Article 7
General Assembly
Convening, voting and decision making process

1. General Assembly is held minimum once (1) a year, at latest six (6) months after the last day of the previous accounting period and it is convened by the Company Board of Directors, unless general legislation stipulates otherwise.
2. General Assembly consists of all present shareholders. Meetings of General Assembly are attended by members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board, or other invitees, who are allowed to attend with the approval of the convenor of the General Assembly meeting and if the meeting is called upon request an approval of that person is required. Invitees however do not acquire shareholder rights.
3. Shareholder attends the General Assembly meeting in person or represented by a proxy who is issued a written Power of Attorney. If a shareholder empowers more than one person to exercise voting rights attached to the same shares in the same General Assembly the Company will admit that shareholder who is registered in the attendance register first. Copy of the Power of Attorney, stipulating the scope thereof must be registered. Shareholder – legal entity – is at the same time obliged to present a current proof of registration from the Companies' Register or other evidence stipulated by general legislation (in the event that the shareholder is registered in the Companies' Register or other evidence stipulated by general legislation). Member of the Company Supervisory Board cannot be a shareholder proxy.
4. General Assembly is called by an invitation sent (sending invitation by post may alternatively be replaced by sending them in electronic form - by e-mail) to all shareholders to their home or business address as recorded in the shareholder's register at least 30 days before the date General Assembly is held.
5. General Assembly is held in venue stated in the invitation and a notice announcing the General Assembly meeting.
6. Invitation to the General Assembly meeting and notification about the General Assembly meeting contains the following:
 - a) Company name and address,
 - b) Venue, date and time of the General Assembly meeting,
 - c) Information whether it is a regular or extraordinary General Assembly meeting,
 - d) General Assembly meeting agenda,
 - e) Determining date for exercising right to participate in the General Assembly meeting for registered shares,
 - f) If the agenda contains changes to the Company Articles, the invitation must contain at least the relevant information of proposed changes,
 - g) Notification of the shareholder of his/her rights if the Company is required to do so by the general legislation.

7. Present shareholders are registered in the attendance list. Registration of the shareholders can be made upon the presentation of personal ID (or equivalent identification document) of the shareholder or proxy, Power of Attorney, current proof of registration from the Companies' Register or other evidence stipulated by general legislation (in the event that the shareholder is registered in the Companies' Register or other evidence stipulated by general legislation) no older than 3 months.
8. The list of attending shareholders shall contain in particular:
 - a) if a shareholder is a legal entity, company name and registered address,
 - b) if the shareholder is a private individual, his/her name and surname and permanent address,
 - c) name, surname of the proxy,
 - d) ISIN of shares held by the shareholder and the sum of par values of the voting shares,
 - e) information that the shares do not carry an entitlement to vote.
9. The list of attending shareholders must be marked with the name of the joint-stock company and the date of the General Assembly meeting. Signatures from the General Assembly Chairman and Minutes Clerk shall verify the list. In the event that the Company refuses to register someone on the attendance list, this has to be recorded on the list together with the reasons for such refusal. At the same time, the Board of Directors shall ensure that each shareholder receives a ballot stating the shareholder name, registration numbers of his/her shares, date and venue of the General Assembly and clearly marked number of votes. The right of a shareholder to attend a General Assembly meeting is verified against a statement from the issuer's register maintained by the Central Depository of Securities SR, a. s.
10. List of attending shareholders forms an appendix to the General Assembly meeting minutes.
11. Matters not included on the proposed meeting agenda can be decided upon only by all shareholders present and with approval from all shareholders.
12. Voting at the General Assembly shall be taken by handing over a ballot.
13. Number of shareholder votes is regulated by the par value of his/her shares. Shareholder's number of votes equals the sum of the par value of his/her shares multiplied by 1,000 euro (in words: one thousand euro).
14. General Assembly passes decisions in the form of resolutions.
15. General Assembly elects its Chairman, Minutes Clerk, two officers who will verify the minutes and Canvassing Officers. Member of the Board of Directors or any of the shareholders authorised by the Board of Directors to chair the General Assembly meeting until the election of the Chairman, will inform the General Assembly with proposal from the Board of Directors (or a person who requested the General Assembly meeting to take place) concerning the General Assembly bodies; this proposal is voted on en bloc. Shareholders can nominate other candidates for the General Assembly bodies until the beginning of the voting on the first proposal for the General Assembly body position. As the first a proposal made by the Board of Directors (or a person who requested the General Assembly meeting to take place) is voted upon; unless this proposal is approved as a whole a separate vote takes place for each proposal submitted by the shareholders in an order according to the number shareholder votes. In the event that none of the nominees received the required majority of votes the nominee with the highest votes numbers is elected. To the General Assembly bodies can be nominated only those persons who are present at the meeting and have agreed to their nomination. Until such time as Canvassing Officers are elected this function will be prepared by persons authorized by the Board of Directors (or a person who requested the General Assembly meeting to take place).
16. The General Assembly takes first a vote on proposals put forward by the person/entity who called the General Assembly and in case that the General Assembly is called at request, the General Assembly takes a vote on the proposal of a person/entity, who requested the calling of the General Assembly. In the event that this proposal is not accepted a vote takes place for each proposal submitted by the shareholders in an order according to the number shareholder votes. In the event that the proposal is accepted no counter proposals in the same matter are voted on.

