination for the payment refuses.

38. OBLIGATIONS MEETING BY THE CLIENT

- 38.1. The Client is held liable to meet his obligations to BCR which imply the Client's presence at the Banking Unit where the Client opened his Accounts, unless otherwise provided by Conventions or by CSB.
- 38.2. The remittance by BCR of the judgment debt does not create the presumption of the Client's payment obligation extinguish to BCR.
- 38.3. The Client is rightfully in delay as regards the meeting of his obligations by the simple reaching to the deadlines provided in the Contractual Documentation, as well as in other cases provided by the law, without the need to place him in default or any other formality.

39. BCR RIGHTS

- 39.1. In the relations to the Client, BCR has all rights expressly conferred by the Contractual Documentation and/ or by the law.
- 39.2. BCR can take all the required or useful measures to preserve its rights.
- 39.3. Without limitation regarding the generality of the above, BCR has the following basic rights:
- 39.3.1. to refuse the execution of any Instructions if they are contrary to the policies and internal procedures of BCR or of BCR Group, to international standards applied by BCR, to the law or to an order issued by a competent authority;
- 39.3.2. to refuse the supply of Banking Services in case such an activity could lead to a conflict of interests between BCR and the Client or between the Client and other BCR clients;
- 39.3.3. to compensate the interests, any Costs or amounts due to BCR according to the Contractual Documentation by the amounts existing in any of the Client's accounts, including any Deposit Account (even if not reaching the term) or by any amounts the Client had to receive from BCR from any Banking Transactions or the Contractual Documentation (including any claims in court), irrespective of the moment they are due and the legal grounds for which they are due, without the previous accord of the Client, other than that expressed by his signing of CSB. To achieve any of its rights, including the above, BCR is authorized by the Client to debit any of his Accounts (including Current Bank Accounts, deposit accounts, saving accounts or of any other type), irrespective of the Accounts currency, by the amounts the Client is due. In case of deposit account which has not reached their term, the amounts left after paying the Client's obligations to BCR will be transferred into the Client's Account through which the deposit was set up and the interest will be paid corresponding to the Account they were transferred to. In case of Accounts in foreign currency, the Client mandates BCR to perform in his name and on his account any operation of currency exchange in view of recovering the above mentioned amounts, at BCR Reference Exchange Rate at the moment of the exchange operation;

- 39.3.4. To send to the Payment Incidents Register, Credit Risk Register and the Credit Bureau, as well as to other competent institutions, the risk information, as well as information about the Credits, fraudulent activity and information regarding the inaccuracies in the documents or declarations registered on the name of the Client and/ or of his representatives in view of processing or consulting them whenever required.

40. BCR OBLIGATIONS

- 40.1. BCR assumes to the Client exclusively the obligations specifically stipulated in the Contractual Documentation.
- 40.2. BCR will perform in the Client's favor exclusively those Banking Services contracted according to the relevant Conventions.
- 40.3. BCR will execute exclusively the operations for which it receives instructions according to the Contractual Documentation.
- 40.4. BCR will grant the interest for the credit balances of the Accounts according to the provisions of the Contractual Documentation.

41. LIMITATION OF BCR LIABILITY

- 41.1. BCR will be held liable only for the effective prejudices suffered by the Client, directly caused by BCR by violating the obligations assumed through the Contractual Documentation.
- 41.2. BCR liability does not occur in abnormal and unforeseen circumstances, beyond BCR control and whose consequences could not be avoided despite the diligences in this sense and/ or if BCR is bound to comply with other legal provisions or for prejudices resulted from Client's actions or facts.
- 41.3. BCR cannot be held liable for losses caused by fluctuations of reference indices or fluctuations of the exchange rate performed by another credit institution involved in the relevant Banking Transaction, irrespective of the country in which it is operating.
- 41.4. BCR will not be accountable for prejudices resulted from foreclosures or assuring measures decided regarding the Client's Accounts, goods or assets in BCR possession, or resulted from the operations ordered by competent authorities, according to legal provisions or for the possible prejudices the Client might suffer as a result of foreclosure measures decided by BCR in case the Client did not observe his obligations.
- 41.5. BCR is not liable regarding the collections in or from abroad in any of the following cases: (i) payments suspension, moratorium over payments or seizure of the amounts of money by the collecting agent or foreign payer, by third parties in relation with the respective agent or by the authorities in the jurisdiction he is operating; (ii) the beneficiary's refuse to cash the transmitted amounts; or (iii) the lack of information required to process an operation.
- 41.6. BCR will not be accountable for prejudices resulted from: (i) Client's facts or actions violating legal provisions; (ii) the refuse of an authorization request of a payment from the Account or the unacceptance on payment of a Card attached to the account, as a result of an event which cannot be controlled by BCR; (iii) performance of an operation by a Proxy whose mandate was revoked without BCR notification or before the presentation to BCR of the proof of Client's death.
- 41.7. BCR will not be accountable for the Accounts blockage in case through those accounts funds with special destination or coming from certain sources will be run, considering that once entered the Account, the amounts of money are depersonalized.
- 41.8. BCR will not be accountable for the consequences of any BCR refuse to execute the Instructions of the Client/ Proxy if the identification elements or the signature provided by him are incomplete or incorrect compared to the information and Signature Specimen in BCR records.
- 41.9. In case some Instructions are sent by Internet Banking and Mobile Banking, BCR is not liable for the execution of the respective Instructions if they were issued by unauthorized persons who knew the access passwords and the specific identification elements, or were issued by the Client without complying with the technical requirements provided in the relevant Conventions.

- 41.10. BCR cannot be held liable for the possible prejudices caused as a result of the failure to communicate in due time and in safe conditions the information or data made available to BCR by the Client, including as regards his Proxies or regarding the Client's death.
- 41.11. Except for the case in which it specifically committed to, BCR is not bound to offer the Client consultancy for his operations and will not be liable for the economic losses or of other nature which might result from them.
- 41.12. BCR can decide to make unavailable any of the Banking Services at certain moments, even within the Working Timetable, and will not be held liable for the possible prejudices suffered by the Client.
- 41.13. In case BCR receives requests to return the funds which credited the Client's BCR Accounts as a result of some frauds whose existence is signaled and/ or confirmed by SEPA, BCR will be entitled to immediately debit the Accounts, without previously informing the Client. BCR will not be held accountable for such operations, being regarded as irrevocably mandated in this sense, and will not compensate the Client for any damage.
- 41.14. These general rules regarding the parties' liability will be completed by the special provisions in these CSB.

VII. INTEREST

42. INTEREST RELATED TO CREDIT BALANCES

- 42.1. For the cash available registered in Current Bank Accounts, BCR practices the interest level related to cash available at sight. For certain period and/ or certain Banking Services, according to the specific Convention, BCR can decide not to pay the interest at sight to the cash available in the Current Bank Accounts.
- 42.2. BCR does not calculate interest for the amount below the minimal limit set up by Conventions and visibly displayed in the Banking Units or on the Internet Page.
- 42.3. Unless otherwise agreed, the interest is calculated monthly for a year of 365 (366) days, according to the calculation formula  $365(366)/365(366)$ .
- 42.4. BCR pays the interest monthly or at another frequency as specified in the Contractual Documentation.
- 42.5. When Convention validity expires, BCR will calculate and pay the interest related to the funds in the Account until the respective date, according to the rules specified in the relevant Conventions.
- 42.6. The interest paid by BCR will be diminished by the Client's tax on the income from interests, according to the applicable legal provisions and to Chapter IX of section General Provisions of CSB.

43. INTEREST RELATED TO DEBIT BALANCES

- 43.1. If the Client has an account overdraft which was not contractually agreed, BCR would charge a penalizing interest, calculated as of the day that overdraft occurred.

44. PENALIZING INTEREST

- 44.1. In case the Client does not meet any payment obligation to BCR at the term provided in the Contractual Documentation (or upon BCR request in case of payment obligations which have to be met on request), or for the amounts drawn but not contractually agreed, including for exceeding the overdraft Ceiling (if the case), BCR can charge the Client penalizing interests related to the unpaid amounts, at the value set up in the applicable Convention. The unpaid amount will bear a penalizing interest as of the first day of payment default (inclusively) and until the day the full payment is made (exclusively).

45. INTEREST FOR THE CASES OF BCR GUILT

- 45.1. If BCR does not comply, from its guilt, the deadline set up by the Contractual Documentation for the execution of a Payment Instruction validly sent by the Client, BCR will pay the Client a penalizing interest equal to the applicable interest by BCR to the Current Accounts, in the currency of BCR payment obligation, valid for the respective period, for the whole period of delay.

VIII. COSTS OF BANKING SERVICES

46. COSTS

- 46.1. For the Banking Services performed by BCR, the Client will pay fees, taxes as well as possible costs due to third parties, including those related to the drafting, signing or dispatch of any documents related to the Banking Services, according to the Contractual Documentation. BCR will provide the Client Banking Services only to the extent in which all their related Costs were fully paid by the Client.
- 46.2. The fees, taxes and charges will be calculated at NBR Reference Exchange Rate valid for the day of their accounting registration.
- 46.3. BCR has the right to automatically debit the Accounts by any amounts due and unpaid by the Client, based on the Contractual Documentation.
- 46.4. BCR investigations made upon the Client's request, for the execution of an Instruction or as a result of meeting some legal obligations of BCR are commissioned according to the Standard Fees Tariff in force, to which the investigation fees charged by other credit institutions might be added.

- 46.5. BCR can ask the Client the down payment or reimbursement of the Costs BCR has to bear for the registration of some rights, facts and legal relations in public registers. BCR can refuse to perform the operations requested by the Client if the latter is not paying the required amounts.
- 46.6. The costs related to the use of communication services and data transfer for the use of Remote Banking Services/ 24 Banking BCR will be borne by the Client.
- 46.7. If the Available Balance is zero for a certain Account, BCR can unilaterally decide and without notifying the Client to apply zero fees to that Account, while they will return to the value stipulated in the Contractual Documentation when the Available Balance becomes positive. In any case, BCR can unilaterally decide and without notifying the Client to apply smaller fees than those agreed by the Contractual Documentation, and then, under the same conditions, to revert to the fees set up by the Contractual Documentation.

47. COMPENSATIONS. EXPENSES RECOVERY

- 47.1. The Client will repay to BCR the Costs BCE can bear related to the Banking Services, according to the Contractual Documentation.
- 47.2. The Client will compensate BCR within 3 (three) Working Days since BCR request for any prejudice, damage, cost, loss or expenses suffered by BCR as a result of:
- 47.2.1. the Client's default of any obligation related to the Contractual Documentation;
- 47.2.2. investigation of any event BCR regards as representing a default of the Client's obligations;
- 47.2.3. a BCR action according to a Client's Instruction, of a Proxy or of any mandate of them which BCR reasonably regards as correct and adequately authorized or as a result of the establishment of the Client's financial account liability for the payment refuses; or
- 47.2.4. obtaining amounts of money or any other benefits from Banking Transactions based on data errors, information and/ or systems about which the Client had knowledge or had reasonably the possibility to be aware of and/ or if the trading decision was made considering the existence of an undue benefit obtained or sought consequent to the performance of some Banking Transactions.

