- 3) an alternative reference rate, including any premium (spread or adjustment spread) determined with respect to the type of Banking Product by the relevant authority or relevant internationally recognised bodies within the relevant financial market industry (e.g. the International Swaps and Derivatives Association (ISDA), the International Capital Markets Association (ICMA), the Loan Market Association (LMA), or any other relevant body or association); or
- 4) an alternative reference rate, including any premium (spread or adjustment spread) determined by the Bank on the basis of a generally approved and accepted financial market practice, such as
 - a per annum (p.a.) rate calculated by the Bank as the arithmetic average (rounded up to four decimal places, if necessary) of the rates reported to the Bank by at least three Reference Banks at which each of the Reference Banks offered deposits in the relevant currency in the relevant interbank market in an amount substantially equal to the Drawdown at the time customary for a similar survey on the Determination Date comparable to the relevant Interest Rate Period (or for the closest period in time), or
 - the rate that the Bank shall notify to the Borrower as soon as reasonably practicable (but in any event not later than the date on which interest for the relevant Interest Period is payable) as a percentage rate per annum representing the Bank's actual cost of refinancing itself from any source reasonably selected by the Bank in connection with the Drawdown;

If the trading period for which the Replacement Reference Rates are determined does not correspond to the Interest Rate Period agreed for the Banking Product, the Bank shall determine what Trading Period is relevant for the determination of the Replacement Reference Rate and shall determine the Replacement Reference Rate with respect to the foregoing.

The Bank shall notify the Borrower of the method of determining the replacement Reference Rate, together with a description of the procedure for determining the replacement Reference Rate in accordance with the foregoing, by Publication.

If the amount of the reference Rate reaches a negative value on the Determination Date, i.e. a value of less than 0% per annum, the Bank shall be entitled to use a Reference Rate value for that Interest Rate Period of 0% per annum for the purpose of determining the resulting Interest Rate. The Bank may at any time unilaterally decide to replace the rule under the preceding sentence with the following rule until further notice: If the sum of the Reference Rate and the agreed margin reaches a negative value on the Determination Date, i.e. a value of less than 0% p.a., the Bank shall, for that Interest Rate Period, bear interest on the Loan at a rate of 0% p.a. - 2.2. The Drawdown Period shall commence on the day of meeting the Conditions Precedent to Drawdown and shall end no later than on expiration of the Drawdown Period under the Loan Agreement; In case of any breach of the Conditions Precedent to Drawdown, the Bank may unilaterally terminate the Drawdown Period; it shall notify the Borrower thereof in writing. Unless the option of repeated Loan drawdown is agreed, the Drawdown Period shall end on the day of drawdown of the entire Loan amount. The Bank shall not be obligated to provide the Loan or to Reserve Funds upon expiration of the Drawdown Period.
- 2.3. The Bank shall provide the Loan or Reserve Funds on the day of meeting the Conditions Precedent to Drawdown at the earliest. If the Conditions Precedent to Drawdown were met after the 10th hour of a Business Day, the Bank may effect the Drawdown only on the next Business Day. The Bank may also allow the Drawdown prior to the day of meeting the Conditions Precedent to Drawdown.
- 2.4. If the Borrower made an early repayment of the Loan not Drawn Down up to the total agreed Loan amount during the Drawdown Period, the Drawdown Period shall end on the day of the early Loan repayment. This shall not apply if the option of repeated Loan drawdown has been agreed.
- 2.5. The Bank shall provide the Loan in the Euro currency, unless otherwise stated in the PsBC or in the Loan Agreement. In the case of Drawdown in a currency other than Euro, the Facility will be reduced by the Euro equivalent, calculated in accordance with the Conversion Rule.
- 2.6. The Bank may provide the funds from the Loan also by crediting an account not held by the Borrower.
- 2.7. If the Bank finances the Borrower's payment to a third party and the Loan is not in the amount of the entire payment, or if more Loans are provided to settle the entire payment, the Bank may, along with the Drawdown Application, also request a payment order from the Borrower to settle the entire payment directly from the Borrower's account. The Bank shall set the Maturity Date for such payment order upon proving of the Loan purpose. No transactions shall be performed with the funds on the Borrower's account in the amount of the payment to be settled until the moment of execution of the payment order. In order to make such payment, the Bank is entitled to debit the Borrower's account without submitting a payment order under the Payment Services Act, in accordance with the terms and conditions specified by the Borrower on the basis of the Drawdown Request.
- 2.8. The total amount of the Drawdowns shall not exceed the Facility. The excess amount shall be deemed an unauthorised overdraft. Such unauthorised overdraft shall be payable immediately.

Instalment Loan

- 2.9. The Bank shall provide the Instalment Loan on the basis of the Drawdown Application, in the form of a cashless transaction crediting the account under the Loan Agreement. Subject to meeting the Conditions Precedent to Drawdown, the Bank may also provide the Instalment Loan without the Drawdown Application.
- 2.10. The Instalment Loan may be provided as a one-off payment or in Tranches. If the Instalment Loan is provided in Tranches, the last Tranche amount shall not exceed the amount of the outstanding portion of the Instalment Loan.
- 2.11. The Instalment Loan shall be deemed provided on the date of debiting the Bank's account and crediting the account under the Loan Agreement.
- 2.12. The Borrower shall not be entitled to repeated provision of the repaid portion of the Instalment Loan.

Overdraft Facility

- 2.13. Subject to meeting the Conditions Precedent to Drawdown, the Bank may also provide the Overdraft Facility without the Drawdown Application. The Overdraft Facility shall be provided by executing a payment transaction from the Borrower's account associated with the Overdraft Facility up to the amount agreed in the Loan Agreement. The Bank shall not execute any payment transaction that would result in exceeding the Overdraft Facility amount.
- 2.14. The Borrower shall be entitled to repeated provision of the repaid portion of the Overdraft Facility until expiration of the Overdraft Facility Drawdown Period.
- 2.15. The Bank may unilaterally increase or decrease the Overdraft Facility amount or discontinue the provision of the Overdraft Facility depending on the Borrower's financial conduct, change in the risk degree of the Loan Relationship or on grounds permitting amendments to the PsBC.
- 2.16. If the Bank may change the Overdraft Facility amount under the Loan Agreement depending on the current value of pledged assets (borrowing base), the Bank shall, upon expiration of the observed period stipulated in the Loan Agreement, determine the current value of the pledged assets; the conditions for including the assets in the pledged assets shall be stipulated by the Bank. If the pledged assets don't achieve the required value, not even on the fourth Business Day following receipt of the call for supplementation of the same, the Bank may reduce the Overdraft Facility. The Bank may repeatedly increase the Overdraft Facility upon supplementation of the value of pledged assets. The Bank shall inform the Borrower by notice of the change in the Overdraft Facility amount.
- 2.17. If the Overdraft Facility revolves on the maturity date under the Loan Agreement, the Bank's Receivable from the Overdraft Facility or its portion shall be repaid by the new Overdraft Facility due 1 year from revolving. The Borrower shall not have any legal claim to revolving of the Overdraft Facility.
- 2.18. If the Overdraft Facility is not repaid on the maturity date, the Bank's Receivable shall bear interest on the unauthorised overdraft.