17. General Assembly decides by a majority of all shareholder votes, unless general legislation or these Articles require different majority.
18. Two-third majority of all shareholders and notaries minutes are required for a General Assembly decision on:
 - a) change of Company Articles,
 - b) increase or decrease of registered capital,
 - c) authorisation of the Board of Directors to increase registered capital,
 - d) issuing of priority bonds or convertible bonds,
 - e) winding-up of the Company or a change of legal status,
 - f) ending of trading shares on the quoted securities market of the Stock Exchange
 - g) agreement on sale of the Company or Agreement on sale of part of the Company, contract for acquisition, merger of the company with other company, dividing of the company.
19. In cases where, pursuant to general legislation or these Articles, meeting minutes or other facts have to be witnessed by notary, it is the Board's duty to ensure the notary's presence and that these activities are carried out and if necessary provide him/her with any assistance, which he/she may require.
20. General Assembly meeting minutes have to contain the following:
 - a) Company name and registered address,
 - b) Venue and time of the General Assembly meeting,
 - c) Name of the General Assembly Chairman, Minutes Clerk, officers verifying minutes and Canvassing Officers,
 - d) Transcript of a discussion on individual items of the General Assembly,
 - e) Decision taken by the General Assembly with ballot results,
 - f) Content of a protest by a shareholder, member of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board pertaining to a decision taken by the General Assembly, if the protesting party makes a request to this effect.

Appendices to General Assembly meeting minutes shall contain proposals and statements presented to the General Assembly for discussion.

21. Every shareholder is entitled to request from the Board of Directors a copy of the Minutes or part thereof, together with Appendices. Upon such request it is the duty of the Board of Directors to forward this copy to the shareholder without any delays to an address he/she nominates or to make it available by alternative means after an agreement with the shareholder; otherwise the minutes have to be available at the Company's Head Office. Expenses related to producing and forwarding the copy of the minutes or part thereof, together with Appendices are borne by the Company.
22. The Company keeps minutes from the General Assembly together with the notification of the General Assembly meeting and invitation and list of attending Company shareholders for the duration of its existence.
23. If required by the interest of the Company and in cases stipulated by these Articles it is possible to convene an extraordinary General Assembly meeting. Extraordinary General Assembly meeting is convened by the Board of Directors, unless these Articles stipulate otherwise in the following cases:
 - a) if the previous General Assembly passed a resolution to that effect,
 - b) when the shareholder or shareholders holding the shares, whose par value exceeds at least 5% of the equity, request, with quoting the matters, that they propose to discuss. The Board of Directors puts the matter that they propose on the agenda of the general assembly meeting. The general assembly is obliged to discuss this matter. The period for calling of the extraordinary general assembly starts to flow on the first day following the day of the delivery of the written application to the Board of Directors of the Company. The application of the shareholders may be met only when these shareholders prove that they have held the shares

- for the period of at least three (3) months prior to lapsing the period for calling the extraordinary general assembly by the Board following section 26 of this Article,
- c) if the Board of Directors finds that the Company losses have exceeded one third of the registered capital or this can be anticipated and submits to the Supervisory Board a list of recommendations.
24. Supervisory Board shall convene the Extraordinary General Assembly if it is in the interest of the Company and at the General Assembly will propose necessary measures.
25. Extraordinary General Assembly is convened by way of written invitation. Invitation to an Extraordinary General Assembly has to contain all information as stipulated by general legislation and these Articles.
26. Board of Directors convenes Extraordinary General Assembly so that it takes place at the latest forty (40) days from the day it received request to convene the meeting, pursuant to par. 23, letter b) of this Article. Board of Directors is not entitled to modify the proposed agenda of the General Assembly meeting. Board of Directors is entitled to add to the proposed meeting agenda only with having agreement of person/s, who requested the Extraordinary General Assembly meeting to be held.
27. Shareholder attendance at the meeting is at his / her own costs.
28. Agreements, where the shareholder accepts obligation/s from the Company or any of its bodies or member of such body are null and void:
- a) during voting to follow instructions of the Company or any of its bodies on how to vote,
 - b) to vote for proposals submitted by the Company bodies, or
 - c) to exercise right to vote in a certain manner or abstain from the vote as a counter value for benefits provided by the Company.
29. Official language of the meeting is the Slovak language. The Company shall provide interpreting service between the Slovak and English languages.

Article 8
Supervisory Board
Role and scope of authority

1. Supervisory Board is the supreme supervision authority of the Company. It supervises performance of the Board of Directors and execution of business operations of the Company.
