Legend: x service is not provided

1/ Execution of standing Payment Order from Account of Client in favour of Account, Saving Account, Deposit Account and Saving book of the same Client in the Bank is without fee.

2/ Under Transfer FIT 2.0 in EUR we understand a single Transfer payment order or Urgent transfer in EUR currency (Euro) to FIT 2.0 banks, which are available for SEPA transfers. If the Transfer FIT 2.0 in EUR meets the conditions for Cross-border transfer, i.e. the recipient's bank is not available for SEPA transfers, a Fee for this type of transfer refers to it (see the part of the Service Charge List - Cross-border transfers).

3/ Related to the Saving account without fee

4/ It also includes a one-time Payment Order provided via ATM and a one-time Payment Order provided via ATM, which may be made by the Bank as an Instant Payment.

5/ It also includes transfer without submission of Payment order upon forced execution of a public administration authority decision, upon performing another statutory obligation of the Banks or in other cases agreed in the Contract.

6/ The fee shall also apply if the standing Payment Order is automatically canceled after executing the number of Payment Orders specified by the Client, after the amount specified by the Client has been transferred or on the Client's next cancellation date. The manner in which the Client has determined this cancellation is decisive for determining the fee rate.

Cross-border transfers

Execution method FEE	through Electronic services Rate	at the Branch Rate
Transfer in EUR into EEA countries including SEPA ^{1/} (transfers to banks unreachable for SEPA payments)	0,22 €	8,00 €

Confirmation of transfer execution	16,60 €

1/ For transfer in EUR to EEA countries including SEPA the cross-border transfer is considered as: in EUR currency, with the correct BIC SWIFT code of the payee's bank, account number of the payee in IBAN format, with SHA payment condition.

2/ For transfer within the ERSTE GROUP financial group the cross-border transfer is considered as: in all currencies that the Bank performs cross-border transfers in, with the correct BIC SWIFT code of the payee's bank. Transfers without a BIC SWIFT code or with and incorrect BIC SWIFT code of the PAYEE's bank will be subject to the fee applicable to cross-border transfers.

3/ Under FIT 2.0 Transfer in EUR we understand a cross-border transfer: in Eur (Euro) currency into FIT 2.0 banks, which are not reachable for SEPA transfers, with correct BIC SWIFT code of the beneficiary's bank. The fee valid for Cross-border transfers (see Service Charge List – Cross border Transfers part) is applied to transfers with not entered or incorrectly entered BIC SWIFT code of the beneficiary's bank. If a FIT 2.0 Transfer meets the conditions for domestic transfer i.e. the beneficiary's bank is reachable for SEPA transfers, a charge like for this type of transfer applies to it (see the Service Charge List part – Domestic transfers).

4/ Transfer in CZK to ČSAS a.s. is considered as a cross-border transfer: in CZK (Czech crown) currency to Česká spořitelna a.s. with the correct BIC SWIFT code of the payee's bank (GIBACZPX). The transfer with unindicated or incorrectly completed BIC SWIFT code of the payee's bank shall be charged with a fee valid as for cross-border transfers.

1/ In the case of a transfer with condition OUR, the expenses of the foreign or local bank will be debited against the remitter's account on the same day the transfer amount is debited – if the bank knows the expenses in advance, or later in the amount of the actual expenses charged by the relevant bank. This fee, considered as the fee of a foreign bank, is charged by the Bank using the current rate from the list of exchange rates of the Bank valid at the time of transfer performance and/or the individual exchange rate determined by the Bank or agreed between the Bank and the Client.

When a transfer in USD with OUR condition is made to the beneficiary's bank located in USA or outside USA, the OUR instruction will be changed to SHA by the correspondence bank, the change of this payments instruction has no impact on Client's duty to pay the Bank surcharge for payment with OUR payment condition. The fees of the correspondence banks participating in US clearing will be debited from the transferred amount.

9. Definition of terms and Fee setting principles

A. Definition of terms

Assets

Assets crucial for providing discount from the Maintenance fee of selected Bank Products.

Assets for monitored period include:

- a) the average monthly balance of Client funds on the Bank Product (in any currency),
- b) the average monthly value of securities registered at the Bank for the Client (the calculation base for securities value is in case of bonds their nominal value and in case of shares their market value),
- c) the average monthly market value of unit shares of the EAM SK fund and ERSTE fund registered in the Bank for the Client,
- d) the average monthly market value of gold in the ownership of the Client deposited at the Bank, and
- e) the average monthly value of the paid life insurance of the Client at Kooperativa insurance, a.s. Vienna Insurance Group.

The average monthly balances or values are calculated from the balances or values on Bank products at the end of the day.

Foreign currencies are converted by ECB exchange rate according to the list of exchange rates of the Bank valid on the end of the day.

If the Bank Product is established for two or more Clients, for the purpose of calculating the average monthly balance the percentage share of the Client in the Bank Product is included. For determination of the number of Clients, for whom the Bank Product is maintained, the last end of the day is crucial.