Term Loan

- 2.19. The Bank shall provide the Term Loan on the basis of the Drawdown Application, as a cashless transaction by crediting the Borrower's account under the Loan Agreement. Subject to meeting the Conditions Precedent to Drawdown, the Bank may also provide the Term Loan without the Drawdown Application. The Borrower may apply for the Term Loan in the maximum amount of the outstanding portion of the Term Loan Facility.
- 2.20. The Term Loan may only be provided as a one-off payment.
- 2.21. The Term Loan shall be deemed provided on the day of debiting the Bank's account and crediting the Borrower's account accordingly.
- 2.22. The Borrower shall be entitled to repeated provision of the repaid portion of the Term Loan Facility until the expiration Drawdown Period in respect of the Term Loan Facility.

Refinancing Loan

- 2.23. If the Borrower does not have funds on their account to repay:
 - a) the Receivable under a Letter of Credit, the Bank shall provide a Refinancing Loan from the Reserved Funds from the L/C Facility to repay the Receivable under a Letter of Credit;
 - b) the Receivable under the Guarantee, the Bank shall provide a Refinancing Loan from the Reserved Funds from the Guarantee Facility to repay the Receivable under the Guarantee; or
 - c) the loss on the Treasury Deal, the Bank may provide a Refinancing Loan from the Reserved Funds from the Treasury Facility to repay the loss on the Treasury Deal.
- 2.24. The Bank shall provide the Refinancing Loan by effecting a one-off payment to repay the due amount, without submission of the Drawdown Application. The Refinancing Loan shall be provided in the currency of the due amount.

- 2.25. If the Bank settled the due amount by debiting the Borrower's Account into unauthorised overdraft, the Bank may provide the Refinancing Loan directly to the Borrower's Account, up to the amount of the Receivable under a Letter of Credit or Receivable under a Guarantee or loss on a Treasury Deal.

3. LOAN PURPOSE

- 3.1. The Borrower may only use the Loan for an agreed purpose.
- 3.2. Unless otherwise agreed in the Loan Agreement, the Borrower shall deliver the documents proving compliance with the Loan purpose to the Bank no later than on the Drawdown Application submission date, including, but not limited to, the following documents:
- Advance invoice, invoice (tax document) issued by a contractor or subcontractor as per the Loan purpose;
 - Receipt from the electronic cash register issued by a contractor or subcontractor evidencing the payment for the goods or service;
 - Purchase agreement, substitution agreement, real estate title transfer agreement, work agreement;
 - Extract from the title deed acceptable for legal acts required to be executed in connection with the real estate, in which the Borrower is stated as the real estate owner;
 - Document proving the settlement of a liability, if the purpose of the Loan is to settle another liability of the Borrower; or
 - Any other document required by the Bank to prove the Loan purpose;
- submitted individually, or any of them, or all of them simultaneously, however, always depending on the Loan purpose agreed in the Loan Agreement.

4. LOAN INTEREST

Common Provisions for Loan Interest

- 4.1. The Bank shall apply the Interest Rate to the principal, which Interest Rate is of the type and value current as of the execution date of the Loan Agreement and is stated in the Loan Agreement.
- 4.2. Interest shall be calculated on a daily basis. The Interest for the respective Interest Period shall be due on the next day after expiration of the Interest Period, unless provided otherwise. The Bank shall calculate the Interest on the basis of the current number of days in the calendar year / 360.
- 4.3. The duration of the Interest Period and of the Interest Rate Period are agreed in the Loan Agreement.
- 4.4. If the Borrower is in arrears with repayment of the Bank's Receivable, they shall pay interest on arrears on the due amount to the Bank; The Bank may choose not to apply any interest on arrears. The due amount shall bear interest on arrears each day from the first day of arrears to the day immediately preceding its repayment date. The Interest Rate agreed to be applied to the principal shall be used to determine the amount of the interest on arrears.
- 4.5. The interest rate on arrears shall be 10% over the Interest Rate p. a.
- 4.6. The interest on arrears shall be due on a daily basis. The Bank may clear the interest on arrears on a daily basis or on the maturity date for regular interest.
- 4.7. The Bank may unilaterally change the amount of the Interest Rate, the rate for calculation of the interest on arrears, the interest base, the due date for interest, interest on arrears, as well as the manner of their repayment, on the grounds of a change in the Borrower's financial conduct, change in the risk degree of the Loan Relationship and on grounds permitting amendments to the PsBC. The Bank shall inform the Borrower of the change by Publication.
- 4.8. If the Borrower gets into unauthorised overdraft of the Loan or of the Facility, the Bank shall apply interest to the amount of the unauthorised overdraft equal to the amount of the interest on arrears.

Instalment Loan

- 4.9. The following shall apply for the duration of the Interest Period and Interest Rate Period:
- The first period shall commence on the day of the first provision of the Instalment Loan, and each subsequent period shall commence on the next day after expiration of the preceding period;
 - Each period shall last for the agreed number of months, unless provided otherwise;
 - If the rule for Loan Receivable maturity also on a day not being a Business Day is agreed in the Loan Agreement, and, under the Loan Agreement, the period is calculated on the basis of
 - calendar months, each period shall expire on the day preceding the last day in the respective calendar month, or
 - regular months, each period shall expire on the day preceding the day, the number of which corresponds to the instalment date, or, if provided so in the Loan Agreement, on the day of first provision of the Instalment Loan; if there is no such date in the month, the period shall expire on the last calendar day of such month.