48. PAYMENT IMPUTATION

- 48.1. In case BCR receives a deposit or an insufficient payment to cover all the due amounts at the respective moment by the Client according to the Contractual Documentation, BCR will use the cashed amount to pay the due and unpaid amounts in the following order: (a) insurance premiums, (b) Costs, (c) penalizing interest, then due interests, (d) due capital, and (e) current Costs, current interests and current capital.
- 48.2. In case of competition between the amounts due from different Conventions, when BCR receives a deposit or an insufficient payment to cover all the due amounts, BCR will use the cashed amount to pay the due and unpaid amounts in the following order: (a) amounts drawn but not contractually agreed; (b) insurance premiums; (c) overdue amounts related to any Credits; and (d) overdue amounts related to Current Bank Accounts or to the deposit accounts. The overdue amounts related to Credits will be extinguished in the following order: (a) considering the debit type and the number of delay days on the payment of the amounts related to Credits, decreasingly: first, for the payment of fees, then of interests, then of the capital, in the chronological order of their maturities; (b) considering the currency and the type of Credit: for the payment of the amounts denominated in the currency of the deposited amount, if the Credits are not in the same currency; for the payment of the amounts related to secured Credits, then of the amounts related to unsecured Credits, if the Credits are in the same currency; and (c) for the Credits of the same type: first for the payment of the due amounts denominated in the currency of the deposited amount, then of other due amounts denominated in different currencies than the deposited amount. Overdue amounts related to Current Bank Accounts or to the deposit accounts, in the following order: (a) in the chronological order of their maturity; (b) depending on the currency: first for the payment of the due amounts denominated in the currency of the deposited amount, then of the due amounts denominated in different currencies than that of the deposited amount; and (c) in the order of their value: first for the payment of smaller overdue amounts, then for the payment of larger overdue amounts.
- 48.3. For the unregulated aspects conventionally, the legal provisions on payment imputation are applied.
- 48.4. For the achievement of possible foreign currency exchanges BCR Reference Exchange Rate will be applied.

IX. TAXES

49. COMPENSATIONS FOR TAXES RETAINED AT SOURCE

- 49.1. The Client will make all the payments he has to perform according to the Contractual Documentation, without any deduction or withholding at source, except for the cases they are mandatory according to the law.
- 49.2. In case the Client is bound by law to make a deduction or a withholding at source, the amount to be paid by the Client to BCR will be increased by an amount which after the deduction or withholding at source to be the effectively the amount paid to BCR and equal to the amount which should have been paid to BCR if no deduction or withholding at source was necessary.

49.3. If the deduction or withholding at source represents a tax which, by the law, had to be paid by BCR, then by the increase made according to the provisions of the previous article, the Client hold a receivable over BCR equal to the increase value, which will be paid by BCR within 30 (thirty) days since the date of the Client's Notification accompanied by the proving documents regarding the tax payment.

50. WITHHODING THE TAXES DUE BY THE CLIENT TO THE ROMANIAN STATE

50.1. BCR will retain and transfer the taxes the Client is due to the Romanian state, according to applicable legal regulations.

X. GUARANTEES

51. SECURING THE CLIENT'S OBLIGATIONS

51.1. Depending on the specific character of the Banking Services, BCR can ask the Client to establish or replenish pledges or real estate mortgages or personal guarantees (collectively "Guarantees") to secure his obligations related to the Banking Services. In compliance with applicable legal provisions, the Client will establish or replenish such Guarantees requested by BCR or will replace them by similar others, by the case. All Costs related to the establishment, publicity, replacement, replenishment and/ or extinguish of the Guarantees will exclusively be borne by the Client.

52. GUARANTEES VALUATION

52.1. If (a) events occur which could change the value of a Guarantee (such as market evolution of Guarantee changes), or (b) the requirement to value the Guarantee is set up by the law or requested by an authority, BCR has the right to request an independent valuation report of that Guarantee, the Costs being born by the Client.

53. GUARANTEES USE AND INSURANCE

53.1. The Client will preserve, on his own expense, the goods making the object of Guarantees and will use them with the diligence of a good owner, according to their destination.

53.2. If the nature of the goods brought as guarantee allows, the Client will insure them with an insurance company, assigning or mortgaging the rights related to the insurance contract in BCR favor or appointing BCR as beneficiary of the insurance allowance, according to BCR request.

54. GUARANTEES EXECUTION

54.1. In case the Client does not meet any obligation to BCR on its maturity, BCR can execute any Guarantee, according to the Contractual Documentation. These provisions do not restrict in any way BCR right to initiate the foreclosure procedure over any other good of the Client, even if it does not make the object of a Guarantee.

54.2. All the expenses derived from the procedure of Guarantees execution, including the expenses for goods recovery and conservation will be borne by the Client.

XI. FINAL PROVISIONS

55. PLACE OF BUSINESS PERFORMANCE

55.1. The Banking Services will be performed in the Banking Units where the Client opened his Accounts (unless otherwise provided by Conventions), or by Remote Banking Services/ 24 Banking BCR.

56. INAPPLICABILITY OF A CONTRACTUAL PROVISION

56.1. If one of the Contractual Documentation provisions is or becomes null, inapplicable or cannot be foreclosed, such a nullity, inapplicability or impossibility to foreclose will not affect any other provision of the Contractual Documentation. In such a case, BCR and the Client will make all efforts to agree valid and applicable provisions to replace the initial provisions, the new provisions having the same result and effect as that of the provisions they are replacing, within the maximum limit admitted by the law.

57. ASSIGNMENT. OBLIGATIONS TRANSFER

57.1. The Client can assign his rights and/ or obligations based on the Contractual Documentation and/ or can assign the Contractual Documentation as a whole only with the previous written accord of BCR.

57.2. BCR can assign to a third party any of its rights within the Contractual Documentation and/ or the Contractual Documentation as a whole, together with the related Guarantees, or can transfer its obligations based on the Contractual Documentation, and the Client, his co-payer (co-debtor) and/ or fidejussor and/ or guarantor, by the case, by signing CSB, agree in advance and unconditionally to such an assignment or transfer. BCR will notify the Client and, by the case, his co-payer (co-debtor) and/ or fidejussor and/ or guarantor, about the assignment of the rights or the transfer of obligations derived from the Contractual Documentation, or about the assignment of the Contractual Documentation, by simple letter (except for the Notification of a Credit assignment, which is made by a registered letter with receipt confirmation), the assignment or transfer becoming effective and opposable to the Client and, by the case to his co-payer (co-debtor), fidejussor and/ or his guarantor as of the moment the letter is regarded as received, according to the provisions of Art. 30.4-30.6. The Client understands and agrees that, given such circumstances, BCR will be released of the correlative obligations to the assigned rights, or, by the case, of its obligations based on the Contractual Documentation as of the moment the assignment and/ or the transfer become effective. BCR is not liable for any additional expense of the Client as a result of the assignment of Contractual Documentation or of the rights related to it.

58. MISCELANEOUS PROVISIONS

- 58.1. BCR failure to exert any right provided in the Contractual Documentation does not represent a waiver to that right, and BCR can use that right anytime until the extinguish of all Client's obligations to BCR.
- 58.2. If a Convention is or becomes null, the parties exclude the conversion application, the respective Convention producing no other effects than those considered on the date of its signing. If a Convention is cancellable, the parties specifically agree to confirm that Convention, any elements which led to its cancelability being replaced by valid elements, on parties' agreement.
- 58.3. Any calculation, certification and/ or determination made by BCR related to any amount which has to be determined according to the Contractual Documentation, in the absence of obvious errors, will have a mandatory character to the parties as regards the aspects it is referring to. Any calculation error proved by any of the parties will be rectified upon the request of any of the parties, without affecting the validity of the Contractual Documentation.

59. GOVERNING LAW.CONTRACT LANGUAGE

- 59.1. CSB and the Conventions are submitted and will be construed and judged according to the provisions of the Romanian law.
- 59.2. If any part of the Contractual Documentation is written, in addition to the version in Romanian, in any other language or simultaneously in two different languages, the version in the Romanian language will always prevail.

60. LITIGATIONS SOLVING

- 60.1. Any dispute occurring between the Client and BCR, as parties of CSB, as a result of the interpretation and/or execution and/ or termination of CSB or of the Conventions will be amicably solved by the parties.
- 60.2. If the parties cannot reach an amicable understanding, they will resort to the courts of common law.
- 60.3. In view of amicably solve the possible disputes and without impairing the Client's right to initiate actions in court against BCR, the Client has the right to notify the National Authority for Consumers' Protection, headquartered in Bucharest, No. 72, Aviatorilor Blvd. District 1, e-mail: office@anpc.ro. The Client can resort to extra-judicial mechanism of disputes solving, according to the Law no. 192/ 2006 regarding mediation and organization of mediator profession.

61. FORCE MAJEURE AND THE ACT OF GOD

- 61.1. As regards any payment obligation resulting on his charge or related to the Contractual Documentation, the Client will be exonerated from the contractual liability only if he is in an objective impossibility to execute that payment obligation as a result of a force majeure event or of an act of god which causes the interruption of the system of intra- and inter-banking payments. This exoneration of contractual liability is applied only for the period the interruption of inter-banking payments system is not remedied.
- 61.2. Except for the case above, BCR and the Client are not accountable for any loss caused by a case of force majeure or by an act of god.
- 61.3. In case of force majeure or an act of god, the affected party will communicate to the other party the occurrence of force majeure or the act of god by phone or fax within maximum 5 (five) calendar days and in the next 15 (fifteen) calendar days has to send the certificate issued by the competent authorities regarding the case of force majeure or the act of god, by registered letter, or in case of the Client, by coming to BCR. If the party invoking the force majeure or the act of god does not notify the other party the existence of such an event, it will be liable for the prejudice cause by that to the other party.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS

XII. OPERATIONS IN CURRENT BANK ACCOUNTS

62. OPENING THE CURRENT BANK ACCOUNT

- 62.1. The Client must have one or several Current Bank Accounts opened on his name in the same currency as the required Banking Services.
- 62.2. BCR opens Current Bank Accounts when the Client signs a Convention, after BCR received and checked up all the requested documents.
- 62.3. BCR can postpone the opening of the Current Bank Account for the verifying period of the information supplied by the Client.

- 62.4. BCR can refuse to open a Current Bank Account for any justified reason, including in compliance with legal provisions regarding know-your-customer, money laundering and criminal finance.
- 62.5. On the Current Bank Account opening, the Client has to supply BCR: (i) his Signature Specimen, as well as that(those) of his Proxy/ Proxies; and (ii) information and documents required to the identification by BCR of the Client and of his Proxy/ Proxies (according to the provisions of Chapter II of section General Provisions of CSB). BCR will not open anonymous Current Bank Accounts or for which the Client's identity is not known.
- 62.6. The Current Bank Account becomes functional at the moment the relevant Convention comes into force.
- 62.7. The Client can open several Current Bank Accounts with BCR, according to the Conventions signed with BCR.
- 62.8. In the meaning of Art. 2.410 of the Civil Code, BCR has the control over the entire Client's Current Bank Accounts.