B. Fee Setting Principles

- 1) The monthly Account maintenance fee is payable:
 - a) the last calendar day of each calendar month,
 - b) the last day of the Contract term if it was terminated in the calendar month, or
 - c) in case of Account reclassification among Bank Products - the fee is due in two parts; on the Account reclassification date the Fee is calculated from the rate valid for the original Bank Product and on the last day of the calendar month when the reclassification took place and the Fee is calculated from the rate valid for the new Bank Product.
As at the reclassification date all further Fees charged from the Account are due where the Bank announced their maturity for the last calendar day. The Account maintenance fee is calculated from the actual number of days during which the Bank Product was provided, whereas the termination of the contractual relationship is not included in this number. The Bank will debit the fee from the Account or will set it off against any of the Client's receivables from the Bank.
- 2) A fee for using the security box for the current month is always due at the end of the given calendar month.
- 3) Pledging the financial funds on the Account, Deposit account and Saving account and / or for the elaboration of the Contract on Vinculation upon the Client's request is due on the day of submitting of application.
- 4) The fee for Payment Card is due:
 - a) the last day in the relevant calendar month for which it is charged; or
 - b) at the date specified in the account statement. Fees Credit Card and Additional Card Charges are due on the date specified in credit card statement of transactions.

If the Client changes the Account Type during the calendar month, the Payment Card Fee is charged as follows:

 - a) If the Client's existing card is not free of charge in the new account type, the Payment Card fee is charged to the Client the following calendar month after the change of account type
 - b) If the Client's existing card is free of charge in the new type of account, while it was not in the original account type, the Payment Card fee is not charged to the Client the following calendar month after the change.
Debit / Credit Card Charges are not limited to Card activation or Card usage.
- 5) A contractual penalty for breaching a Payment Card Agreement is due on the day an obligation under the Payment Card Agreement is breached.
- 6) The contractual penalty for late payment can be applied if the payment of a monetary debt to the Bank Product is not made properly and in a timely manner. The contractual penalty is payable immediately after the vain expiry of the performance period, which is specified in a written free notice sent to the Client. The Bank may apply a contractual penalty for any delay on a given Bank Product, after sending a free notice to the Client no more than once a month from the occurrence of the delay until the delay is fully repaid. The Bank shall apply a contractual penalty, up to a maximum of the amount laid down by law. By paying the contractual penalty, the Client's obligation to pay the delayed amount does not cease.
- 7) The fee for exceeding the permitted Card Line is due on the date determined in the statement of transactions performed by the Credit Card.
- 8) A Fee for loan granting is due on the first day of loan granting.
- 9) The Fee Charged for Changes in Contractual Conditions and Other Loan Services - Requested by Client is due upon signing the amendment to the loan agreement.
- 10) The fee for executed Domestic Transfer or Foreign Transfer is due on the day of executing the payment operation.
- 11) A fee for services provided to a Client by the Bank as a member of the Central Securities Depository is due upon giving an order by the Client to the Bank.
- 12) Extra SMS service fee is due on the last day of the calendar month. Extra SMS service fee is charged for each Client or An authorized person, which activated the service, in relation to each Account for which the services are provided where the authorized person of the service has activated the George version via the Internetbanking Electronic Service or also through the Business24 Electronic Service, the fee shall be paid separately for each activated SMS service Extra. For the calendar month in which the expiration of the Contract occurred under which the Extra SMS Services are provided the Bank charges the Fee for providing the SMS service Extra only if the Bank has sent to Client - to the given Account at least a SMS message in calendar month.

- 13) The fee for electronic personal key (EPK) activation is due upon reception of the given Security Object by the Client.
- 14) The SMS fee to confirm card payment on the Internet (3D Secure code) is payable on the last day of the calendar month or on the day of cancellation of the Account and is charged in aggregate for each SMS received.
- 15) The fee for other operations of the Bank not specified in the previous clauses are due immediately upon execution of the Bank operation that is subject to charges; the Bank shall deduct the Fee from the Account, Card 's account, resp. Deposit Account of Client, or sets it off against any claim of the Client towards the Bank; if it is not possible, the Client is obliged to pay the Fee prior to the execution of the operation being subject to charges or issuance of the confirmation.
- 16) Fees specified in the Service Charge List apply also to products and services provided to a Client in a foreign currency. The conversion of domestic currency to a foreign currency is performed at the ECB exchange rate of the relevant currency as set forth in the Bank's currency rate list in effect on the Fee's due date.
- 17) In case of regularly charged fees, according to the Payment Services Law, the Bank charges maximally the aliquot part of regularly billed fees appertaining until termination of Agreement, upon which the payment service is provided. Herewith, it is not excluded the possibility based upon § 98 of the Payment Services Law, to come to a different Agreement with a Client, which is not a consumer according to this Law, that the provision of Article 33 par. 4 of this act shall not apply in full scope or partially to their contractual relationship.
- 18) Upon cancellation of (registered) Passbooks, Accounts, Deposit, the Client will pay, in addition to a fee published in the Service Charge List, also the heller balance on the cancelled product.
- 19) The fee for recall and/or failure to perform of the notified cash withdrawal is due one business day after non-performance of the notified cash withdrawal.
- 20) The fee for gold bar custody is due on the last day of each calendar month. The fee for gold bar custody will be charged always as at 15 January of the calendar year, and that for the previous calendar year. In case that the Client has an Account of securities owner maintained at the Bank the fee for gold bar custody will be charged together with the maintenance fee for the Account of securities owner.
- 21) The fee for the Publication of Account on the webpage is payable on the last day of each calendar month or on the day on which the Account Publication period ends, whichever occurs first. The fee for the calendar month in which the Contract on Publication of Account was terminated is only charged if the Publication of Account was provided to the Client for the whole calendar month.
- 22) Unless otherwise specified in the tariff, for the purposes of determining the fee, an act/activity performed through the Client Centre is considered to be performed as through a branch.
- 23) Fee due dates are subject to these fee setting principles, unless otherwise stated in a written Agreement with the Client.