If the manner of calculation of months is not stipulated in the Loan Agreement, the Interest Rate Period shall expire on the last day of the calendar month.

- d) If the rule for Loan Receivable maturity exclusively on a day being a Business Day is agreed in the Loan Agreement, and, under the Loan Agreement, the period is calculated on the basis of
 - da) calendar months, each period shall expire on the day preceding the last Business Day in the respective calendar month, or
 - db) regular months, each period shall expire on the day preceding the Business Day, the number of which corresponds to the instalment date. If the day, the number of which corresponds to the instalment date is not a Business Day, then the period shall expire on the day preceding the next Business Day. If there is no day, the number of which corresponds to the instalment date in the month, or if such day is not a Business Day, and the next Business Day is already a day of the following calendar month, such period shall be shortened and shall expire on the immediately preceding Business Day.
- e) the last Interest Rate Period stipulated exclusively during the Drawdown Period shall expire on the last day of the Drawdown Period, if the instalments under the Instalment Loan are due at the end of the calendar month, otherwise on the day preceding the last day of the Drawdown Period; and
- f) the last period shall expire on the day preceding the principal repayment date.

Overdraft Facility

- 4.10. Interest on the Overdraft Facility shall be due on the last day of the Interest Period.
- 4.11. The first Interest Period shall commence on the day of first provision of the Overdraft Facility and shall expire on the last day of that calendar month. The following Interest Periods shall commence after expiration of the preceding Interest Period and shall last for the agreed number of months. The Interest Periods shall expire on the last day in the respective calendar month. The last Interest Period shall expire on the day preceding the final maturity date of the Overdraft Facility.
- 4.12. If there is any change to the contractual relation whereunder the Bank maintains the Borrower's account for the Overdraft Facility, the current Interest Period shall expire on the effective date of such change. The next Interest Period shall commence on the next day after expiration of the preceding Interest Period and shall expire on the last day in the respective calendar month.
- 4.13. The Interest, the Bank's costs and Fees associated with the Overdraft Facility shall be credited to the principal as of their due date and shall become its part.

Term Loan

- 4.14. There is a separate Interest Period and Interest Rate Period stipulated for each Term Loan. They shall commence on the day of provision of the Term Loan and shall expire on the day preceding the final maturity date for the Term Loan, no later than on the day preceding the final maturity date of the Term Loan Facility.
- 4.15. In case of a variable Interest Rate, the Bank shall stipulate the Reference Rate in a currency and for a period fixed by the Bank to match the Term Loan. If the period for which the Term Loan was provided does not match the Reference Rate fixation period stipulated by the Bank, the Bank shall stipulate the rate as the Reference Rate, which is the higher one of the two Reference Rates (its period matching the Term Loan term as close as possible).

Refinancing Loan

- 4.16. The provisions governing the stipulation of the interest period and of the Interest Rate Period for the Instalment Loan shall also be applied to the Refinancing Loan.

5. LOAN REPAYMENT

Common Provisions for Loan Repayment

- 5.1. The Borrower shall repay the Bank's Receivable:
 - a) in cash or via cashless transfer of funds;
 - b) by offsetting the mutual receivables by the Bank; or
 - c) by debiting funds to the Repayment Account also without submission of a payment order pursuant to the Payment Services Act, during the term of the Loan Relationship. The Bank shall debit the funds in the amount of the due Bank's Receivable on its maturity date. If it is not possible to apply the debit to the Repayment Account, the Bank may debit the funds to any account of the Borrower maintained with the Bank.

The Bank may unilaterally change the agreed repayment method on grounds permitting amendments hereto. The Bank shall inform the Borrower of the change by Notice.

- 5.2. In repaying the Bank's Receivable, the Borrower's liabilities shall be settled in the following order of sequence:
- a) The Bank's costs under the Loan Agreement ranking from the one due at the earliest;
 - b) Fees ranking from the one due at the earliest;
 - c) Interest on arrears ranking from the one due at the earliest;
 - d) Interest ranking from the one due at the earliest;
 - e) Principal; and
 - f) Other due amounts under the Loan Agreement.
- 5.3. If the Bank holds outstanding receivables from the Borrower also under other Agreements, such receivables shall be repaid by debiting funds as stated above in this article, ranking as set by the Bank.
- 5.4. The following shall apply to the repayment of the Bank's Receivable:
- a) The Borrower shall ensure enough funds on the Repayment Account to ensure timely debiting of the funds. If the Repayment Account is maintained in a different currency than the currency of settlement of the Bank's Receivable, the Borrower shall ensure sufficient funds on such account no later than two Business Days prior to the maturity date of the Bank's Receivable;
 - b) The due amount shall be deemed paid in time, if credited to the Bank's Account on its maturity date;
 - c) the Bank's Receivable cannot be paid by a bill of exchange or by cheque;
 - d) The Borrower shall repay the due Fees by the Drawdown date. Upon Drawdown, the Borrower shall also repay the principal and the Interest and Related Expenses; If the Interest Period expires prior to maturity of the first instalment for annuity repayment, the Interest shall be payable separately, on the next day after expiration of the Interest Period;
 - e) The Borrower shall repay the Interest and the principal in the currency, in which the Loan was provided;
 - f) The Fee shall be paid in the currency of the Loan, to which the Fee relates;
 - g) The Bank's costs shall be paid in the currency, in which they were expended;
 - h) If the Drawdown was provided in a foreign currency, the Bank may convert the Loan Receivable to the Euro currency on its maturity date in accordance with the Conversion Rule. The risks associated with the Drawdown in a foreign currency (in particular exchange rate risks) shall be borne by the Borrower;
 - i) If the rule for Loan Receivable maturity also on a day not being a Business Day is agreed in the Loan Agreement, it shall hold true that if the Bank's Receivable maturity date falls on a day not being a Business Day, such day shall be deemed its maturity date;
 - j) If the rule for Loan Receivable maturity exclusively on a day being a Business Day is agreed in the Loan Agreement, and unless provided otherwise in the PsBC, it shall hold true that if the Loan Receivable maturity falls on a day not being a Business Day, the Loan Receivable shall be due on the next Business Day; this shall not hold true if the next Business Day is already a day of the following calendar month, when the Loan Receivable maturity period shall be shortened, and the Loan Receivable shall become due and payable on the immediately preceding Business Day;
 - k) The Loan Receivable incurred under a Loan provided under a Facility shall be due on the final repayment date agreed in the Loan Agreement, but if such date would occur after the final repayment date of the Facility, it shall be due and payable no later than on the Facility Final Maturity Date, i.e. any Loan provided under the Facility shall be due no later than on the Facility Final Maturity Date, also if the maturity was not agreed in the Loan Agreement or if the maturity shall be determined by the Bank on request. If a period is defined for Loan maturity under the Loan Agreement, such period shall always end no later than on the Facility Final Maturity Date.
 - l) If the Borrower paid more than the Bank's Receivable on the Loan maturity date, the Bank shall return the surplus to the account from which the payment was made;
 - m) The Bank shall keep the instalments paid prior to the Loan maturity date on its record as a surplus amount to be used for Loan repayment on the instalment maturity date or on the Loan maturity date. The Bank shall not notify the Borrower of the surplus amount. The Bank shall not apply any interest to the surplus amount;
 - n) The Bank shall not be obligated to accept any payment not designated by an agreed variable symbol; the incurred costs shall be borne by the Borrower; and
 - o) The Bank shall decide on early repayment of the Loan Receivable on the basis of the Borrower's application. Early repayment shall be subject to conditions set by the Bank (in particular payment of the Fee any payment of refinancing costs, i.e. funds by which the costs of refinancing of early repaid instalments exceed the income from repeated placement of early repaid instalments in the period from their repayment to their original maturity date (breakage costs)). Unless the Bank's Receivable is repaid duly and on time, the Guarantor may also submit the early repayment application with regard to the Bank's Receivable on the Borrower's behalf.