63. IBAN CODE

- 63.1. BCR will allocate to each Current Bank Account a sole identification code called IBAN code.
- 63.2. IBAN code can be changed by BCR when it is necessary by the previous Client's notification at least two months (or by another legally imperative term) before the change coming into force.

64. OPERATIONS IN THE CURRENT BANK ACCOUNT

- 64.1. The operations which can be performed through and related to a Current Bank Account are compliant to the law and the Contractual Documentation and include, but without being limited to, the following: (i) operations for Payment Services; (ii) release of Account Statements and Financial Statements; and (iii) other operations ordered by third parties (for instance, attachments).

65. MINIMUM BALANCE

- 65.1. The Client should assure in each Current Bank Account the required amounts for Payment Operations performance ordered according to the Contractual Documentation.
- 65.2. The minimum balance will not drop below the minimum mandatory amount stipulated in the Convention.
- 65.3. The minimum balance required for the operation of the Current Bank Account is blocked by BCR and can be used to extinguish BCR fees when there is no cash available in the respective Current Bank Account. The minimum balance is replenished from the subsequent feedings and is released to the Client when closing the Current Bank Account.
- 65.4. BCR has the right to set up or change the minimum quantum required to open the Current Bank Accounts and respectively the minimum balance for which BCR pays the interest on sight.

66. DISPOSAL OVER THE AMOUNTS IN THE CURRENT BANK ACCOUNT. WITHDRAWALS

- 66.1. Except for the cases provided by the law or by the Contractual Documentation, only the Client, the Proxy or the User has the right to dispose of the amounts in the Current Bank Account.
- 66.2. The Client can make Payment Operations from the Current Bank Account up to the limit of the mandatory minimum balance.
- 66.3. In case of the Client's death and until the partition, the Client's heirs are regarded as co-undivided owners and can dispose of the Current Bank Account amounts only together. The heirs are jointly liable to BCR for the possible debtor balances of the Current Bank Account.
- 66.4. The Client has the right to withdraw cash from the Available Balance of his Current Bank Accounts, according to the relevant provisions of the applicable Conventions, in compliance with a notice term of minimum two days. This notice term has general applicability, except for the specifically agreed derogations between BCR and the Client.

67. PROTECTION ELEMENTS

- 67.1. The Client will act so that his Signature Specimen and other protection elements of his identity or for frauds prevention cannot be used by a third party in the relation with BCR.

68. CLOSING THE CURRENT BANK ACCOUNT FOR A CASE OF GUILT

- 68.1. BCR can decide to close the Current Bank Account, respectively to stop the related Banking Services on the occurrence of any of the following cases of guilt: (a) Client's payment default of the fees and Costs due to BCR, (b) Client's failure to meet the conditions related to the Current Bank Account opening and operation, (c) occurrence of major payment incidents with Debit Payment Instruments, (d) any case of the Current Bank Account cease provided in Art. 7.1.2 and 7.1.3 or (e) the Current Bank Account inactivity, that is the cumulated presence of the following circumstances: (i) the balance is zero or below the minimum balance provided by the Convention, or drops below the value of the minimum balance set up by BCR (published on BCR website www.bcr.ro and displayed in BCR Banking Units), if such a value is applicable, or registers an unauthorized overdraft, (ii) the respective account shows no movements for a period of 3 consecutive months, except the calculation of interests, management fees and other similar, and (iii) the account is not attached to some saving and/ or lending products.

- 68.2. Closing the Current Bank Account in the cases mentioned in Art. 68.1 can be performed by a simple Notification, without any other formality of intervention of the court of law. BCR can give the Client a term to remedy such situations (when they can be remedied), in which case the decided closing becomes effective on the date mentioned in the Notification if the situation was not remedied until that date.
- 68.3. In view of applying the provisions of Art. 68.1., for the Conventions applicable to the Banking Services related to the closed Current Bank Account: (i) when the Banking Services were supplied exclusively in consideration of the closed Current Bank Account, the Conventions related to the respective Banking Services will be unilaterally terminated as of the moment stipulated in Art. 68.2; or (ii) when the Banking Services were independent of the closed Current Bank Account, the Conventions related to those Banking Services will be automatically changed so that the Banking Services can be supplied related to or through other Current Bank Accounts of the Client. In case the Current Bank Account is opened based on a Convention also including other Banking Services, independent of the closed Current Bank Account, when closing the respective Current Bank Account the respective Convention remains in force for all the other Banking Services operating based on that.
- 68.4. BCR can refuse to supply any other Banking Service when it closed a Current Bank Account and/ or unilaterally terminated the relevant Convention based on the reasons mentioned in Art. 68.1, until the meeting of overdue obligations to BCR.
- 68.5. In view of applying the provisions of Art. 68.1, BCR can decide to eliminate the Banking Services package which is part of the respective Current Bank Account, ceasing to supply the Banking Services, totally or only partially. In the latter case, BCR will apply management fees for each Banking Service remained in force.

69. CLOSING THE CURRENT BANK ACCOUNT ON THE CLIENT'S INITIATIVE

- 69.1. The Client can request the closing of the Current Bank Account by a written Notification sent to BCR by 15 (fifteen) days before and only after the Client paid all the amounts due to BCR.
- 69.2. When closing the Current Bank Account, the Client will return to BCR the forms of special regime, including the cheque books or the cheque sheets, as well as the attached Cards. Since the closing of the Current Bank Account these documents lose their validity and the cheques, other securities and/ or commercial papers will no longer be honored.
- 69.3. After closing the Current Bank Account, the attached Cards will no longer be used and will be blocked.
- 69.4. Until the date of actual closing of the Current Bank Account, the Client will notify BCR about the destination of the amounts in that Current Bank Account, or, on a contrary case, the balance of the Current Bank Account will be registered in BCR records in collective accounts by various creditors, separately for each currency, with no interest paid

70. OPERATIONS ORDERED BY BCR

- 70.1. BCR can perform the following types of operations in any Current Bank Account without the Client's accord, other than that expressed by signing CSB: (a) payment of the amounts the Client is due to BCR on the due date or later; (b) cancellation/ correction of operations wrongly performed by BCR or with the mention "under reserve"; (c) payments made by BCR based on definitive writs of execution in case of seizure; (d) blockage of the amounts in collateral deposits, according to the Contractual Documentation; (e) if the amounts in Current Bank Accounts are expressed in other currencies than the currency of the amounts to be paid, BCR will be able (without being an obligation) to make the required currency exchanges to obtain the funds, using BCR Reference Exchange Rate at the moment of operation performance; (f) cancellation of some payments in case of failure to adequately receive the funds related to an OP already credited in the Beneficiary's account; (g) cancellation of some payments/ collections in case of frauds confirmed by messages tested for OP conducted within SEPA, with the amounts received by the Client; and (h) other operations required in any other cases provided by the applicable regulations, including any other actions regarded as appropriate to secure the meeting of its obligations regarding fraud prevention and control, money laundering, crime financing, giving/ receiving bribe, corruption, fiscal evasion, as well as regarding the services supply to some persons who can be submitted to economic sanctions, when BCR has suspicions of fraud or as regards the purpose or nature of the transaction. These measures can include, but without being limited to, blockage of the Current Bank Account, return to the Ordering person the funds which credited the Client's Accounts as a result of a fraud, investigation and interception of the payments made in and from the Client's Current Bank Account, investigation of the funds source/ their beneficiary, investigations in view of finding out if a person is subject to sanctions. The performance of such actions by BCR can result in the delay or cease of payment instructions execution or of the amounts collection and respectively of the transactions settlement in and from the Current Bank Account. BCR will inform the Client about the occurrence of such situation only to the extent such information is allowed by the law and does not hinder the safety reasons objectively justified.

71. CURRENT BANK ACCOUNTS WITH SPECIAL DESTINATION

71.1. These accounts are opened related to operations with funds of special destination or dedicated assets (including fiducia) of the Client, BCR having no liability for the blockage of such accounts or its effects.

72. BANKING SERVICES PACKAGES

72.1. BCR can manage, in the Client's name, packages of Banking Services, according to the Client's options expressed by the relevant Conventions.

72.2. Some Packages from BCR's offer may only be held only once and/ or certain Packages cannot be held at the same time. If the same Banking Service is included in several Packages held by the same Client with different rates/ commissions, the Client will be subject to the lowest rate/ commission.

72.3. In case a package of Banking Services is partially eliminated, the Banking Services left in force become individual Banking Services and are subject to the relevant Conventions and CSB.

72.4. If the Current Bank Account is closed, the Banking Services package regarding the Current Bank Account is automatically terminated, i.e. the Current Bank Account is closed automatically without BCR performing any other prior formalities and all Banking Services operating in relation to that Current Bank Account (including debit card, Internet Banking, Mobile Banking, Phone Banking and Alerts Services) cease to be valid. In case a package of Banking Services contracted after CSB coming into force is eliminated, without all or some of the Banking Services included in the package cease, the respective Banking Services (i) contracted or (ii) preexisting and included in the existing Convention regulating the package, become individual Banking Services and are further subject to the terms and conditions set up in the existing relevant Convention.

72.5. In case the Client wants to give up certain optional Banking Services from a package, for the remaining Banking Services BCR will continue to charge the monthly management fee related to the respective package. In case the Client wants to give up certain Banking Services automatically included and therefore mandatory in a package, the package is eliminated and for the individual Banking Services remained in force, BCR will continue to charge the monthly management fee related to each Banking Service.

72.6. In case a Banking Service within a package is transferred to another package contracted by the Client, the respective Banking Service will be submitted to the terms and conditions of the Convention applicable to the new package.

XIII. PAYMENT OPERATIONS

73. GENERAL PROVISIONS

73.1. This chapter and chapter XII are of general nature and will be applied to all Payment Services provided to the Client, including to operations making the object of Clauses 82.1, 82.2, 82.3, 82.4 as well as to operations making the object of chapters XIV and XV.

73.2. Any Payment Service or other Banking Service of different nature BCR offers the Client and which is not regulated in this chapter will make the object of the relevant Conventions.

73.3. BCR will provide the Client the Payment Services he will request using the agreed Payment Instruments.

73.4. BCR will execute the Client's Payment Instructions within the limit of the Available Funds Balance existing in the Current Bank Account the respective Payment Instructions are referring to.

73.5. The Client understands and accepts that the Payment Services can be performed by BCR directly or by one or several BCR affiliated entities, by any other third entities or suppliers of specialized services or by their sub-contractors

74. CLIENT'S CONSENT. INSTRUCTIONS AND NOTIFICATIONS

74.1. For the execution of any Payment Instructions, the Client will supply the required information according to BCR requests, using the forms made available by BCR. For payments to the State Treasury, the Client will use the form of the payment order edited and filled in by means of the assistance program of the Ministry of Public Finances.