Instalment Loan

- 5.5. The Borrower shall repay the Loan Receivable under the Instalment Loan in agreed instalments.
- 5.6. The last instalment shall be in the amount of the Loan Receivable balance.
- 5.7. If the first Drawdown under the Instalment Loan only occurred after expiration of the agreed maturity of the first scheduled principal instalment or of several initial scheduled principal instalments as per the Schedule of Instalments constituting an annex to the Loan Agreement, or unless the amount of Drawdown under the Instalment Loan achieves the amount of principal instalments at the time of scheduled maturity of the principal instalments, the Bank may unilaterally amend the Schedule of Instalments by recalculating the applicable instalment amounts and stipulating new maturities for the same. The Bank shall notify the Borrower of any amendment to the Schedule of Instalments via notice.
- 5.8. If the Borrower did not draw the full amount of the Instalment Loan or repaid a portion of the Instalment Loan early, the Bank shall reduce the Instalment Loan repayment period, and the undrawn or early repaid amount shall always be deducted from the most recent instalments. On the Borrower's request, the Bank may allow an even reduction in the instalments so as to maintain the Instalment Loan repayment period. It shall in turn notify the Borrower of the instalment amount.
- 5.9. If the Borrower pays the principal and Interest in a single instalment, i.e. in annuity repayment, the Instalment Loan repayment period shall be maintained and the Bank shall re-calculate the annuity instalment amount in case of any Interest Rate change and in case of any extraordinary instalment.

Overdraft Facility

- 5.10. The Loan Receivable from the Overdraft Facility shall be repaid on an ongoing basis from payments credited to the Borrower's account by its offsetting against the Borrower's receivable from the Borrower's account, on which the Overdraft Facility is provided. Repayment shall be effected on the day of origination of the Borrower's receivable in a scope in which these receivables match. Such manner of repayment shall not be applied, if the account via which the Overdraft Facility is provided is subject to enforcement of a decision or to a distress enforcement, within the scope of the Borrower's receivable from the account up to the amount of payments credited to such account, which the Bank shall block or use for making payments in favour of the decision or distress enforcement.
- 5.11. The Bank may also permit another manner of Loan Receivable repayment to the Borrower under the Overdraft Facility.
- 5.12. By providing a new Overdraft Facility as of the final maturity date of the existing Overdraft Facility, the existing Overdraft Facility is repaid by the new Overdraft Facility, i.e. it revolves.
- 5.13. If the Overdraft Facility final maturity date falls on a different day than on the last day of the calendar month, the Bank may clear the principal on the Overdraft Facility maturity date. The Interest and Related Expenses and the Fees may be cleared on the last day of that calendar month; the above shall be without prejudice to the fact that the Receivable under the Overdraft Facility shall be due and payable in full on the Overdraft Facility maturity date. Unless there is sufficient balance available on the account via which the Overdraft Facility is provided to repay the Overdraft Facility, the outstanding amount shall be deemed an unauthorised overdraft on the day following after the Overdraft Facility final maturity date. The Interest and Related Expenses on the Overdraft Facility, the Fees and interest on the unauthorised overdraft shall be debited by the Bank to the Repayment Account also to the unauthorised overdraft. The Borrower shall repay any unauthorised overdraft immediately.

Term Loan

- 5.14. The Borrower shall propose the Term Loan maturity date in the Drawdown Application. The Term Loan Maturity Date shall be agreed by accepting the Drawdown Application. If the Bank does not accept the Term Loan maturity date proposed by the Borrower, or if the Borrower does not propose the same, the Bank shall stipulate the Term Loan maturity date according to the agreed Reference Rate fixation period for the Term Loan.

6. OTHER OBLIGATIONS OF THE BORROWER

Notification Obligations

- 6.1. The Borrower shall notify the Bank:
 - a) of the fact that an Event of Default occurred or is imminent, such notification to be made without delay from the moment the Borrower learned about such event;

- b) of any Status Change, at least 30 days prior to the date of decision on the Status Change, if possible, otherwise without delay, from the moment when the Borrower learned about the Status Change;
- c) of the identification of the persons/entities belonging to the Borrower's Group and of their mutual legal and economic relations, such notification to be made as of the day of execution of the Finance Document and then always without delay upon each change;
- d) of any other facts specified by the Bank required in particular for the assessment or verification of the Borrower's legal and economic position by the Bank, within a period set by the Bank; and
- e) of the fact that there had been a change in the Borrower's registration in the Register of Public Sector partners, if the Borrower has the obligation to be registered with this Register pursuant to the statutory regulations due to the Borrower's line of business, such notification to be made without any delay after the Borrower learns about such fact; and
- f) if the Borrower is an administrative entity or another public corporation, of the approved annual budget and of the report of meeting the same, within 30 days from the end of each calendar year and of prepared or effected changes in particular in the budget for the respective year.