74.2. The Client can fill in the required forms on computer, by typing or handwriting, using blue or black writing instruments. The client can send Payment Instructions by means of Remote Banking Services/ 24 Banking BCR if he contracted such a Banking Service and according to the relevant Convention.

74.3. The Client assumes the full accountability for the content of the information included in the Payment Instructions.

74.4. The Client's consent for the execution of the Payment Instructions is expressed by:

74.4.1. authorized signature (Signature Specimen), on paper or on the screen of the electronic Device (SignaturePad) in case of Payment Instructions on paper (including Ops), of operations with cash or other operations in his own accounts;

74.4.2. MDD, for operations with ID, individual and successive;

- 74.4.3. introduction by the Holder or the User of PIN and/ or by signing the POS/ Imprinter2 receipt and/ or by introduction the code CVV2/ CVC2 and/or the password 3D-Secure and/or by closing the Card with Contactless Technology and/ or the Card Reader in case of Payment Instructions authorized by Card;
- 74.4.4. the Client's verbal confirmation by phone, if his access to the respective Banking Transaction is allowed both by User Name and Password, and by User Name and OTP code, respectively confirmation by introduction of OTP code, if the Client's access to the respective Banking Transaction is allowed only by User Name and OTP code, depending on the type of access agreed according to the Convention for Phone Banking;
- 74.4.5. pressing the key "Finalize operation", if the Client's access to the respective Banking Transaction is allowed both by User Name and Password, and by User Name and OTP code, respectively by introduction of DS code, if the Client's access to the respective Banking Transaction is allowed only by User Name and OTP code, depending on the type of access agreed according to the Convention for Internet Banking and Mobile Banking; or
- 74.4.6. pressing the key corresponding to the Client's accept depending on the selected operation on the automatic equipment working based on banknotes/ banking card acceptors;
- 74.5. In case the Reception Moment of the Payment Instruction is not a Working Day, this is regarded as received in the next Working Day. In case an Instruction is received by BCR after 14:00 hours of a Working Day, it is regarded as received in the immediately following Working Day. BCR and the Client can agree in writing, or by another communication means accepted by BCR, that the execution of a Payment Instruction starts on a certain day or at the end of a certain period, or on the day the Payer made available the required funds to BCR, in which case the Reception Moment of the respective funds is regarded as the day agreed for execution. This rule is also applied to the Payments of Regular Character.
- 74.6. The Payment Instructions are firm and irrevocable, and cannot be changed, except for the cases detailed below.
- 74.7. The Client can revoke a Payment Instruction after it was received by BCR until the end of the Working Day preceding the day agreed for the funds debiting: (i) in case of Payment Instructions for which the Client and BCR agreed to start on a certain day, or at the end of a certain period, or on the day the Client make the funds available to BCR; or (ii) in case of Payments of Regular Character, which can be revoked based on the Beneficiary's accord.
- 74.8. The Client and BCR can establish in the Convention a price for revocation operations of Payment Instructions.
- 74.9. BCR will make available to the Client, according to the law: (a) upon the Client's request, before the execution of a Payment Operation, explicit information on the maximum execution term and the price (total and spread down, if the case); (b) after the execution of Payment Operation and the debit of the Account/ Accounts, without any unjustified delay, information about the reference for the Payment Operation identification, (if the case), the value of Payment Operation, price (total and spread down, where the case), exchange rate, date of debit or of Payment Instruction reception, according to legal provisions.
- 74.10. In case the Client uses a specific Payment Instrument, the Client and BCR can set up by Convention expense limits for the operations performed through the respective Payment Instrument.
- 74.11. The communication means related to the Payment Services will be set up by Conventions (including based on the technical requirements for the Client's equipment), while in their absence, CSB provisions will be applicable.
- 74.12. Upon the Client's request, he can receive these CSB, the Convention and the essential information for Payment Services performance.

75. BCR REFUSE TO EXECUTE PAYMENT INSTRUCTIONS

- 75.1. BCR can refuse to execute the Payment Instructions when they (i) are not adequately authorized; (ii) are transmitted by forms filled in wrongly, incompletely, contradictory or which show erasures or corrections; (iii) the Account mentioned in the Payment Instruction does not contain the required funds for the payment and the related fees; (iv) the Payment Operations mentioned in the Payment Instructions are illegal; and (v) in any other cases provided by CSB or the applicable legislation.
- 75.2. BCR will notify the Client in the shortest time possible, its refuse to execute a Payment Instruction and, if possible, will mention the reasons of refuse and the procedure for errors remedy. If BCR refuse is objectively justified, BCR can charge a price for the refuse Notification, in the conditions set up by Convention.

76. MOMENT OF PAYMENT INSTRUCTIONS EXECUTION

- 76.1. BCR will process during the same day the Payment Instructions received until COT and during the next Working Day the Payment Instructions received after COT, according to CSB and/ or the relevant Convention.

- 76.2. The Payment Instructions initiated by Remote Banking Services/ 24 Banking BCR, beyond the Working Timetable will be processed during the Working Timetable of the next Working Day, unless the relevant Convention provides otherwise.
- 76.3. BCR can change COT, by display in the premises of the Banking Units and by publishing the new COT on Internet Page.
- 76.4. The limit reception hours type COT of other credit institutions and/ or payment systems will be immediately changed according to their rules, without the need to amend CSB.

77. SMALL VALUE OPERATIONS

- 77.1. The small value operations are: (a) individual Payment Operations which do not exceed EUR 25 or which have an expenses limit or deposited funds of maximum EUR 100, or (b) cross-border Payment Operations on the European Union territory or within the European Economic Space which do not exceed EUR 30, or which have an expenses limit or deposited funds of maximum EUR 150. These values are calculated, by the case, in RON equivalent on the date of transaction performance.
- 77.2. In this sense, the Client and BCR can set up by Convention specific rules for the Client's information, the Convention amendment, notification of loss or theft of the Payment Instrument and the parties' liability for their use (if the payment instrument does not allow the blockage or the prevention of a later use), the obligation to notify the execution refuse (if the payment non performance is revealed by the context), application of other execution terms, etc..

78. ACCOUNT STATEMENTS AND IDENTIFIED ERRORS

- 78.1. BCR will inform the Client by an Account Statement about the amounts existing in the Account and the Banking Transactions performed during a certain period.
- 78.2. The Account Statement will be supplied to the Client or his Proxies for free, once a month at the desks of the Banking Units or will be sent in the way agreed by Convention. In addition, if the Client has Remote Banking Services (Internet Banking, Mobile Banking and Phone Banking), he/ she has the possibility to generate free of charge through Internet Banking the Account Statement, including for a longer period of time.
- 78.3. The Client is bound to immediately verify the Account Statements and to notify BCR about the possible errors or omissions found out regarding the performed operations and the balance.
- 78.4. If such a Notification is not sent to BCR within 10 (ten) Working Days since the supply/ transmission date of the Account Statement by BCR, the Banking Transactions performed in the Account are regarded as approved by the Client.
- 78.5. The approval of Payment Operations does not exclude their correction by BCR, in the conditions of Art. 80.3.6.
- 78.6. The calculation errors can be corrected both by BCR initiative, and upon the Client's request. The Client cannot stand on the calculation errors related to the Account to request the cancellation of the Convention and of CSB.
- 78.7. BCR is entitled to include in the Account Statement any Communication or Notification addressed to the Client.
- 78.8. BCR can release, upon the Client's request, duplicates of the Account Statements subject to commissioning according to the Standard Fees Tariff.

79. OPERATIONS SECURITY AND CORRECTIVE MEASURES

- 79.1. In view of assuring the security and confidentiality of Payment Operations and Instruments, BCR will take mandatory measures to the Client to organize an internal security system and to set up access and authorization rules related to the Payment Services.
- 79.2. The Client should comply with the rules set up by BCR in order to preserve the safety of Payment Operations and Instruments.
- 79.3. In case objective circumstances occur related to the security of a Payment Instrument, suspicion of unauthorized or fraudulent use of it, BCR has the right to block the relevant Payment Instrument, notifying the Client in this sense, if possible, before the blockage, or the latest, right after its blockage. BCR obligation to inform will not be applicable if the supply of such information affects the safety reasons or is forbidden due to other relevant legislative provisions.
- 79.4. The Client will have the right to the unblocking or replacing the Payment Instrument, free of charge or on payment once the blockage reasons cease to exist.
- 79.5. The Client is bound to notify BCR, without any unjustified delay, right after he is aware of the loss, theft, unrightful use of one of his Payment Instrument, or of any other unauthorized use of it.

80. PARTIES' ACCOUNTABILITY IN CASE OF PAYMENT OPERATIONS

80.1. As regards the Payment Services, the Client's accountability will be committed as follows:

80.1.1. The Client will bear unlimited any prejudices or losses generated by unauthorized Payment Operations, to the extent they were generated by fraud or the Client's incompliance, on purpose, or from negligence with his obligations regarding the use of the relevant Payment Instrument or the Notification of the unauthorized use of any of the Security Elements.

80.1.2. The Client is responsible for the correctness of information sent to BCR/ their obtaining in view of Banking Transactions performance, as well as of any operations: Beneficiary's account number in IBAN form, as well as the Beneficiary's account number for transfers to the countries which have not adhered to IBAN; BIC of Beneficiary's credit institution; name and address of Beneficiary's credit institution (in case the Beneficiary's credit institution does not have BIC, its full name and address will be supplied, possibly accompanied by the national clearing code); the national clearing code – fill in the type and number of the National clearing code related to the different national Payment systems which have not adhered to IBAN; Beneficiary's surname and name, personal identification code or his Fiscal Code (CUI); Beneficiary's address; the amount to be transmitted; transfer currency; payment details; payment date; specific details requested by Beneficiary/ treasury.

80.1.3. To the extent provided by applicable legal provisions on the Convention signing date, the Client will bear the losses occurred until the Notification moment according to Art. 79.5, resulted from any unauthorized Payment Operations after using a lost or stolen Payment Instrument, or when the Client did not keep safe the customized Security Elements.

80.1.4. The Client will bear unlimited the losses related to unauthorized Payment Operations when the Client acted fraudulently or breached, on purpose or from negligence his obligations regarding the use of Payment Instrument or BCR Notification.

80.2. Starting the moment he announced BCR about the occurrence of any of the events mentioned in Art. 79.5 above, the Client is no longer accountable for the losses produced after the announcement, except for the case in which the Client himself is fraudulently acting.

80.3. By signing CSB, the Client understands and specifically accepts the content of each provision included in this clause regarding BCR accountability related to the Payment Services, as follows:

80.3.1. BCR will verify, with reasonable diligence, the Instructions received from the Client, without assuming in any way the responsibility for the Instructions addressed to it fraudulently or abusively, except for the case in which BCR produced a prejudice to the Client by acting intentionally or in gross negligence.

80.3.2. BCR can be held liable to the Client for the failure to execute or the inadequate execution of the Payment Operations ordered by the Client.