Documentary Obligations

6.2. The Borrower shall submit to the Bank:

- a) Copies of the tax return including annexes and including the confirmation of receipt by the Tax Office, always within 3 months of the end of the business year or within 6 months of the end of the business year, if the Borrower applied for a prolongation of this period with the Bank due to having filed an application for prolongation of the tax return submission deadline,
- b) if the Borrower has a statutory duty of consolidation of financial performance figures of affiliated entities or the duty of verification of financial performance figures by an auditor:
 - ca) Consolidated financial performance figures; and
 - cb) Copies of audited financial statements along with the auditor's report on verification of the financial performance figures achieved in the business year, including the profit distribution decision, drafted in accordance with Slovakian Accounting Standards SAS, IFRS or US GAAP); within 6 months from the end of each business year;
- c) Annual financial statements, always within 3 months of the end of the business year;
- d) Annual reports, if the Borrower has a statutory duty to draw them up, always within 3 months of the end of the business year;
- e) Interim financial statements in the standardised form of SAS, IFRS or US GAAP for the period from the beginning of the business year to the end of the respective quarter, within 30 calendar days from the end of each calendar quarter;
- f) In the situation that the Borrower is a municipality, city, higher territorial unit, or a legal entity that has the status of a municipality or city under the law, the previous provisions of this section shall not apply, and the Borrower is obliged to submit to the Bank:
 - fa) accounting statements in electronic form in accordance with the measure of the Ministry of Finance of the Slovak Republic (MFSR), which establishes the scope, method, and deadlines for submitting data for the assessment of public budget fulfillment annually within 40 days after the end of the respective calendar year, and
 - fb) the final account and auditor's report no later than 30 days after its approval, but no later than July 31 of each calendar year, and
 - fc) the budget for the following year by December 31; if the budget for the following year has not been approved by December 31 at the latest, the Borrower undertakes to immediately inform the Bank in writing of this fact. In such a case, the Borrower undertakes to temporarily manage in the regime of budgetary provisionality in accordance with legal regulations, while during the period of budgetary provisionality, the Borrower is obliged to ensure the fulfillment of all obligations arising from the Loan Agreement.
- g) Documents proving the Status Change, without delay upon executing the same;
- h) Documents that the Borrower is required under the law or under a decision of a competent authority to submit to the shareholders, members or holders of shares, bonds, mutual fund certificates or temporary certificates, and which the Borrower is obligated to disclose, no later than within 5 calendar days after the Borrower was obligated to disclose the same; and
- i) Confirmation of compliance of the facts with the financial ratios under the Loan Agreement, always within 30 calendar days from the delivery of the financial statements to the Bank.

In the Conditions set forth by Publication, the Bank shall set forth the conditions for submission and processing of the aforementioned documents and shall stipulate with regard to the Borrower's characteristics in which cases the Borrower shall submit such documents solely on the Bank's request.

The Bank shall prefer document submissions via the Business24 electronic service.

If the Borrower submits any documents to be submitted to the Bank solely on the Bank's request under the conditions set forth by Publication, where the Bank did not issue any such request, or if the Borrower submits any documents to the Bank in a manner not allowing their automated processing within the meaning of the conditions set forth by Publication, the Bank may charge a specific Fee to the Borrower.

Financial Obligations

6.3. The Borrower is obliged to:

- a) fulfill the financial indicators according to the Loan Agreement. When evaluating the financial indicators, the Bank calculates their values based on the available or submitted financial (accounting) documents of the Borrower for the monitored period. Unless otherwise agreed in the Loan Agreement, the monitored period is one calendar year.
- b) calculate and evaluate the financial indicators at the Bank's request. Together with the calculated values of the financial indicators, the Borrower also submits the documents on the basis of which these financial indicators were calculated. The Bank evaluates the correctness of the calculation of the financial indicators and their fulfillment.

If there is a change in the numbers of lines, their definitions, or scope in the accounting statements, the changed parameter shall be replaced for the purposes of calculating the financial indicators so that the substantive nature of this Obligation is preserved.

General Positive Obligations

6.4. The Borrower shall:

- a) repay the Loan Receivable;
- b) ensure that the Borrower's unsecured payment obligations under the Finance Document have at least the same ranking as the ranking of other unsecured, unsubordinated and non-contingent financial obligations of the Borrower, except for the obligations settled preferentially under the law (pari passu);
- c) ensure that the agreed payments are credited to the Special Account;
- d) during the term of the Loan Relationship, which primarily involves the provision of an Overdraft Facility, Authorized Overdraft, Loan for the purpose of operational financing of the Borrower, or Loan whose conditions and amount are determined based on the Borrower's turnover, the Borrower is obliged to ensure that the Bank can evaluate the amount of the Borrower's turnover at any time. The Borrower can demonstrate compliance with this obligation by conducting their payment transactions through the Borrower's accounts maintained at the Bank, to the extent of the Borrower's payment transactions agreed in the Loan Agreement, otherwise to the full extent of the Borrower's payment transactions,
- e) make an effort, that the following not be effected without the Bank's prior consent:
 - ea) any change in the Borrower's ownership structure in a line up to the beneficial owner;
 - eb) any profit distribution or disbursement to the Borrower's shareholders;
 - ec) any disbursement of funds from equity (e.g. from capital funds, funds created from profit, reserve funds, prior years' profit, post-tax profit for the accounting period); and
 - ed) establishment and origination of a pledge over the ownership interest (shares) of shareholders in the Borrower's limited liability company (joint-stock company);
- f) ensure the establishment and duration of the Security, if the Bank's receivable shall be secured pursuant to the Finance Documents;
- g) prove the investment of own funds;
- h) refrain from any action that could or would result in an Event of Default;
- i) submit to the Bank documents and information required under the Finance Documents in the form and with content accepted by the Bank; and
- j) be duly registered as a public sector partner during the Loan Relationship, if the Borrower has this obligation under statutory regulations with regard to its line of business; and
- k) in relation to the insurance of assets and insurance of the subject-matter of the Security,
 - ka) The Borrower shall maintain a valid insurance policy during the Loan Relationship in the amount, in a manner and with an insurance provider accepted by the Bank, and shall prove such facts and any change to the same to the Bank without delay via submission of complete documentation;