80.3.3. BCR will be accountable for the consequences of using a lost, stolen or abused Payment Instrument if it does not make available the adequate means to allow the Client to notify at any moment such circumstances, except for the cases in which the Client is liable, according to Art. 80.1 above. In case due to an error, BCR will register or transfer in the Account amounts to which the Client is not entitled, BCR will cancel the respective amounts. At the same time, BCR will recalculate and settle the undue interests to the Client starting the date of their calculation based on the above mentioned error.

80.3.4. In case of unauthorized Payment Operations, BCR will be liable for the reimbursement of the amount related to the respective unauthorized Payment Operation, except for the cases in which the Client is liable according to Art. 80.1.1 and 80.1.2 and of the cases in which BCR acted according to some legal obligations.

80.3.5. BCR will correct an unauthorized Payment Operation or incorrectly executed which generates a complaint, upon the Client's request in this sense sent to BCR within maximum 13 months since the date it is shown in the Account statement, if it cannot be proven that the Payment Operation was authenticated, correctly registered, introduced in the Accounts and was not affected by any technical defect or by other deficiencies.

80.3.6. BCR liability to the Client is in any case limited to the direct losses effectively suffered by the Client and the benefit unrealized by him as a consequence of the non-execution or of wrong execution of the Payment Instructions, without the benefit unrealized by the Client exceeding the interest value the Client would have been entitled to according to the Contractual Documentation (if the case) if the Instruction had been adequately executed.

80.3.7. Any further financial consequences are in BCR charge, according to the applicable legal provisions.

80.3.8. BCR is not liable to the Client for:

- (a) the Payment Operations validly initiated or executed by the Client and later contested by him;
- (b) the cases in which BCR can prove it acted according to the provisions of CSB or of the relevant Convention;
- (c) the Payment Operations whose execution was refused by BCR, according to Art. 75.1, in compliance with Art. 75.2;

- (d) the Client's correct supply of the Beneficiary's sole identification code or for the wrong Instructions given by the latter. After executing such wrong Instructions based on a wrong sole identification code, which resulted in withdrawals or transfers of amounts from the Account, BCR will make reasonable diligence to recover the funds which made the object of the Payment Operation, but without being obliged to the Client in this sense. By Convention, BCR can set up a recovery fee applicable in this case;
- (e) execution of an authorized Instruction in a certain Working Day if the authorized Instruction was not received by BCR until COT;
- (f) performance of operations by the fraudulent/ abusive use of the Security elements by third parties, until the moment the Client notifies BCR, according to Art. 79.5;
- (g) possible penalties of interests the Client has to pay to the Beneficiary in case the Client does not initiate the payment in due time, considering COT and the number of required days for the accounting settlement;
- (h) the losses resulted from the currency exchange in the country of origin of the correspondent credit institution which is actually executing the respective operation and which is governed by the law of the place;
- (i) the losses resulted from the Client's performance of Banking Transactions to countries under international sanctions which could imply the blockage/ seizure/ partial return of the traded amount by the correspondent banks; and
- (j) for the Notifications which were not received by the Client because he did not announce the change of his identification data, the Notifications being validly sent to the last address communicated by him.

81. CLIENT'S RIGHT TO REIMBURSEMENT

81.1. The Client has the right to a full reimbursement from BCR in case of an unauthorized Payment Operation already executed, initiated by or through a Beneficiary, if the Client's authorization does not specify the exact amount of operation, and it exceeded the amount the Client could have been reasonably expecting, without any right to invoke the application of the Reference Exchange Rate, and the Client requested the reimbursement within 8 weeks since the date BCR debited the funds.

82. TYPES OF PAYMENT OPERATIONS – SPECIFIC PROVISIONS

82.1. Operations with Payment Orders (OP)

82.1.1. General aspects regarding OP

- (a) Reception of OP on paper is made in the Client's presence. The signature on OP in the reception zone confirms only its reception, and does not stand for an acceptance.
- (b) Before executing an OP, BCR has the right: (i) to request the presentation of documents allowing the verification of the payment purpose; and (ii) to verify the Ordering person's identity.
- (c) BCR will consider accepted an inter-banking OP by debiting the Account mentioned by the Ordering person in OP or when the OP is previously accepted and found in the Account Statement of the correspondent credit institution. BCR will regard as executed an intra-banking Op, respectively an IDD when the Account mentioned in OP is debited.

82.1.2. Operations with OP in RON

- (a) The Ordering person will present OP to BCR on the forms set up or agreed by BCR, correctly and completely filled in, including the mandatory and additional elements required, as stipulated in the relevant forms.
- (b) BCR executes OP in RON at the Reception Moment of OP, or the latest, in the next Working Day, depending on the internal COT set up by BCR for each type of operation.

82.1.3. Operations with OP in foreign currency

- (a) BCR will display in a visible pace the reception terms set p for OP in foreign currency and will regard as accepted such an OP when the Account mentioned in the Payment Instruction is debited;
- (b) BCR can freely set up the execution route of the Client's Instruction, including the selection of correspondent banks;
- (c) The Client will use the forms made available by BCR, respectively: (i) OP Europe – for the payments denominated in EUR of a certain value and only to Beneficiaries of accounts with banks within SEPA and with SHA fees option, and (ii) Foreign Currency Payment Order/Declaration of International Receipt, by the case; and/ or (iii) other specific forms according to the applicable legislation;
- (d) For EU equivalent of other currencies required to fill in the forms, NBR Reference Exchange rate will be used, valid for the last Working Day before the date of payment ordering, respectively of Account crediting;
- (e) If COT for OP forms deposit is observed, the payments ordered on paper in "normal" regime will be executed on the currency date of the immediately following Working Day or at 2(two) Working Days (spot) since the Receipt Moment, while the payments in "emergency" regime, will be executed on the currency date of their reception date by BCR, depending on the specific COT and the currency;
- (f) Ops related to payments to E Member States will include IBAN code. For the countries which have not adhered to IBAN, a BBAN number will be provided (basic bank account number) as well as the BIC of Beneficiary's credit institution if existing, while on a contrary case, the full name and address of the Beneficiary's credit institution, possibly accompanied by the clearing code or by another identification element;

- (g) BCR credits the Client's Account (as Beneficiary) on the currency date with which BCR account was credited by the corresponding credit institution, if the reception COT is observed, or, on a contrary case, the funds will be credited in the Client's Account on the currency date of the next Working Day;
- (h) The funds will be debited from the Client's Account (as payer) on the reception date, on condition of complying with COT and the applicable legislation;
- (i) For collections, the Client is bound to supply the Ordering person BCR Bic, as well as IBAN code related to the Account where he wants the funds to be transferred;
- (j) BCR will process OP in foreign currency with OUR and SHA fee. The processing of the forms in circuit or of the Instructions electronically sent with BEN commissioning option will be performed by transforming it in SHA by BCR.

82.1.4. Common aspects of operations with OP in RON and foreign currency

- (a) In case of inter-banking collections, the currency of Account crediting will implicitly be the currency in the payment message received by BCR; if this is not matching the currency of IBAN code mentioned in the message, BCR will perform the currency exchange, within the limits set up in the relevant Convention and will credit the amount according to IBAN code in the payment message. The operation will be accompanied by the automatic generation of a currency exchange at BCR Reference Exchange Rate;
- (b) In case of an OP received in Banking Units, the intra/ inter-banking payment transactions in RON or foreign currencies for Clients are possible from/ to an account denominated in another currency than the transaction currency at BCR Reference Exchange Rate. COT set up by BCR for such transactions with OP performed in the Banking Units is 13.00 hours;
- (c) In case of an OP in foreign currency from/ to an account denominated in another currency than the transaction currency and for which the credit transfer operation is not finalized by the acceptance of the respective OP by the addressee institution and/ or for which that institution sent a refuse communication, if the Client does not hold an Account in the currency from the payment message received by BCR, the Account crediting is done at BCR Reference Exchange Rate.

82.2. Operations with cash

- 82.2.1. Cash withdrawals have to be planned by at least 2 (two) days before the withdrawal, unless otherwise provided in the relevant Convention.
- 82.2.2. The obligation of previous planning is not applied in case of cash withdrawals resulted from credits granting made available to the borrower, owner of the Current Bank Account from which the drawing is performed.
- 82.2.3. The planning is valid until the end of the respective Working Day. For withdrawals planned and not drawn, BCR charges costs, according to the Convention.
- 82.2.4. In case of cash release to the Client in foreign currency, BCR releases the effective currency fractions in RON equivalent if they are not available in the effective currency, at NBR Reference Exchange Rate valid on the payment day.

82.3. Operations with Debit Payment Instruments (ID)

- 82.3.1. BCR receives Debit Payment Instruments (Cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note) in view of remittance for collection and, by the case, of acceptance and settlement. BCR does not accept for processing ID which does not meet the legal validity conditions.
- 82.3.2. The Client is fully liable for the correct filling in of ID and of their related documents (lists, justifying documents, etc), for the compliance with legal conditions, as well as for the consequences of the failure to settle an ID due to wrongly written data or the lack of cash available.
- 82.3.3. The Client has to present the ID (and the related documents) for collection considering the banking terms and circuits, making sure he is not exposed to the loss of recourse right and being fully liable in case of their exceeding.
- 82.3.4. For the issued IDs, the Client has to assure the cash available in the Account since the issuance date for cheques and on the due date for promissory notes and bills of exchange.
- 82.3.5. In case of payment incidents, BCR will declare the payment incidents to the Payment Incidents Register.
- 82.3.6. BCR will accept, in view of changing its own records on ID sheets, the Client's requests regarding the declaration of the lost/ stolen/ destroyed debit instrument sheet only based on the final court decision which decides in that sense.
- 82.3.7. BCR will not release barred cheques to the Client registered with major payment incidents in the Payment Incidents Register.
- 82.3.8. In the absence of other Instructions, BCR can present for acceptance and/ or payment the bills of exchange and promissory notes placed as guarantee and reaching maturity and can protest them for payment default.

82.3.9. In the absence of other Instructions, BCR can, on its latitude, to send an ID according to Art. 30.5 without taking any liability for the handling, remittance or loss of the ID after its dispatch.

82.4. Direct Debit operations

82.4.1. As regards MDD, the Client has the following obligations:

- (a) to assure in the Current Bank Account the required amount for the full payment (including the related fees) by at least two banking days before the payment deadline set up according to the Client's agreement with the Beneficiary. No partial payment of an IDD is performed;
- (b) to assure the accuracy of information regarding the Current Bank Account and the communication of any changes to the Beneficiary;
- (c) to send the Beneficiary a copy of MDD or a Notification in this sense (including of change/ revocation) if the Beneficiary opened his account with a Collecting Institution, other than the Paying Institution. The Client empowers BCR to notify the Beneficiary regarding the MDD conclusion and terms (including as regards MDD change/ revocation), if the Paying Institution is identical to the Collecting Institution.

82.4.2. MDD revocation/ change can be achieved based on the following rules:

- (a) by issuing another MDD;
- (b) based on a revocation/ change order sent to BCR, which process effect since the next Working Day of its receipt by BCR; the Client is obliged to make the due payments to the Beneficiary within the time interval between the MDD revocation date and the date of the replacing MDD coming into force;
- (c) any revocation/ change does not impair any right or obligations resulting in relation of an IDD sent to the automatic clearing house before the moment the revocation/ change starts producing effects;
- (d) any revocation/ change request is processed only at the Banking Units premise.