- kb) The Borrower may only terminate the insurance policy or effect any change to the same subject to the Bank's prior consent;
- kc) The Borrower shall notify the Bank of any insured event; if the Borrower receives any insurance benefit, the Borrower shall restore the damaged item to a condition prior to the insured event;
- kd) The Borrower shall pay the insurance premium and prove the insurance premium payment to the Bank no later than within 30 calendar days from the day when the insurance premium under the insurance policy should have been paid;
- ke) The Borrower agrees with the Bank's right to pay the insurance premium receivable to the insurance provider, unless paid by the Borrower, provided that the Bank's costs expended for insurance premium payment shall become a part of the Interest and Related Expenses. The Bank shall not accept underinsurance nor insurance where the maximum amount of the claim for all claims for the agreed insurance period is set lower than the actual value of the insured property; and
- kf) the insurance of the Borrower's assets or of the subject-matter of Security may also be concluded by the Bank.
- l) if, during the existence of the Loan Relationship, a loan or credit or other financial assistance is granted to the Borrower by a third party with the consent of the Bank, the Borrower shall be obliged, at the request of the Bank, to enter into an Agreement on the superiority of the Borrower's obligation to the Bank under the Loan Agreement over the Borrower's obligation under the loan or credit so granted, and
- m) after the acquisition, purchase, approval, or reconstruction of an item or property right financed entirely or partially from the Loan funds, the Borrower is obliged to include this property or technical appreciation in the Borrower's accounting in accordance with applicable legal regulations.

General Negative Obligations

- 6.5. Without the Bank's prior written consent to be contingent upon meeting of conditions (e.g. upon provision of additional Security), the Borrower:
- a) shall not establish or shall not permit to establish a Third-Party Right over the Borrower's current or future assets (negative pledge);
 - b) shall not provide any funds to any third party in the form of a loan, borrowing or in any other manner;
 - c) shall not make available for use or sell any part of their assets;
 - d) shall not perform any act resulting in any reduction in their assets, including forgiving a third party's debt or its part;
 - e) shall refrain from any act aimed at its transformation or change of its legal form;
 - f) shall not cause any origination of Financial Indebtedness, except for the Financial Indebtedness under the Finance Documents;
 - g) shall not make capital purchases (procurement of fixed assets); and
 - h) shall not pay out profit shares, dividends, or interest related to the acceptance of a loan, borrowing, or any other form of repayable financial assistance; the Borrower shall ensure that the amount of capital funds and liabilities to shareholders does not fall below the value stated in the Borrower's financial statements, which were attached to the last published income tax return of the Borrower before the date of conclusion of the Loan Agreement.

Review

- 6.6. The Borrower shall, at a time stipulated by the Bank:
- a) suffer the performance of a Review in a manner stipulated by the Bank; if the purpose of the Review is to verify the value of the subject of Security, the Borrower shall submit a sworn expert report evidencing the current value of the subject of Security within a period stipulated by the Bank,
 - b) provide the required assistance (especially enable access into their premises and enable taking of photos, provide the required documents and information, issue the required powers of attorney);
 - c) perform the redress measure imposed by the Bank; the redress measure shall also refer to the provision of additional Security.

Common

- 6.7. It is solely at the Bank's discretion whether and when the Bank will monitor or evaluate the fulfillment of a specific Obligation of the Borrower, regardless of whether this Obligation of the Borrower was agreed upon for a specific Loan Relationship in the Loan Agreement or arises from the PsBC or GBC.
- 6.8. The provisions of this Article shall also apply accordingly to the Applicant.

7. SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR LETTERS OF CREDIT

- 7.1. The Bank shall open the Letter of Credit on the basis an Order for Issuance of L/C subject to meeting of conditions agreed in the L/C Agreement.
- 7.2. The Bank will not open the Letter of Credit, if
- a) the conditions for opening the Letter of Credit required by the Applicant are unacceptable for the Bank (unless agreed in the Agreement), e.g.
 - the Beneficiary for the benefit of whom the Letter of Credit shall be opened,
 - the governing law for the Letter of Credit,
 - the contract to be paid via the Letter of Credit or the person to whom the Letter of Credit is to be paid,
 - the validity term of the Letter of Credit,
 - b) an Event of Default has occurred; or
 - c) the opening of the Letter of Credit is contrary to statutory regulations.

To avoid any and all doubts, this provision shall apply also where the L/C Facility is not provided under the Uncommitted Part of Facility.

- 7.3. Where, under the L/C Agreement, a L/C Facility is provided to the Applicant up to the undrawn portion of the Facility designated jointly also for other Drawdown Manners under the Facility, then the Applicant is not lawfully entitled to have a L/C opened and the Bank shall always have the right to refuse to open a L/C, including where the L/C Facility is not provided Under the Uncommitted Part of Facility.
- 7.4. The Bank shall not be obliged to justify its refusal to open a Letter of Credit.
- 7.5. The Letter of Credit shall be governed by the Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits, revised edition of 2007, publication no. 600 of the ICC in Paris. Unless provided otherwise in the Letter of Credit, the Letter of Credit shall be irrevocable.
- 7.6. On the day of payment under the Letter of Credit the Bank shall have a Receivable from the Applicant under the Letter of Credit, which shall be due immediately.
- 7.7. The Applicant shall repay the Receivable under the Letter of Credit:
- a) by debiting funds to the Repayment Account also without submission of a payment order pursuant to the Payment Services Act, during the term of the L/C Agreement. If it is not possible to apply the debit to the Repayment Account, the Bank may debit the funds to any account of the Applicant maintained with the Bank; or
 - b) in cash or via cashless transfer.
- 7.8. Unless the conditions set forth in the Letter of Credit are met duly or in time, the Bank may provide the payment to the Beneficiary subject to the Applicant's written consent.
- 7.9. The maturity period of the Letter of Credit shall commence on the day when the documents are submitted to the Bank or on the day when another event stated in the Letter of Credit occurs.
- 7.10. The Bank sets the maturity period of the Letter of Credit at arm's length according to the type of the Letter of Credit, provided that it shall apply that the maturity period:
- a) for the Letter of Credit „at sight“ shall be no later than 2 weeks, if the documents shall be submitted in the Slovak Republic, and no later than 1 month, if the documents shall be submitted abroad; and
 - b) for the Letter of Credit „with deferred maturity“, the maturity period shall be extended by the deferred maturity period set forth in the Letter of Credit.
- The Bank may stipulate in special cases that the Letter of Credit maturity period shall be extended by an additional justified period.
- 7.11. If the Bank, acting on the Applicant's instruction, opens a L/C governed by a law other than the Slovak law, the Applicant hereby give the Bank promise under Section 725 of the Commercial Code to compensate the Bank for any and all damages caused to the Bank in association with such L/C, including any and all costs the Bank would have to incur as a result of implementing measures in order to avoid or alleviate, or to restrict to the minimum possible degree such damage, all this within seven (7) days of the date the Bank serves on the Applicant the request to perform.

8. SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR GUARANTEES

Manner of and Conditions for Issuing a Guarantee

- 8.1. The Bank shall issue the Guarantee on the basis of the Guarantee Application subject to meeting of conditions agreed in the Guarantee Agreement to secure the obligations of the Applicant or of a third party stipulated by the Applicant.
- 8.2. On the basis of the Guarantee Application, the Bank:
- a) shall issue the Guarantee in its own name in favour of the Beneficiary (“direct guarantee”); or

b) shall issue the Guarantee in its own name in favour of the Correspondent Bank ("counter-guarantee") and it authorises the Correspondent Bank at the same time to issue the guarantee in favour of the Beneficiary itself or via another bank.

8.3. The Bank will not issue the Guarantee, if:

- a) the conditions for issuing the Guarantee required by the Applicant are not acceptable to the Bank (unless agreed in the Agreement), e.g.
 - the Beneficiary for the benefit of whom the Guarantee is to be issued,
 - the governing law for the Guarantee,
 - the contract to be secured by the Guarantee or the person whose obligations are to be secured by the Guarantee,
 - the validity term of the Guarantee,
- b) an Event of Default occurred; or
- c) if issuing of the Guarantee is contrary to statutory regulations.

To avoid any and all doubts, this provision shall apply also where the Guarantee Facility is not provided under the Uncommitted Part of Facility.

8.4. Where, under the Guarantee Agreement, a Guarantee Facility is provided to the Applicant up to the undrawn portion of the Facility designated jointly also for other Drawdown Manners under the Facility, then the Applicant does not have any lawful right to have issued a Guarantee and the Bank shall always have the right to refuse to issue a Guarantee, including where the Guarantee Facility is not provided Under the Uncommitted Part of Facility

8.5. The Bank is not required to give reasons for refusing to issue a Guarantee.

8.6. Unless provided otherwise in the Guarantee Deed, the Guarantee shall be irrevocable. If the Bank refers to the Uniform Rules for Demand Guarantees in the Guarantee Deed, the Guarantee shall be deemed irrevocable.

8.7. The Bank may require the Applicant's consent with the Guarantee wording.

8.8. The Applicant authorises the Bank to authorise the Correspondent Bank as its own discretion to take over, confirm or announce the Guarantee. The Applicant is aware and agrees that in case of a counter-guarantee of the Correspondent Bank, or in case of the Bank's declaration towards the Correspondent Bank, such form and manner be used as required by the Correspondent Bank.

8.9. The Bank's obligation to make payments under the Guarantee shall be decreased by each amount disbursed to the Beneficiary.

8.10. Rights under the Guarantee may not be assigned, unless provided otherwise in the Guarantee.

Payments under the Guarantee

8.11. The Bank shall make payments to the Beneficiary under the Guarantee on the basis of their call delivered to the Bank within a period set forth in the Guarantee and accompanied by any and all required supporting documents.

8.12. Unless the Applicant states the conditions for claiming under the Guarantee, the Bank shall not require the Beneficiary to submit any documents or to meet any conditions when making any claim under the Guarantee.

8.13. The Bank shall provide the performance under the Guarantee exclusively as monetary performance, also in the case that the obligation that the Bank guarantees does not have the nature of a monetary obligation. The Bank shall satisfy the Beneficiary with an amount to which the Beneficiary would be entitled from the Applicant or from a third party stipulated by the Applicant in case of violation of the obligation secured by the Guarantee, however, no more than up to the Guarantee Amount.

8.14. The Bank may make payments under the Guarantee also without prior notice to the Applicant that the Beneficiary requested a payment under the Guarantee.

8.15. The Bank shall provide to the Applicant, on their request, originals of documents that it obtained in connection with making payments under the Guarantee. If the Bank needs these documents to protect its rights and to make payments under the Guarantee, it shall only provide these documents for inspection.

8.16. On the day of payment under the Guarantee the Bank shall have a Receivable from the Applicant under the Guarantee, which shall be due immediately.

8.17. The Bank shall not be liable for any damage incurred by the Applicant as a result of any payment under the Guarantee, if the Beneficiary was not entitled to such payment from the Applicant.

8.18. The Applicant shall repay the Receivable under the Guarantee:

- a) by making a payment from the provided Advance Payment;
- b) by debiting funds to the Applicant's Account also without submission of a payment order pursuant to the Payment Services Act, during the term of the Guarantee Agreement. If it is not possible to apply the debit to the Repayment Account, the Bank may debit the funds to any account of the Applicant maintained with the Bank; or

- c) in cash or via cashless transfer.

Duration of the Guarantee

- 8.19. The Guarantee shall be valid and effective as of the date of its issue, unless provided otherwise in the Guarantee. The Guarantee shall be issued as of the moment of its hand-over by the Bank as per the Applicant's instruction stated in the Guarantee. If the Beneficiary shall confirm their acceptance of the Guarantee within a certain period on the Applicant's request, the Guarantee shall be issued on the day designated as the acceptance date by the Beneficiary in the confirmation.
- 8.20. The validity of the Guarantee shall expire on the day set forth in the Guarantee.
- 8.21. The Beneficiary shall notify the Bank of any claims under the Guarantee within its validity period, otherwise the Beneficiary's claims shall forfeit. This shall not apply to the case of a customs guarantee.