82.4.3. The Client will acknowledge the executed IDD since the moment of their registration in the Account Statement.

82.4.4. The Client gives his consent that BCR sends to the Beneficiary or to the Collecting Institution any personal information which might be included in MDD.

82.4.5. MDD has an unlimited validity period, ceasing only if the Client revokes it based on a revocation order sent by one (1) Working Day before the cease date, or immediately, if the Direct Debit Agreement between BCR and the Beneficiary is terminated by the Client's notification, without the application of Art. 2.015 of the Civil Code.

82.4.6. MDD is exclusively applied to the payment modality and has no implication over the underlying contracts signed between the Payment and the Beneficiary.

82.4.7. If inter-banking settlement is not performed at the above mentioned term due to BCR guilt, as a Paying Institution, it: (a) has the obligation to return the Payer the amount debited from his Account related to IDD; or (b) has to pay the Payer a delay interest calculated for the period between the Account debiting date and the return date of the amount related to the unexecuted IDD.

82.4.8. BCR, as a Paying Institution will accept the reimbursement claims of a Client whose Current Bank Account was wrongly debited by the amount related to an IDD, and in any of the following cases: (a) Lack of MDD; (b) IDD was not executed by BCR according to MDD or to IDD received from the Collecting Institution; (c) MDD was revoked by an authenticated revocation order; or (d) in the case provided by Art. 81.1.

82.4.9. BCR will have the right to ask the Client details about all the concrete elements related to the conditions mentioned in this article.

82.4.10. BCR can refuse, on a justified base, to reimburse such amounts within 10 (ten) Working Days since the receipt of the Client's request, the latter having the right to contest this refuse in the conditions provided by this CSB.

82.4.11. The Client will not be entitled to any reimbursement according to the above if he expressed his Consent directly to BCR and, if the case, the information regarding the future payment operations were sent or made available to the Client in the agreed form by at least 4(four) weeks before the due date by BCR or by the Beneficiary.

82.4.12. In cases provided by Art. 82.4.8 letter (b) – (d) above, the Client can send a reimbursement claim to BCR within maximum 8 weeks since the date he has found out or should have found out from the Account Statement that the disputed amount, stipulated in IDD, was debited from his Current Bank Account.

82.4.13. If the Client makes a reimbursement claim after the 8 (eight) weeks, it will be solved by the parties according to the legislation in force, without being submitted to the previously mentioned return provisions.

82.4.14. In case of IDD in intra-banking system, BCR as Paying Institution will return the related amount in maximum 10 Working Days since the claim raising, according to Art. 82.4.8.

82.4.15. The conditions specified in Art. 73-81 are also applied to the Payment Operations by Direct Debit.

82.5. Operations by Standing Order

82.5.1. BCR will accomplish the Client's mandate according to the planning by Convention and the legal provisions, within the limit of the cash available secured by the Client.

82.5.2. The Client authorizes BCR to execute from his Current Bank Account Payment Orders corresponding to each planned payment on term, in the conditions set up in the relevant Convention, in the Beneficiary's favor.

82.5.3. The Client has the full and exclusive obligation to assure the required cash available for the payments performance.

82.5.4. BCR will execute the Payment Orders only on the dates and at the amounts agreed with the Client, without being conditions in the mandate execution or by the receipt of another consent than that the Client gave by signing the relevant Convention.

82.5.5. BCR will execute the Payment Orders planned with the Client within the limit of the cash available in his Current Bank Account.

82.5.6. The Client undertakes to make available to BCR all the information regarding the transaction between him and the Beneficiary which are to be executed by Standing Order.

82.5.7. BCR does not assume any obligation or liability if, due to other causes than those derived from its activity, the amounts settled from the Client's Current Bank Account did not enter in time into the Beneficiary's account.

82.5.8. BCR will immediately and fully replenish the Client's funds wrongly taken for the execution of the Payment Orders by Standing Order, if the error is due to BCR.

82.5.9. BCR mandate to make payments by Standing Order can be done only by major physical persons, owners of Current Accounts opened with Banking Units or by Remote Banking Services/ 24 Banking BCR, for the Users of this service. Granting/ change/ revocation of the Standing Order mandate by Remote Banking Services/ 24 Banking BCR is done with the validly granted Client's Consent in the form agreed with BCR for Payment Orders according to the owned composition of Remote Banking Services/ 24 Banking.

82.5.10. The change of BCR mandate granted by the Client for payment through Standing Order is done by addendum to the Convention signed between BCR and the Client, by at least 10 (ten) Working days before coming into force for the Conventions concluded in the Banking Units or, by at least 24 hours before the change application, is concluded by Remote Banking Services/ 24 Banking BCR.

82.5.13. The conditions specified in Art. 73-81 above are also applied to the Payment Operations by Standing Order.

XIV. OPERATIONS BY CARDS

83. OPERATIONS WHICH CAN BE PERFORMED BY CARD

83.1. The following types of operations can be performed by Card, depending on the Card type and the relevant Convention:

83.1.1. Banking Transactions: (a) for goods or services payment; (b) of cash withdrawal from BCR desks (by POS/ Imprinter) and ATM; (c) on Internet (with BCR recommendation to exclusively use the sites enrolled in 3D-Secure with the logos "Verified by Visa" or "Master Card Securecode"); (d) using Contactless Technology; and

83.1.2. Other operations performed through BCR ATM, namely: payment of utility bills, transfer of funds, repayment of Loan installments, recharge of mobile phone cards or RATB transport cards for ATM with Contactless functionality, PIN change, Account balance inquiry, providing the list of the last 10 transactions for your Current Account with Debit Card. If the Client benefits from the "BCR Zâmbet" debit card in RON, the following provisions apply: The card is issued by BCR with an "electronic wallet" application, in partnership with the Autonomous Transport Authority of Bucharest ("RATB"), and incorporates the banking application with Contact Technology and Contactless Technology, as well as the transport application. Through the "BCR Zâmbet" debit card in RON, the Client can pay your trips by public transportation in Bucharest by accessing the transport application related to the "BCR Zâmbet" Card. In order to charge other types of transport titles (e.g. subscription) to the transport application incorporated in the BCR Zâmbet Card, the Client has to report to a RATB card recharge point. The customer is able to activate, deactivate or modify the automatic recharge, including the related amounts, of the "Electronic Wallet" transport title in the banking application by accessing the www.online.ratb.ro website. Recharging the "Electronic Wallet" or subscription type transport application can be done on the Internet at <https://online.ratb.ro/> and at the POSs installed at the RATB card issuing and recharging centers. The Client may not request the recharge of a subscription type title that has not previously been charged on the transport application at a RATB card issuing and recharging center. The Client can view the balance of the embedded transport account in the BCR Zâmbet Card through the channels provided by RATB. If the Client initiates the closing of BCR Zâmbet Card through the channels provided by RATB. If the Client initiates the closing of the BCR Zâmbet Debit Card or the Current Bank Account becomes inactive, the amounts transferred in the transport application and unused will not be refunded to the Client. To view the balance, tariffs and other information related to the transport application incorporated in the BCR Zâmbet Card, all provisions communicated by RATB are applicable in the following media: (i) web addresses: www.ratb.ro, www.cărd.ratb.ro and www.online.ratb.ro; (ii) RATB – Commercial Call Center Department from 164-168 Calea Serban-Vodă, District 4, Monday to Friday, between 06:00 and 21:00; Saturday: 06:00-20:00; (iii) by phone 021/ 311.13.98 and 021/ 336.56.50/ int. 117, 120, 121, 122; and (iv) by e-mail at the address: info@ratb.ro. Amounts transferred in the transport application related to BCR Zâmbet Card will be refunded by BCR if the Banking Services package (including by closing a mandatory component) is discontinued.

83.1.3. The Card can be used both in Romania, and abroad, in the places (merchant, ATM, Banking Unit, etc) marked by the Card logo, respectively: MasterCard/ Maestro/ Visa Electron/ Visa.

83.1.4. For newly issued Cards, activation of Contactless Technology takes place after a successful transaction has been made by entering the PIN code related to the Card at any ATM terminal or accepting POS. The Cards equipped with Contactless Technology can be used as follows: (a) with merchants accepting the logo and which have Contactless Technology POS installed; (b) Contactless Payment transaction for Visa Electron, Payment for Maestro smaller or equal to RON 100 will be performed without PIN code and/ or signing the receipt, which is released optionally, according to POS setting; (c) Contactless Payment transaction for Maestro of over RON 100 will be performed by introducing PIN and/ or by signing POS receipt

84. CARD CHARACTERISTICS AND USE

84.1. The Card validity period is printed on its surface, with the possibility of automatic extension in case there is no written request of the Holder to give up the Card by at least 35 (thirty five) days before expiry. The Holder has the right to refuse the newly issued Card.

84.2. The Card is BCR property and has to be immediately returned upon its request, according to the provisions of Conventions in case there are fraud suspicions and/ or fraudulent Banking Transactions were performed, in case the Account with attached Card is closed (at the moment of making the Account closing request), as well as in other cases specifically provided in this chapter.

84.3. The Card is not transmissible and can be used only by the Holder/ User on whose name it was issued.

84.4. The PIN is personal and not transmissible, belonging to the Holder/ User on whose name it was issued. The PIN is automatically generated by the cards system in security conditions. If PIN is wrongly introduced three consecutive times, the Card will be automatically blocked.

84.5. When making an operation at ATM, the Holder/ User has to take out the Card within the allocated time at the terminal (ATM) to avoid the Card retaining.

84.6. Due to security reasons, BCR issued the credit Card inactive. To be used, it has to be activated. If the Cardholder has opted to include both the Cardholder and the User in the Banking Package of the debit cards, BCR will issue only the type of Card mentioned in the Convention on their expiry date. If the Cardholder requests replacement of the Card type or issuance of a new Card, the Debit Card held by the Cardholder at the time of the request will be inactivated or blocked, as the case may be, (i) at the date of the first transaction with the new type of Card requested, respectively (ii) at the time of requesting to block the Card held, in the case of stolen or lost cards.

85. PERFORMANCE OF CARD OPERATIONS

85.1. Payment Operations by Card can be performed only within the limit of the cash available in the Holder's Account and/ or from the cash made available by BCR to the Holder within the limit of a previously established ceiling.

85.2. The clauses of chapter XII and XIII are also applicable to the Payment Services supplied by the Client by Card.

85.3. The authorization of operations made by Card by the acceptor or processor is performed in real time, the counter value of the Banking Transaction being blocked in the Account at the moment of its performance. The blocked amount at the authorization moment of the Banking Transaction made by Card in foreign acceptance network takes maximum 30 (thirty) days for settlement.

85.4. Off-line Transactions can also be performed by Card (including by Contactless Technology), with limited amounts without getting BCR direct electronic authorization and, respectively by sending the transaction directly to settlement without the previous blockage of the traded amounts.

85.5. In cases provided by Art. 85.1 and 85.3, the effective debiting of the amount in the debit Card Account is performed as follows:

85.5.1. Banking Transactions performed on Romania's territory (in RON): (a) the accounts in RON will be debited from the Account by the value in RON of the performed operations; (b) the accounts in foreign currency will be debited from the Account in its currency, as follows: (i) if the Banking Transaction is performed at BCR POS/ATM, the trading rate is NBR Reference Exchange Rate on the date the transaction is settled with BCR plus the currency exchange fee; while (ii) if the Banking Transaction is performed at the POS/ATM of other banking institutions in Romania, the trading rate is that provided in Art. 85.5.2.

85.5.2. The international transactions are registered in the Account in the currency of the respective Account: (a) for cards issued under Visa/ Visa Electron logo, if the original transaction currency is different from the Account currency, Visa will exchange the transaction value in the Account currency at Visa Reference Exchange Rate of the Working Day before the transaction settlement with BCR, plus the foreign currency exchange fee; and (b) for cards issued under MasterCard/ Maestro logo if the original transaction currency is different from the settlement currency with MasterCard (EUR and/ or USD), the value of cleared and settled transactions by MasterCard and the related fees will be exchanged into the Account currency at NBR Reference Exchange Rate of the transaction processing day, plus the foreign currency exchange fee. If the original transaction currency is different from settlement currency with MasterCard (EUR and/ or USD), by the case, MasterCard will exchange the original transaction value into the settlement currency at Mastercard Reference Exchange Rate.

85.5.3. For Banking Transactions where the Card is not present (internet, telephone, etc.) the merchant can ask the Holder/ User to supply certain codes (for instance, CVV2/ CVC2 of the 3D-Secure password).

86. VALUE OF BANKING TRANSACTIONS WHICH CAN BE PERFORMED BY CARD

86.1. The maximum amount which can be withdrawn daily in cash and the maximum number of daily transactions by Card, at home and abroad are set up by the relevant Conventions. For the debit Card this amount can be changed upon a written request made at the premise of any Banking Unit.

86.2. BCR reserves the right to change/ limit the maximum number of periodic operations (day, week, month) by Card and the maximum amount which can be used/ withdrawn (including in view of limiting the fraud), changes which will be communicated to the holder, according to relevant Conventions, legal regulations and by display in the Banking Units.

87. OPERATION OF THE ACCOUNT WITH ATTACHED CARD

87.1. Each Banking Transaction performed by Card will automatically debit the Account the Card is attached to. If accidentally the balance of a Card Account becomes debtor, BCR will notify the Holder the debit cause and the latter will be obliged to cover it, the soonest possible.

87.2. BCR will assure the Holder/ User the authorization of the Bank Transactions 24 hours of 24, 7 days a week, within the limit of the cash available in the attached Account.

87.3. BCR is authorized by the Client to automatically debit the Card attached Account by the amounts representing: (i) the counter value of the Banking Transactions validly performed; (ii) the counter value of taxes and fees due to BCR, including the unjustified contestation of a Banking Transaction; (iii) the counter value of the Banking Transactions performed by Card, until the moment BCR is notified about the Card loss or theft and of the fraudulent use of PIN/ signature/ CVV2/ CVC2 or 3D-Secure password.

87.4. At the moment the Holder requests the closing of the Account with attached Card, the Card should be returned to BCR.

87.5. BCR can block the access of the Holder/ User at a certain amount in the Account, specifically stipulated in the relevant Convention. If the case, that amount becomes accessible to the Holder/ User within 35 Working Days since the Card return to BCR.

87.6. When the Account becomes inactive and the Holder does not activate it, BCR can close the Account and its attached Card.

87.7. After the Client, or by the case, the User performs a Banking Transaction with BCR ATMs or POS, BCR will provide a receipt including the following information; reference for identification, the value (paid/ withdrawn amount), accepting merchant or ATM, as well as the date of the Banking Transaction.

88. TECHNICAL SUPPORT FOR CARDS USE

88.1. In view of securing the technical support as regards the Card loss or theft, BCR makes available to the Holder/ User the technical support through BCR Contact Center at the phone number stipulated in CSB and additionally on the phone numbers +40 21 311.10.01 or +40 21 311.02.16, available non-stop.

96. GENERAL PROVISIONS

96.1. The provisions of Chapter XII and of Chapter XIII are also applied to the Payment Services supplied to the Client through Remote Banking Services/ 24 Banking BCR.

97. ALERTS SERVICE

97.1. Operations which can be performed through Alerts Service

97.1.1. Through Alerts Service, the Client can benefit of BCR sending SMS alerts or e-mail in real time on mobile phone type Smartphone by the installed application Touch 24 Banking (or with other available application) regarding the Payment Operations from the Client's Current Bank Accounts for which the service was activated, as well as about the balance of the Accounts related to the credit Card, according to the relevant Convention.

97.2. Description of Alerts Service

97.2.1. Upon Client's choice, the Alerts Service allows to send SMS or e-mail alerts about the following: Current Account feeds and payments, payments to merchants and cash withdrawals made through the Debit Card and/ or Credit Card, as well as payments ordered from Current Accounts through Remote Banking Services (Internet Banking, Mobile Banking and Phone Banking). Refunds to the Credit Card Account are not included in this service.

97.3. Functioning of Alerts Service

97.3.1. The Alerts Service addresses Clients, BCR Account holders (in RON or foreign currency), national mobile phone users, or e-mail owners, and is based on Client configurations through relevant Conventions. If the configurations have not been made through Relevant Conventions, the Alerts Service will only be available for Bank Transactions of at least 100 currency units, according to the currency of the Account on which this service was activated, except for Bank Transactions initiated through the Direct Debit and Standing Order services, for which alerts can be received irrespective of the amount of Bank Transactions operated.

97.3.2. BCR sends the alerts on the mobile phone number or e-mail address communicated by the Client.

97.3.3. The Alerts Service components can be individually attached to each Current Bank Account, respectively credit Card Account owned by the Client with BCR.

97.3.4. Alerts Service, available by SMS or e-mail, can be limited by the mobile phone network cover, respectively the cover of the internet supplier used by the Client. Thus, in case the Client is not within the covering areas or his phone is shut off, the reception of SMS message or e-mail will be affected, without BCR being considered responsible for such an event.

97.3.5. During the time the Alerts Service is active, the Client may modify (a) the transmission channel: SMS and/or e-mail; (b) the phone number; (c) the e-mail address; (d) the upper value for triggering the alerts; (e) the associated Current Bank Accounts. These options of modification, as well as the activation/ deactivation of the service, may be exercised (i) by written request in any of BCR Banking Units, (ii) by telephone, by calling the BCR Contact Center service, or (iii) by the remote banking services components (Internet Banking, Mobile Banking) only for the functionalities allowed by these applications.

97.3.6. In case of "Plus" component, the Client will receive the alerts in real time for the Payment Operations performed at the payments moment, except for the case of delays generated by the operation of mobile phone or internet services, including if generated by an Act of God or a Force Majeure case. For account feeding, the Client will receive the alerts within the time interval pre-defined by BCR or agreed by the Client, according to relevant Conventions.

97.3.7. For Current Bank Accounts that will be later included in the Alerts Service, both through Remote Banking Services and Banking Units, the monthly commission for using this service is charged per Current Bank Account. The obligation to pay commissions related to the use of BCR Alerts service arises from the moment of its activation. The monthly commission for using the service is calculated and charged at the Anniversary Date of activation, proportionally with the period for which the service was active. Throughout the activation period, including when you do not receive SMS alerts as a result of non-performance of operations and/ or as a result of inactivation of the service at Client's request, for specified periods of time or upon inactivation of the mobile phone number, the commission for using the alert service will be charged in full. The monthly commission is due irrespective of the number of alerts sent by BCR, but up to a maximum of 25 SMS, including inactivity of the account(s) and/ or inactivation of the service.

97.3.8. In case of exceeding the limit of SMS, the Current Bank Account for which the limit has been exceeded will be debited with the commission mentioned in the applicable Convention.

97.3.9. For exceptional cases, upon the Client's specific request, BCR will no longer send the alerts included in the Alerts Service, in order to prevent the unauthorized access to information of banking secret nature, the Service remaining active and the Client having to pay the related fees.

97.3.10. The Alerts Service may be closed at the initiative of BCR if the Client fails to pay the monthly commission for using the service.

97.4. Parties' liability related to Alerts Service

97.4.1. The provisions of Art. 80 and Art. 95.7 are also applicable regarding the parties' liability for Alerts Service.

97.4.2. BCR is not liable for the consequences caused to the Client by the non execution/ inadequate execution of the Banking Transactions if: (i) the operator of mobile phone/ internet the Client is subscribed to is in impossibility to meet its obligations; (ii) the Client is not in the cover area or his phone is shut off at the transmission moment of the confirmation message of the performed Banking Transactions; (iii) the mobile phone is not working due to the Client's obligations to the suppliers of mobile phone/ internet services; (iv) due to the guilt of the mobile phone/ internet services supplier, the integrity of the data is lost although they were correctly sent and completely transmitted by BCR; (v) the mobile phone cannot receive the messages due to its settings or of some restrictions imposed by mobile phone/ internet services supplier; or (vi) mobile phone/ internet services supplier charges taxes or fees for the received messages.

97.4.3. BCR is accountable for the alerts content as long as they are within BCR IT system.

97.4.4. The Client is responsible for: (a) the protection of the integrity and confidentiality of information received from BCR through Alerts Service; (b) the change of phone number of e-mail address immediately after the occurrence of any event which might prevent the Client's access to alerts, in case of loss or theft of the mobile phone and/ or of SIM card, of unauthorized access to e-mail account, the change of phone number, closing the e-mail account, termination of the contract with mobile phone or internet supplier; (c) the request to deactivate the component(s) of Alerts Service in case of (i) loss or theft of mobile phone and/ or of SIM card, (ii) unauthorized access to e-mail account, (iii) the occurrence of any event which might prevent the Client's access to alerts, or (iv) in any other cases specifically requested by the Client, until their remedy; (d) the Client's request to reactivate the component(s); and (e) announcing BCR about the change of the data declared in the relevant Conventions.

97.4.5. In the absence of contrary Instructions, BCR will continue to send alerts on the mobile phone and to the e-mail address the Client supplied according to the relevant Convention.

XVI. SAVING PRODUCTS

98. TYPES

98.1. BCR saving products are deposits, saving accounts and deposit certificates.

98.2. For the operation of saving products a Current Bank Account in foreign currency has to be attached to the saving product.

99. SETTING UP THE SAVING PRODUCTS

99.1. To set up saving products, BCR will open an Account on the Client's name on the date the Client deposited at least the minimum opening amount for which BCR pays interests to the deposited amounts, according to the provisions of the respective Convention. The Payment Order authorized in the form agreed with BCR also contains the essential elements for the contracted Banking Service, including the amount and level of interest offered by BCR.

99.2. Setting up a saving product, its feeding or closing can be done by the Client in any Banking Unit within the Working Timetable, by transfer, including for the users of Internet Banking and Phone Banking Service.