Special Rights and Duties under the Guarantee Agreement

- 8.22. If an Event of Default occurs, the Bank may require the following from the Applicant:
- a) Payment of a contractual fine in the amount of 10% of the Guarantee Amount; and
 - b) Payment of the Advance Payment; if the Bank did not make any payment or made a partial payment under the Guarantee, it shall refund the Advance Payment or its remaining part to the Applicant to the Applicant's account without delay on expiration of the Guarantee.
- 8.23. The Applicant shall not assign their rights and duties under the Guarantee Agreement to any third party without the Bank's prior consent.
- 8.24. If there is any change in the person of the Applicant, the original Applicant shall guarantee the payment of the Receivable under the Guarantee.
- 8.25. The legal relation established by the Guarantee Agreement shall last until the settlement of all liabilities incurred thereunder.
- 8.26. If the Applicant is in arrears with repayment of the Receivable under the Guarantee, they shall pay interest on arrears on the due amount to the Bank; The Bank may choose not to apply any interest on arrears.
- 8.27. If it is agreed between the Bank and Applicant that the Guarantee shall be governed by:
- a) Uniform Rules for Demand Guarantees, these Rules shall apply within the scope unless they contradict the law of the Slovak Republic; or
 - b) another law than the law of the Slovak Republic, it shall be governed by the law stated in the Guarantee.
- 8.28. If the Bank issues a Guarantee governed by different law than the law of the Slovak Republic on the Applicant's application, the Applicant thereby gives a promise of damage compensation to the Bank pursuant to Section 725 of the Commercial Code, whereunder they commit to compensate the Bank for any damage incurred by the same in connection with such Guarantee, including any and all costs that the Bank would have to expend in order to take action to avert the damage or to restrict it to the indispensable degree, within 7 days from the day on which the Bank calls the Applicant in writing to perform.

9. REPRESENTATIONS

- 9.1. The Client as the Borrower, the Applicant or the Guarantor represents that:
- a) they are a person/entity with unrestricted legal capacity, and persons / entities acting on its behalf have unrestricted legal capacity;

- 11.5. The Loan Agreement shall be entered into for a definite term, in particular for the Loan Relationship term.
- 11.6. The PsBC and the GBC shall be in force until termination of the Loan Relationship; also in case the Loan Agreement was terminated earlier, the Loan Relationship shall be governed by the terms in force at the time of termination of the Loan Agreement.
- 11.7. The Guarantor shall not be authorised to terminate the Security Agreement until the moment of extinguishment of the Bank's Receivable.
- 11.8. If conditions for the provision of products change on the basis of the Loan Agreement, provided that the effective date of such changes shall be a day not being a Business Day, the Bank may terminate the validity of the conditions agreed for the current period on the Business Day immediately preceding the effective date of such changes. The Bank may apply the changed conditions as of such day.
- 11.9. If, at any time during the Loan Relationship, the Borrower received any special advantage out of the state budget, the budget of the state purpose budget, out of the budget of any public institution, municipal budget, the budget of any higher territorial unit, out of the European funds or any other public resources, and provided that provision of such special advantage required the fulfilment of special conditions the Borrower agreed to fulfil under the Agreement, then such special advantage continue to apply and will cease to exist upon the fulfilment of the purpose or expiry of time period as might have been agreed in the Agreement with respect to such special conditions. The foregoing shall apply also where the Agreement has been modified/amended after the provision of the special advantage, or provision of the Loan with such special advantage or of the special advantage itself has terminated.

12. EARLY TERMINATION OF THE LOAN AGREEMENT, L/C AGREEMENT AND GUARANTEE AGREEMENT

- 12.1. The Loan Agreement, L/C Agreement and Guarantee Agreement may be terminated:
 - a) by the Bank at any time; and
 - b) by the Borrower, if its execution is contrary to statutory regulations or in other cases set forth in the PsBC and in the Agreement.
- 12.2. The Notice Period shall be 3 days and it shall commence on the next day after the date of delivery of the notice to the other party.
- 12.3. The Parties shall exclude the application of Section 500(2) of the Commercial Code to the Loan Agreement.
- 12.4. If Funds were Reserved under the Loan Agreement, the notice period shall expire on the day of settlement of the secured obligations.
- 12.5. Any and all receivables that originated under the Loan Agreement, L/C Agreement and Guarantee Agreement shall become due no later than as of the termination date of the same.
- 12.6. The following shall not cease to exist on early termination of the Loan Agreement, L/C Agreement and Guarantee Agreement:
 - a) Agreement on the governing law;
 - b) Agreement on dispute settlement;
 - c) Agreement on the restriction of the right to make transactions with funds on the account of the Borrower or Guarantor;
 - d) Those rights and duties the survival whereof was explicitly agreed by the parties; and
 - e) If Funds were Reserved under the Loan Agreement, the unsettled liabilities of the Borrower under the L/C Facility, Guarantee Facility and Treasury Facility, or, as applicable, under the Receivable under a Letter of Credit, Receivable under the Guarantee and under the Bank's Receivable from Treasury Deals.

13. FINAL PROVISIONS

- 13.1. The Bank may unilaterally amend the PsBC, if agreed with the Client, as well as the individual terms of the Finance Document on the following grounds:
 - a) Change to statutory regulations;
 - b) Development on the banking or financial market, which is capable of having an objective impact on the provision of Bank Products or on the terms, on which such products are provided;
 - c) Change of technical possibilities for providing Bank Products;
 - d) With a view to ensuring safe functioning of the banking system; or
 - e) With a view to ensuring compliance by the Bank with prudential regulations and banking stability.
 The Bank shall inform of any change in the PsBC by Publication no later than 15 calendar days in advance.
- 13.2. The Bank may supplement the PsBC due to an extension of the banking services. The Bank shall inform of the supplementation of the PsBC by Publication no later than 1 calendar day in advance.
- 13.3. Any amendment to the PsBC shall take effect on the day stated in the PsBC.
- 13.4. The PsBC shall survive the termination of the contractual relationship between the Client and the Bank until the full settlement of their mutual relationships.
- 13.5. The PsBC shall become effective as of 1 January 2015. Upon becoming effective, the PsBC shall revoke and supersede:
 - a) The Business Conditions of Slovenská sporiteľňa, a. s., for Loans to Corporate Clients and to the Public and the NGO Sector issued by the Bank with legal effect as of 1 July 2008;
 - b) The Business Conditions of Slovenská sporiteľňa, a. s. for Loans and Overdraft Facilities to Private Clients and to MICRO Entrepreneurs issued by the Bank with legal effect as of 1 July 2007, in the sections that governed the provision of loans to clients being natural persons - sole traders and legal entities; and
 - c) The Business Conditions for Guarantees issued by the Bank with legal effect as of 1 February 2007.