99.3. If the minimum amount has not been set by the relevant Convention, it will be RON 500 and EUR/ USD 250. BCR is entitled to set a minimum amount of savings products, as well as the minimum period for which it is formed. The minimum amounts are presented in the BCR offer and displayed at the Banking Units in a visible place.

100. OPERATIONS IN SAVING PRODUCTS ACCOUNTS. ACCOUNT STATEMENT

100.1. BCR assures the Client's information about the operations performed in the Accounts of saving products by the Account Statements offered for free once a month in the Banking Units.

100.2. The Account Statement is assumed to be approved unless it is contested within 5 (five) Working Days. The Account Statement approval does not exclude the Client's right to contest later its content for errors of registration or calculation, for omissions or double registration, in the applicable conditions to the Accounts set up in Clause 78.

100.3. The operations of cash deposit and release in/ from the Accounts of saving products are subject to the provisions of Chapter XII.

100.4. If the Client makes Payment Operations from the Current Bank Account attached to the saving product, these operations will be subject to the provisions of Chapter XIII.

101. INTEREST PAYABLE

101.1. For the deposits on term, BCR will pay the interest as follows:

101.1.1. for the deposits on term without capitalization, the interest is paid monthly, half-yearly or on the due date, on the same date as the date of setting up the deposit on term in the Current Bank Account mentioned by the Client, as specified in the relevant Convention;

101.1.2. for the deposits on term with capitalization, the interest is paid on the deposit due date in the same deposit on term, which is increased on the due date by the interest paid for the previous period.

101.2. The interest for the deposits on term is made of the interest related to the amount for the deposit setting up and the interests corresponding to each later feeding. The interest related to a later feeding is determined using the interest type related to the main deposit, as follows:

101.2.1. the interest for the level of the amount feeding the Account and corresponding to the term equal to the residual due date of the main deposit or immediately below it;

101.2.2. if the residual due date of the main deposit is smaller than one month for the currency of RON/ EUR/ USD, the interest is set up deducting 2 pp for RON, respectively 0.5 pp for the currencies EUR/ USD from the interest practiced for the tranche of the fed amount, related to a maturity of one month if the residual due date of the main deposit is smaller than 3 (three) months for the currencies GBP/ CHF, the interest is set up deducting 0.5 pp for GBP, respectively 0.1 pp for CHF from the interest related to the 3 months maturity, but not less than 0.

101.3. If the deposit on term is automatically extended, the interest paid is that practiced and displayed by BCR on the extension day.

101.4. If the amounts deposited before the expiry of the deposit on term are withdrawn, BCR will not pay the interest. The interest already paid to the Client (which, by withdrawing the amounts deposited before the expiry of the deposit on term becomes undue) will be recovered by BCR from the deposit on term or from the Current Bank Account, by the case.

101.5. For the saving accounts, BCR will pay the interest as follows:

101.5.1. monthly, for the Accounts in RON and quarterly, for the accounts in foreign currency, on the date corresponding to the closing date of the Account or on the Account liquidation date;

101.5.2. in case the balance of the saving Account becomes smaller than the minimum mandatory limit provided in the relevant Convention, the existing amounts in that Account are transferred into the Client's Current Bank Account and the interest paid will be that provided in the Convention related to the Current Bank Account.

101.6. For the saving plans, BCR will pay the interest in compliance with the provisions of Art. 101.1, 101.3 and Art. 101.4.

102. CEASE OF SAVING PRODUCTS

102.1. The saving products cease in the following general cases:

102.1.1. when reaching the term they were set up for, unless the Client chose to automatically extend them, in which case BCR will automatically prolong them to the same term. The applicable interest rate will be the one available at the prolongation date;

102.1.2. when the balance drops below the minimum established value;

102.1.3. when an amount is withdrawn from the Account of the deposit on term or from a savings plan;

102.1.4. upon the Client's request or of his Proxy with unlimited rights, even before the term the deposit was set up for, in which case the Client will be held accountable to cover the prejudices BCR might suffer due to the anticipated cease of the deposit; or 102.1.5. in any other cases provided by the relevant Conventions signed between BCR and the Client.

102.2. At the maturity/ liquidation of a saving product, the Client can request the closing of the Account attached to the respective product. The Client agrees that BCR closes the Account attached to the saving product only based on a written request of the Client, to protect the Client's economic interests. The Account can be closed only if it is not attached to other Banking Services offered to the Client or if it is not seizure or made unavailable, according to the law, so that the Client meets some obligations assumed to third parties.

103. INHERITENCE OF DEPOSITED AMOUNTS AND VALUES

103.1. The release of the amounts object of saving products to the Client's heirs is made based on the proof of their succession rights over such products.

104. BANK DEPOSIT GUARANTEE FUND

104.1. BCR is participant in the Bank Deposit Guarantee Fund of Romania ("Fund"), mentioned on the list of credit institutions participating in the Fund, whose depositors benefit of the guarantee by compensations for the deposits set up with those institutions, within the limit of the periodically established ceiling by the Fund. On the date of signing the present Contractual Documentation, the ceiling is amounting to EUR 100.000 in RON equivalent per depositor per bank.

104.2. The Client's deposits are secured, except for the Deposits mentioned as deposits excluded from securing, according to Annex no. 1 "List of deposits excluded from securing" of the Law no. 311/ 2015 regarding deposits guarantee schemes and the Bank Deposit Guarantee Fund. The latter do not benefit of the securing facility, the above mentioned legal provisions on compensation payment being not applicable.

104.3. BCR displays in its Banking Units information about the securing of deposits, the ceilings and the categories of unsecured deposits.

104.4. The amounts the Client is has to pay, according to the relevant Conventions signed with BCR, will be considered by BCR when calculating the compensation the Client is entitled to, according to the provisions of the Law no. 311/ 2015 regarding deposits guarantee schemes and the Bank Deposit Guarantee Fund. Consequently, the amount offered as compensation for the deposits set up with BCR as participating credit institution, on the date they became unavailable will be diminished by the amounts the Client has to pay, according to the previous entries, on the same date.

XVII. LENDING OPERATION

105. APPLICATION. INTERPRETATION

105.1. Unless specifically provided otherwise, the provisions of this chapter are applied to any lending operations performed by BCR, irrespective of the Loan form.

105.2. CSB clauses which do not make reference to a certain type of Credit are applicable to all categories of Loans granted to the Clients by BCR. CSB clauses making reference to a certain type of Loan are applicable only to that type of Loan.

106. LOANS DRAWING

106.1. Any Loan is usually used after fully meeting or specific waiver by BCR of the precedent conditions of the Convention, respectively after the use of the Client's own sources, if the case.

106.2. Any Loan is made available to the Client by transferring the amount from the Loan Account into one of the Client's Accounts, from which it can be used according to the Loan destination mentioned in the Convention. In case of Overdraft, BCR provides the Loan by means of the Current Bank Account from which the Client can make drawings from the funds available, within the limit of the overdraft Ceiling.

106.3. Any Loan is made available to the Client by the method stipulated in the Convention.

107. INTEREST

107.1. The current interest related to the Loan BCR granted the Client is calculated according to the Convention provisions, by the formula stipulated in it.

107.2. The change of current interest rate is done according to the following principles:

107.2.1. for the Loans with flat interest rate, the interest rate is kept constant for the whole lending period, except for the cases provided in the Convention;

107.2.2. for the Loans with variable interest rate, the change of the current interest rate (%) leads to the recalculation of the interest due by applying the new interest rate to the balance of the existing Loan on the change date and BCR will issue a new repayment schedule made available to the Client according to the Convention provisions;

107.2.3. for the Loans with variable interest rate set up according to the reference index ROBOR/ LIBOR/ EURIBOR, the interest level is changed depending on its evolution, according to the Convention provisions.

107.3. The penalizing interest rate will be applied in the conditions and at the value provided in the Convention.

108. EFFECTIVE ANNUAL INTEREST (DAE)

- 108.1. For the Loans with flat interest rate, DAE is calculated starting from the prerequisite that all Costs set up by Convection remain unchanged for the whole period agreed by the parties and provided in that, and that the Client meets his contractual obligations at the terms and in the conditions stipulated in the Convention.
- 108.2. For the Loans with variable interest rate, DAE is calculated starting from the prerequisite that the interest rate related to the loan and the other Costs remain fix compared to the initial level and will be identically applied until the Convention termination.
- 108.3. For the Loans with flat interest rate for the initial period and with variable interest rate later according to a reference index, DAE is based on the assumption that at the end of the period of flat interest rate related to the Loan, the interest rate is the same as at DAE calculation moment, based on the value of the valid index at that moment and will be identically applied until the Convention termination.
- 108.4. When calculating DAE, the following costs are not considered:
- 108.4.1. expenses paid by the Client for incompliance with one of his commitments stipulated in the Convention;
- 108.4.2. if the Account opening is the Client's option, the costs required for the funds transfer, the costs of an Account management recording both the payment operations, and the drawings, the costs of using a payment means both for the payment operations and for drawings, other costs regarding payment operations;
- 108.4.3. the costs related to the subscriptions due as registration as member in associations or groups and which result from distinct agreements from the relevant Convention, even if such subscriptions influence the Loan conditions;
- 108.4.4. the costs related to Guarantees or optional insurances.

109. LOAN REIMBURSEMENT AND INTEREST PAYMENT. EARLY REIMBURSEMENT

- 109.1. The Loan reimbursement and the payment of the related interests and fees will be done by the Client and, by the case, by the Co-debtor(s)/ Fidejussor(s) in the same currency as the Loan was granted.
- 109.2. The amount of total monthly installments to be repaid and the due dates are written in the reimbursement schedule of the Convention, except for the credit lines and overdrafts/ Overdraft for which no reimbursement schedule is drafted.
- 109.3. In case of a Loan early repayment or of the Loan diminish as a result of failing to use the drawing term, BCR will provide the Client in writing, or on another durable medium a new reimbursement schedule, which will be opposable to the Client without any other formalities.
- 109.4. In case of Client's death, his heirs will be obliged, proportionally to each succession quota, to cover any amounts due to BCR based on the Convention, to the extent the Client has not signed a life insurance or BCR has not been appointed as beneficiary of the related insurance contract, or the insurance company did not fully cover such amounts from the insurance payment resulted from such an insurance contract. The convention, as well as the guarantee contracts ancillary to it can be foreclosed by BCR against the Client's heirs, even before the joint possession termination, according to the applicable provisions of the Civil Code.

110. LOAN SECURING

- 110.1. The Client undertakes to secure the Loan, the current interests, fees, penalties and any other expenses BCR might have related to the conservation or recovery of the goods brought in guarantee, as well as any other related amounts by the guarantees and in the conditions provided by the Convention. The guarantees established in this way will maintain their validity even if the relevant Convention is extended by Addendums.
- 110.2. The Client will bear all expenses and/ or taxes related to the appropriate establishment of guarantees, for their publicity in the Land Register and/ or the Electronic Archive of Secured Transactions, by the case, or for their erasure from the publicity registers.
